Mustang wrestlers capture national crown

Pro 49ers like Poly for training site

Mustang Daily

CALIFORNIA STATE

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIFORNIA

MARCH 14, 1965

Glenn Yarbrough here; full house expected

Glenn Yarbrough will appear in concert on Saturday night, April 4, in the War's Gym. The show is sponsored by the College Union Assembly Committee for College Weekend.

The type of music that Yarbrough sings can only be classified as good music. Though he is often listed as a folk singer, Yarbrough doesn't consider himself as one. About the style of music that he does sing, he recently said, "I guess you could say I sing somewhere between folk and folk rock. However, sometimes I sing pop, too." Yarbrough calls himself an entertainer.

Yarbrough's nine albums are probably the best indication of his success. Through many remember he by his recording of "Only the Rain Must Fall," he usually tells his audience that probably more people know him from his Cos Cob commercials that he sang.

"Happy and Wine," the most recent album you recorded as a wedding gift to his wife. The album contains what he feels are some of the most beautiful love songs ever written. One of the selections called, "Pieds de Woeber." was written especially for Glenn and his bride by the popular composer, Bob McK zostać. Glenn Yarbrough is popular with the colleges so an invitation called by the many college concepts that he gives each year. Prices for the concert are $6.50 for students and $8 and $10 for the general public.

Miss La Fiesta deadline nears

The first step for a coed toward Miss America title could be won May 6, according to Bob Spink, chairman of the Miss California Pageant Governing committee.

The kind of girl we are searching for should have beauty, personality, intelligence, talent, dance, and education. She should not be over 21 years old.

Entry Information for the local contest can be obtained at the All office, Spink said, the deadline March 15.

49er's coach and presidential aide inspect campus, playing facilities

by George Ramos

Cal Poly is one of the final sites being considered by the San Francisco 49ers as a possible training camp this summer.

Dick Nolan, the newly-appointed head coach, and Art John- son, special assistant to their president, Lou Spadia, made a tour of the campus Wednesday to inspect campus facilities.

Everett Chandler, dean of students, conducted the tour for the two football officials. According to Nolan, the 49ers are now down to "three schools." Johnson did My sites in Utah had already been eliminated. According to the March 6 story in Mustang Daily, eight sites were originally being considered. According to Nolan, the final decision would come within the next two weeks.

Jack White, 49er general manager, earlier told Mustang Daily what the others considered essential. White listed housing, dining, transportation facilities, and the playing areas as some of the essential factors. White visited the campus last Sunday and told college officials he was impressed with what Cal Poly had to offer.

Everett Chandler, Johnson and Nolan, said sometime housing (Continued on page 3)
Mustang wrestlers capture national crown

Glenn Yarbrough here; full house expected

Great Yarbrough will appear in your area on Saturday night, and in the Korry Gym. The concert is sponsored by the College Union Committee and the Men's College Union. The roof is lower than usual for this concert, but it is still expected to be a fun event.

Full house expected

Yarbrough's solo album will surely be the highlight of the evening. He will be accompanied by a full orchestra, and the audience is expected to be enthusiastic.

Miss La Fiesta

Deadline nears

The deadline for a good turned in for the Miss La Fiesta contest is fast approaching. Be sure to enter by the deadline to be considered.

49er's coach and presidential aide inspect campus, playing facilities

Plans completed for Kennedy inauguration

Another chapter in the history of Cal Poly will be written April 1 with the inauguration of Dr. Robert B. Kennedy. Dr. Kennedy has accepted the presidency of Cal Poly and will be sworn in at the American assembling at 10 a.m. You are invited to attend the ceremony.

Preliminary plans for the inauguration are under way. More information will be available shortly. Make plans now to attend this important event.

In other news, Cal Poly officials have announced that the university will be open to the public on inauguration day. The university will be closed to the public for the rest of the week.

New members of the administration have been announced. The new members will be introduced at the inauguration.

Must men bring back 3 scalps from fray

National Collegiate Division Wrestling championship Cal Poly finally has qualified for the NCAA. The university recently announced plans to hold a meet of major interest to the Cal Poly football team. The announcement was made in an effort to keep Cal Poly competitive in the future.

