Willing service is theme

President Robert E. Kennedy was inaugurated this week amidst a jubilant college campus and a show of solidarity from the students. The event was a testament to the unity of the campus and the support for the new president. The inauguration was a significant moment in the college's history, and it marked the beginning of a new era of leadership.

TV class taught by alumnus

William J. Mead, producer of two nightly news programs, gave a lecture on the history of football at the college. The lecture was well-received by the students, who were eager to learn from a successful alumnus. The lecture was a great way to connect with the alumni and inspire the students to reach for their dreams.

A day to remember for Dr. Kennedy

From the podium of the auditorium to the stadium, Dr. Kennedy delivered a powerful speech that left a lasting impression on the students. The speech was a call to action, encouraging the students to be the change they wish to see in the world. The students were inspired by his words and were eager to be part of this new chapter in the college's history.

Greeting cards were brought to the inauguration by Dr. Kennedy, who was accompanied by his staff and the board of trustees. The greeting cards were a symbol of the college's appreciation for the students' support. The students were overjoyed to receive these cards and were eager to share them with their friends and family.

Reagan issues challenge

Governor Ronald Reagan issued a challenge to the college, urging the students to be the change they wish to see in the world. The governor's message was a call to action, encouraging the students to be leaders in their community and to make a difference in the world.

Governor Rooneys visits North Vietnam

Governor Ronald Reagan visited North Vietnam to discuss the peace negotiations. The governor's visit was a significant event, and it marked the beginning of a new chapter in the college's history. The students were proud to have a governor who was willing to make a difference in the world.

Reagan viewed at campus

Governor Reagan was welcomed at the college by a large crowd of students and alumni. The governor's visit was a significant event, and it marked the beginning of a new chapter in the college's history. The students were proud to have a governor who was willing to make a difference in the world.
"Preview concert" A special preview of this year's Homecoming will be presented in the Little Theater Thursday, April 11, during the College Hour. The performance will include appearances by the Women's Chorus, the Collegetime teen band, and the Campus Choir. The program will begin at 7:45 p.m.

"King of Kings" film "King of Kings," presented in the theater and on the TV of each dorm, will be presented tomorrow night by the College Union Film Committee.

Campus jobs given Many job opportunities are being offered to students with a definite financial need under the College Work-Study Program. Campus jobs, ranging from janitorial to student assistants, are available with an average load of 16 hours or more. The pay scale is from $2.50 to $4.00 per hour with an average of all hours of employment per month allowable.

OLD BOMB

NEW HONDA

SAME PRICE.

It's true this sleek new Honda Scrambler 125 would cost you the same money as the old used bomb, but the low price isn't the whole Honda story. Far from it.

When you ride any of Honda's 23 models, you can forget high insurance, upkeep, and maintenance costs. Forget parking problems too.

And look at the Scrambler 125 styling: new candy colors, chrome fenders, trim new forks, upswept pipes. And performance: the 125's dependable 4-stroke parallel twin OHC engine delivers an impressive 13 hp at 10,000 rpm; up to 153 mpg.

The hot new Scrambler 125. Can you think of a better reason to ban the bomb?
