King loss stuns campus

By Sharon Murphy
Managing Editor

"He was in the last hope. Most of the Negro leaders are violent. He was the last hope." Not the words of a man, but the words of a student who attended the service for the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The group will fly to Europe as a California State College Charter on a Pan-American or Air France jet. Most of the students will be living in Florence and will be selected from 45 applicants from the Poly Royal and Black Students Alliance. They will be selected by Mike Stromberg, a junior and Black Students Alliance Chairman.

The voting power is the underlining factor of the election of the California State Division of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The students were selected at a previous meeting in an acclamation, or no opposition, or no contest of the proceedings. The following qualities were considered necessary in a high quality of service, public interest and to people interested in the students work.

The group will leave Thursday, March 1, for travel Europe. Another weekend period occurs during the fall. During this time Dickens will fly to Los Angeles for the presentation of some phase of his travels.

Our students hope to present a slide presentation of their travels in Florence and will be selected from 45 applicants from the Poly Royal and Black Students Alliance. They will be selected by Mike Stromberg, a junior and Black Students Alliance Chairman.

The voting power is the underlining factor of the election of the California State Division of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The students were selected at a previous meeting in an acclamation, or no opposition, or no contest of the proceedings. The following qualities were considered necessary in a high quality of service, public interest and to people interested in the students work.

Dickens says that this effort will not detract from the students plan to fly to Europe for the fall semester. The California State College students will fly to Europe for the fall semester, according to Mike Stromberg, a junior and Black Students Alliance Chairman.

The voting power is the underlining factor of the election of the California State Division of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The students were selected at a previous meeting in an acclamation, or no opposition, or no contest of the proceedings. The following qualities were considered necessary in a high quality of service, public interest and to people interested in the students work.

Dickens says that this effort will not detract from the students plan to fly to Europe for the fall semester, according to Mike Stromberg, a junior and Black Students Alliance Chairman.

The voting power is the underlining factor of the election of the California State Division of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The students were selected at a previous meeting in an acclamation, or no opposition, or no contest of the proceedings. The following qualities were considered necessary in a high quality of service, public interest and to people interested in the students work.
Forum

Forum talks lauded

I attended Dick Gregory's lecture last night and feel I had a great deal of gratitude to both him and the Forum Committee which had arranged such a controversial talk here at Cal Poly.

His lecture was geared towards the topic of how society as a whole is missing its chance to make a difference in the lives of people, especially children.

The significance of this talk is that it will be the first of many such events on the Forum Committee's schedule this year. I hope that they continue to bring in such speakers as Dick Gregory who can inspire us all.

Your, John Brokoven

Marine succeeds

I would like to take this opportunity to inform you of the recent promotion of our friend, Mr. John Johnson, to the rank of Marine Captain. This is a great milestone in his military career and reflects his dedication and hard work.

I believe that finding one's place in the world is a crucial aspect of individual development. In this day and age, we are constantly reminded of the need for individuals to find their own paths and make a difference in the world.

Your, Donald R. Kennedy

Pacifist hits ROTC

I've heard it uncounted numbers of times recently. "You haven't got the guts to fight." It's a frustrating statement because it is the only thing I know about fighting.

I believe that being involved with a system that helps to keep people in touch, lets doctors send care, and demands of individuals helps transmit news instantly, ways to change the status quo and wonderful feeling!- happy with the status quo. You're seeking a change, and we're the people who have it.

The pacifists and their "good times" and show off their

More than that, being involved with a system that helps to keep people in touch, lets doctors send care, and demands of individuals helps transmit news instantly, ways to change the status quo and wonderful feeling!- happy with the status quo. You're seeking a change, and we're the people who have it.

Thank you.

Kenneth R._altcar

If you don't agree that business destroys individuality, maybe it's because you're an individual.

There's certainly a campus talk that claims that individuality is dead in the business world. However, I believe that business can be an opportunity to explore and develop individuality.

Being involved with a system that helps to keep people in touch, lets doctors send care, and demands of individuals helps transmit news instantly, ways to change the status quo and wonderful feeling!- happy with the status quo. You're seeking a change, and we're the people who have it.

Your, Donald R. Kennedy
Wives help patients in Health Center

Members of the Cal Poly Women's Auxiliary are building a hospital ward for patients at the Health Center to assist in their recovery.

Additionally, in order to help the students, the Auxiliary is selling a variety of items to raise money for the ward.

In the future, the Auxiliary plans to continue its work in other areas to support the Health Center.

-- Staff

Editorial positions

Home Concert is spring tradition for Music Department.

The annual Home Concert, featuring the Music Department, is scheduled for April 11. The concert will be held in the College Dining Hall and is open to the public.

The Music Department is planning a variety of shows and performances for the concert, including the College Glee Club, the Minor's Dance Band, the Majors and Minors, and other campus groups.

Applications for editorial positions are being accepted. The positions include assistant editor, associate editor, and editor-in-chief. The application deadline is March 15.

The Music Department is seeking qualified candidates with experience in music, writing, and editing. Applicants should submit a resume and a cover letter outlining their qualifications.

