Slack named associate director of university relations

Darlene Slack, former assistant to the director of development, has been named associate director of university relations. She reports to Dr. James L. Strom, vice president, university relations.

In this new position, Slack is responsible for all publications produced for the alumni, development and annual giving offices as well as for Cal Poly Today. She will continue her duties as staff liaison for the President's Cabinet and Round Table groups as well as assist in the writing of fund-raising proposals.

This consolidation of responsibility for publications within the university relations division will allow for increased review of each product's effectiveness and for better coordination between publications.

Slack has been with the university for two years and has had 16 years of publication experience. Prior to coming to Cal Poly, she was corporate communications administrator for The Times Mirror Co. in Los Angeles.

Virginia professor to head Accounting Department

A University of Virginia professor has been appointed head of the Accounting Department. The announcement was made by Dr. Kenneth D. Walters, dean of the School of Business.

Dr. William C. Boynton of Charlottesville, Va., associate dean for faculty affairs, McIntire School of Commerce at University of Virginia, will take up his new duties Sept. 16, the beginning of the Fall Quarter. He succeeds Dr. Richard Schmidt, who headed the department for the last three years.

In his 11 years on the Virginia faculty he has been acting associate dean, director of graduate studies, accounting area coordinator, and co-director of the National Banking School.

Warren will head El Corral

C. Court Warren, operations manager at the El Corral Bookstore for the past five years, has been appointed director.

The decision was made by the board of directors of the Cal Poly Foundation following a recommendation from Al Amaral, executive director of the foundation.

Warren takes over his new responsibilities on Aug. 1, the day after Ivan Sanderson retires. Sanderson has led the $8.8 million operation for approximately eight years.

Warren came to Cal Poly in 1978 as the fiscal assistant at El Corral. Two years later he became operations manager, one of three positions reporting to the bookstore director. Responsible for all fiscal operations of the bookstore, he has been spearheading the development of an in-house computerized inventory control system.

An active member of the California Association of College Stores, Warren served as an instructor of financial seminars and presenter/panelist at several annual meetings. This summer he will teach in the NACS management seminar at Stanford University.

Cal Poly Children's Center to provide summer program

This summer the Cal Poly Children's Center is providing a program for children from ages 6-9. It will offer a great variety of educational and fun experiences under the guidance of the Center's professional staff.

Space will be limited to 10 children per session on a first-come, first-serve basis. It is open to children of Cal Poly students, faculty and staff.

Activities will include guided tours of Cal Poly poultry, dairy, horse, swine, and ornamental horticulture units, hiking, arts and crafts, outside games, field trips and more.

A breakfast, lunch and afternoon snack will be included every day during the session.

Hours are 9 am to 4 pm, Monday through Friday. Extended hours are also available at a cost of $2 per hour. The cost is $60 per week.

Session I - July 22 - July 26
II - July 29 - Aug. 2
III - Aug. 5 - 9
IV - Aug. 12 - 16
V - Aug. 19 - 23
VI - Aug. 26 - 30

For more information about this program, please contact Yvonne Ricketts at the ASI Children's Center, ext. 1267.
Large-format painting exhibit at University Union Galerie

“Fat Chicks and Other Pies,” an exhibition of the large-format works of artist, teacher, and photographer Jim Alford, will be shown in the UU Galerie through Sunday, July 21.

The title of the show is derived from one of Alford’s paintings which is included in this display, “No Fat Chicks.” The name of the painting is in turn based on graffiti and the infamous bumper sticker with the same message, sometimes seen on pick up trucks.

The Galerie will be closed on Sundays for the summer. Otherwise, regular hours will be observed. These hours are Mondays and Tuesdays, 10 am to 6 pm; Wednesdays and Thursdays, 10 am to 8 pm; Fridays, 10 am to 4 pm; and Saturdays, noon to 4 pm. For further information call ext. 1182.

Retirement party for Art Young

A retirement reception will be held for Art Young on Tuesday, July 16, from 2 to 3:30 pm in the Staff Dining Room.

Young will retire on Friday, July 19, after 27 years as chief engineer in Plant Operations.

Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly State University and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices (State: Adm. 110, 805-546-2236—Foundation: mobile unit near the Fire Department (805-546-1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. All interested persons are encouraged to apply.

State
CLOSING DATE: 7-26-85

Equipment Technician II-Mechanical (Printing), half-time: $985-$1185/month; or full time $1970-$2370/month, must be willing to work some evening and early morning hours. Graphic Communications.

Director (Administrative Operations Analyst II/III), $2015-$2924/month, Cal Poly Center of the Arts.

Candidates for positions on the faculty of the university are presently being sought, according to Jan Pieper, director of personnel and employee relations. Those interested in learning more about the positions are invited to contact the appropriate dean or department head. This University is subject to all laws governing Affirmative Action and equal employment opportunity including but not limited to Executive Order 11246 and Title IX of the Education Amendments Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. All interested persons are encouraged to apply.

CLOSING DATE: 8-8-85
Lecturer (full time), salary commensurate with qualifications and experience, Graphic Communications. Position available for the 1985-86 academic year. Duties include teaching advanced art and copy preparation and printing technology courses to design reproduction technology and mass printing processes and procedures. Critical understanding of pre-separated art, type imposition, process camera, image assembly, plates, and production. Master’s degree (B.S. or B.A. may be considered) in related technical field with substantial and appropriate industry experience. Include in application: vita, three letters of recommendation and official transcripts.

CP/M workshop will be held on Aug. 8

The Microcomputer and Telecommunication Systems Department will offer a 90-minute, beginning workshop on the popular eight-bit system, CP/M.

It will be held on Thursday, Aug. 8, from 11 am to 12:30 pm in Computer Science 255. Instructional computing consultant Larrie Ciano will lead the workshop.

The CP/M commands dir, stat, format, era, type, rename, pip as well as the backup procedure will be explained. If time permits, copydisk and sysgen will be discussed.

Those interested in enrolling are asked to call ext. 1295. The class will be limited to 30, and a waiting list will be kept. (Please note the new date and different time for this workshop.)

PAYDAY
JULY 30

CPR schedule

The next Cal Poly Report will be July 25. Typewritten, double-spaced copy is due in Admin. 206 by July 18. Publication will be on an alternate week schedule throughout the summer, with copy due a week in advance.