Gregory: angry man

by Jim Runyan

"Ask anyone, there's one thing wrong with the people in this country. They've got too much confidence in the future. The American people of today are not so interested in the past. They're interested in how to live. They're interested in how to get along. They're interested in how to make a living. They're interested in how to live a better life.""}

The name of Robert E. Kennedy, former senator and presidential candidate, was announced today as the new student body president of the University of California, Los Angeles. The announcement was made at a news conference held here to announce the court's decision in the case of California v. Regents.

Kennedy, a native of Los Angeles, is the son of former senator Robert F. Kennedy. He is a graduate of Harvard University and a member of the Harvard Law School faculty.

What can we build if we work together?

By Roy K. Oskam

"Since the beginning of the world, mankind has been working together to build something that will last. The first thing we built was a city. Then we built a nation. Then we built a world. And now we are building a future."

Coach Verne Hitchcock's wrestling team, led by Tom Winn and team captain Tom Kline, took home the NCAA title this past weekend.

While the Mustangs were not empty-handed at the national tournament, individual titles after being crowned NCAA college All-Americans during the fall, the Mustangs' first place finish was not only a surprise, but also a testament to the hard work and dedication of the team.

"I was very pleased," stated Hitchcock, after the tournament, which featured over 100 wrestlers. "I'm very satisfied with the outcome of our team. It's not often that you have a team that could hold their own at this level." Hitchcock went on to say that the top of the nation.

Kline contributed 13 points to the Mustangs' overall score, leading Oklahoma State in their championship bout against California. "It's the only place," Hitchcock added, "where you can actually win a national title." Hitchcock continued, "I'm very delighted with the performance of the team. It's the only team that could hold their own at this level." Hitchcock went on to say that the top of the nation.

Student rebellion-more fancy than fact

NEW YORK— A new survey of American college student opinion on major issues shows them to be far less in rebellion and much closer to adult opinions than once thought.
A survey of 1,120 students was conducted by Newsweek magazine and represents a cross-section of students from 150 colleges.
According to the magazine's special editor, the survey shows that the students are "not...