The tournament will be held at the new Cal Poly Coliseum. The university plans to make the Coliseum available to the public for a good time. The event will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.

In other NCAA news, Cal Poly has been invited to compete in the NCAA Division II tournament. The university has accepted the invitation and plans to send a team of the best wrestlers to the event. The tournament will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.

49er's coach and presidential aide inspect campus, playing facilities

Plans completed for Kennedy inauguration

Another chapter in the history of Cal Poly will be written April 1 with the inauguration of Dr. Robert B. Kennedy. Dr. Kennedy has accepted the presidency of Cal Poly and will be sworn in at the American assembling at 10 a.m. You are invited to attend the ceremony.

Preliminary plans for the inauguration are under way. More information will be available shortly. Make plans now to attend this important event.

In other news, Cal Poly officials have announced that the university will be open to the public on inauguration day. The university will be closed to the public for the rest of the week.

New members of the administration have been announced. The new members will be introduced at the inauguration.

Must men bring back 3 scalps from fray

National Collegiate Division Wrestling championship Cal Poly finally has qualified for the NCAA. The university recently announced plans to hold a meet of major interest to the Cal Poly football team. The announcement was made in an effort to keep Cal Poly competitive in the future.

The tournament will be held at the new Cal Poly Coliseum. The university plans to make the Coliseum available to the public for a good time. The event will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.

In other NCAA news, Cal Poly has been invited to compete in the NCAA Division II tournament. The university has accepted the invitation and plans to send a team of the best wrestlers to the event. The tournament will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.

49er's coach and presidential aide inspect campus, playing facilities

Plans completed for Kennedy inauguration

Another chapter in the history of Cal Poly will be written April 1 with the inauguration of Dr. Robert B. Kennedy. Dr. Kennedy has accepted the presidency of Cal Poly and will be sworn in at the American assembling at 10 a.m. You are invited to attend the ceremony.

Preliminary plans for the inauguration are under way. More information will be available shortly. Make plans now to attend this important event.

In other news, Cal Poly officials have announced that the university will be open to the public on inauguration day. The university will be closed to the public for the rest of the week.

New members of the administration have been announced. The new members will be introduced at the inauguration.

Must men bring back 3 scalps from fray

National Collegiate Division Wrestling championship Cal Poly finally has qualified for the NCAA. The university recently announced plans to hold a meet of major interest to the Cal Poly football team. The announcement was made in an effort to keep Cal Poly competitive in the future.

The tournament will be held at the new Cal Poly Coliseum. The university plans to make the Coliseum available to the public for a good time. The event will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.

In other NCAA news, Cal Poly has been invited to compete in the NCAA Division II tournament. The university has accepted the invitation and plans to send a team of the best wrestlers to the event. The tournament will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.

49er's coach and presidential aide inspect campus, playing facilities

Plans completed for Kennedy inauguration

Another chapter in the history of Cal Poly will be written April 1 with the inauguration of Dr. Robert B. Kennedy. Dr. Kennedy has accepted the presidency of Cal Poly and will be sworn in at the American assembling at 10 a.m. You are invited to attend the ceremony.

Preliminary plans for the inauguration are under way. More information will be available shortly. Make plans now to attend this important event.

In other news, Cal Poly officials have announced that the university will be open to the public on inauguration day. The university will be closed to the public for the rest of the week.

New members of the administration have been announced. The new members will be introduced at the inauguration.

Must men bring back 3 scalps from fray

National Collegiate Division Wrestling championship Cal Poly finally has qualified for the NCAA. The university recently announced plans to hold a meet of major interest to the Cal Poly football team. The announcement was made in an effort to keep Cal Poly competitive in the future.

The tournament will be held at the new Cal Poly Coliseum. The university plans to make the Coliseum available to the public for a good time. The event will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.

In other NCAA news, Cal Poly has been invited to compete in the NCAA Division II tournament. The university has accepted the invitation and plans to send a team of the best wrestlers to the event. The tournament will be held on Saturday night, and tickets will be available at the door.
The Student Affairs Council (SAC) and the Police and Security Service have condemned violent demonstrations on campus.

The joint statement, issued Friday, said:

"The latter statement written by any governmental or private authority may take such action as is authorized by law.

The State College Board of Trustees earlier gave Individual conduct "at once disrupt the educational process in every way and constitute criminal offense."" "Judging from the high degree of tolerance displayed by the faculty and staff during the demonstrations, the student statement truly represents the beliefs and ideas of the faculty and staff of this university," Kennedy said.

The cost of the project was estimated at about $18 million. The architects are DeForest and Blackhurst and the contractors will be selected by the Board of Trustees.

The state college presidency recently received official word that Cal Poly will fly its own flag on inauguration day.

Steve Riddell, president editor-in-chief of the Daily Mustang, said, "The official flag will fly on inauguration day."

"Nothing can be done through oppression. A student must be allowed to make decisions. As a student, you can be as free as you like."

"But don't do this to a student. It will kill our academic freedom. As a student you must have the right to do all that you want to do," Kennedy explained.

Dumke explained role of higher education
The “higher education” question asked of him yesterday in a series of questions by the State College faculty-staff group received.

Dumke’s reply was that there was no question about the role of higher education. One is to preserve and transmit.”

Swift said: "The latter statement written by any governmental or private authority which may disrupt the educational process may take such action as is authorized by law."

"The State College Board of Trustees earlier gave Individual conduct "at once disrupt the educational process in every way and constitute criminal offense."" "Judging from the high degree of tolerance displayed by the faculty and staff during the demonstrations, the student statement truly represents the beliefs and ideas of the faculty and staff of this university," Kennedy said.

The cost of the project was estimated at about $18 million. The architects are DeForest and Blackhurst and the contractors will be selected by the Board of Trustees.

The state college presidency recently received official word that Cal Poly will fly its own flag on inauguration day.

Steve Riddell, president editor-in-chief of the Daily Mustang, said, "The official flag will fly on inauguration day."

"Nothing can be done through oppression. A student must be allowed to make decisions. As a student, you can be as free as you like."

"But don't do this to a student. It will kill our academic freedom. As a student you must have the right to do all that you want to do," Kennedy explained.

Dumke explained role of higher education
The “higher education” question asked of him yesterday in a series of questions by the State College faculty-staff group received.

Dumke’s reply was that there was no question about the role of higher education. One is to preserve and transmit.”

Swift said: "The latter statement written by any governmental or private authority which may disrupt the educational process may take such action as is authorized by law."

"The State College Board of Trustees earlier gave Individual conduct "at once disrupt the educational process in every way and constitute criminal offense."" "Judging from the high degree of tolerance displayed by the faculty and staff during the demonstrations, the student statement truly represents the beliefs and ideas of the faculty and staff of this university," Kennedy said.

The cost of the project was estimated at about $18 million. The architects are DeForest and Blackhurst and the contractors will be selected by the Board of Trustees.

The state college presidency recently received official word that Cal Poly will fly its own flag on inauguration day.

Steve Riddell, president editor-in-chief of the Daily Mustang, said, "The official flag will fly on inauguration day."

"Nothing can be done through oppression. A student must be allowed to make decisions. As a student, you can be as free as you like."

"But don't do this to a student. It will kill our academic freedom. As a student you must have the right to do all that you want to do," Kennedy explained.

Dumke explained role of higher education
The “higher education” question asked of him yesterday in a series of questions by the State College faculty-staff group received.

Dumke’s reply was that there was no question about the role of higher education. One is to preserve and transmit.”

Swift said: "The latter statement written by any governmental or private authority which may disrupt the educational process may take such action as is authorized by law."

"The State College Board of Trustees earlier gave Individual conduct "at once disrupt the educational process in every way and constitute criminal offense."" "Judging from the high degree of tolerance displayed by the faculty and staff during the demonstrations, the student statement truly represents the beliefs and ideas of the faculty and staff of this university," Kennedy said.

The cost of the project was estimated at about $18 million. The architects are DeForest and Blackhurst and the contractors will be selected by the Board of Trustees.

The state college presidency recently received official word that Cal Poly will fly its own flag on inauguration day.

Steve Riddell, president editor-in-chief of the Daily Mustang, said, "The official flag will fly on inauguration day."

"Nothing can be done through oppression. A student must be allowed to make decisions. As a student, you can be as free as you like."

"But don't do this to a student. It will kill our academic freedom. As a student you must have the right to do all that you want to do," Kennedy explained.

Dumke explained role of higher education
The “higher education” question asked of him yesterday in a series of questions by the State College faculty-staff group received.

Dumke’s reply was that there was no question about the role of higher education. One is to preserve and transmit.”

Swift said: "The latter statement written by any governmental or private authority which may disrupt the educational process may take such action as is authorized by law."

"The State College Board of Trustees earlier gave Individual conduct "at once disrupt the educational process in every way and constitute criminal offense."" "Judging from the high degree of tolerance displayed by the faculty and staff during the demonstrations, the student statement truly represents the beliefs and ideas of the faculty and staff of this university," Kennedy said.

The cost of the project was estimated at about $18 million. The architects are DeForest and Blackhurst and the contractors will be selected by the Board of Trustees.

The state college presidency recently received official word that Cal Poly will fly its own flag on inauguration day.

Steve Riddell, president editor-in-chief of the Daily Mustang, said, "The official flag will fly on inauguration day."

"Nothing can be done through oppression. A student must be allowed to make decisions. As a student, you can be as free as you like."

"But don't do this to a student. It will kill our academic freedom. As a student you must have the right to do all that you want to do," Kennedy explained.

Dumke explained role of higher education
The “higher education” question asked of him yesterday in a series of questions by the State College faculty-staff group received.

Dumke’s reply was that there was no question about the role of higher education. One is to preserve and transmit.”

Swift said: "The latter statement written by any governmental or private authority which may disrupt the educational process may take such action as is authorized by law."

"The State College Board of Trustees earlier gave Individual conduct "at once disrupt the educational process in every way and constitute criminal offense."" "Judging from the high degree of tolerance displayed by the faculty and staff during the demonstrations, the student statement truly represents the beliefs and ideas of the faculty and staff of this university," Kennedy said.

The cost of the project was estimated at about $18 million. The architects are DeForest and Blackhurst and the contractors will be selected by the Board of Trustees.

The state college presidency recently received official word that Cal Poly will fly its own flag on inauguration day.

Steve Riddell, president editor-in-chief of the Daily Mustang, said, "The official flag will fly on inauguration day."

"Nothing can be done through oppression. A student must be allowed to make decisions. As a student, you can be as free as you like."

"But don't do this to a student. It will kill our academic freedom. As a student you must have the right to do all that you want to do," Kennedy explained.

Dumke explained role of higher education
The “higher education” question asked of him yesterday in a series of questions by the State College faculty-staff group received.

Dumke’s reply was that there was no question about the role of higher education. One is to preserve and transmit.”

Swift said: "The latter statement written by any governmental or private authority which may disrupt the educational process may take such action as is authorized by law."

"The State College Board of Trustees earlier gave Individual conduct "at once disrupt the educational process in every way and constitute criminal offense."" "Judging from the high degree of tolerance displayed by the faculty and staff during the demonstrations, the student statement truly represents the beliefs and ideas of the faculty and staff of this university," Kennedy said.

The cost of the project was estimated at about $18 million. The architects are DeForest and Blackhurst and the contractors will be selected by the Board of Trustees.

The state college presidency recently received official word that Cal Poly will fly its own flag on inauguration day.

Steve Riddell, president editor-in-chief of the Daily Mustang, said, "The official flag will fly on inauguration day."

"Nothing can be done through oppression. A student must be allowed to make decisions. As a student, you can be as free as you like."

"But don't do this to a student. It will kill our academic freedom. As a student you must have the right to do all that you want to do," Kennedy explained.