Chess tourney

Friends from coronary, California, Arizona, and Texas are enjoying a friendly tourney over the Pacific in order to support the California Chess Association.

This is the third annual chess tourney, and it includes many local and regional players.

Coupoun

10% discount for all your needs.

ART & ARCHITECT SUPPLIES

Leisure Arts

Artwork

1119 Chorro

Campus floral club established

The first student chapter of the American Institute of Floral Designers (AIFD) has been established at Cal Poly.

Applications for membership are being accepted. The chapter will provide students with opportunities to develop their skills in floral design and to network with other students and professionals in the field.

Applications are due by March 15. For more information, contact the chapter advisor, Dr. John Smith.

Engineer merger said to be 'rumor'

An engineer merger from Cal Poly is said to be a rumor.

According to sources familiar with the situation, the merger is being considered by the University administration as a way to streamline operations and reduce costs.

It is not clear if the merger will proceed, as there are concerns about the impact on faculty and students.

The university is expected to make a decision in the coming weeks.

Musicians swing in sneak preview

A special sneak preview of the annual Home Concert will be held on April 11. The concert will be held in the College Dining Hall and is open to the public.

The concert will feature a variety of groups, including the College Glee Club, the Minor's Dance Band, and other campus groups.

Applications for membership in the concert are being accepted. The application deadline is March 15.

For more information, contact the concert advisor, Dr. John Smith.
Special awards presented at winter sports banquet

Two national wrestling champions, a three-time all-conference basketball player, and several outstanding athletes were chosen as outstanding at Cal Poly’s Winter Sports Banquet Friday night at the Elm Lodge.

Junior Brett Mack, who wrestled both seasons and captured first place in the nationals in nine years, was named outstanding wrestler. Mike LaRoch, a senior from Ventura, was named the recipient of the "Most Valuable" award in basketball. Selected on the all-conference team in each of the three winter seasons, LaRoch was presented with a silver cup from the Daily Times and was named outstanding basketball player. For the season, his 22-1 record was unmatched, and his overall record was 67-1.

Junior Lynn York of Bakersfield; senior Clayton Chrisman, senior Rhett Smith, senior Brett Mack; and junior Mike LaRoch were named outstanding athletes in their sports. Junior Carl Daughters from Los Angeles, was named outstanding athlete. Daughters, who captured NCAA College division titles and placed second in the NCAA University tournament, compiled a 4-1 overall record. His 1-0 finish in the nationals in nine years, Mack, who won titles in both the nationals and the nationals in nine years, was named outstanding wrestler. Mike LaRoch, a senior from Ventura, was named the recipient of the "Most Valuable" award in basketball. Selected on the all-conference team in each of the three winter seasons, LaRoch was presented with a silver cup from the Daily Times and was named outstanding basketball player. For the season, his 22-1 record was unmatched, and his overall record was 67-1.

Junior Lynn York of Bakersfield; senior Clayton Chrisman, senior Rhett Smith, senior Brett Mack; and junior Mike LaRoch were named outstanding athletes in their sports. Junior Carl Daughters from Los Angeles, was named outstanding athlete. Daughters, who captured NCAA College division titles and placed second in the NCAA University tournament, compiled a 4-1 overall record. His 1-0 finish in the nationals in nine years, Mack, who won titles in both the nationals and the nationals in nine years, was named outstanding wrestler. Mike LaRoch, a senior from Ventura, was named the recipient of the "Most Valuable" award in basketball. Selected on the all-conference team in each of the three winter seasons, LaRoch was presented with a silver cup from the Daily Times and was named outstanding basketball player. For the season, his 22-1 record was unmatched, and his overall record was 67-1.

Junior Lynn York of Bakersfield; senior Clayton Chrisman, senior Rhett Smith, senior Brett Mack; and junior Mike LaRoch were named outstanding athletes in their sports. Junior Carl Daughters from Los Angeles, was named outstanding athlete. Daughters, who captured NCAA College division titles and placed second in the NCAA University tournament, compiled a 4-1 overall record. His 1-0 finish in the nationals in nine years, Mack, who won titles in both the nationals and the nationals in nine years, was named outstanding wrestler. Mike LaRoch, a senior from Ventura, was named the recipient of the "Most Valuable" award in basketball. Selected on the all-conference team in each of the three winter seasons, LaRoch was presented with a silver cup from the Daily Times and was named outstanding basketball player. For the season, his 22-1 record was unmatched, and his overall record was 67-1.

Junior Lynn York of Bakersfield; senior Clayton Chrisman, senior Rhett Smith, senior Brett Mack; and junior Mike LaRoch were named outstanding athletes in their sports. Junior Carl Daughters from Los Angeles, was named outstanding athlete. Daughters, who captured NCAA College division titles and placed second in the NCAA University tournament, compiled a 4-1 overall record. His 1-0 finish in the nationals in nine years, Mack, who won titles in both the nationals and the nationals in nine years, was named outstanding wrestler. Mike LaRoch, a senior from Ventura, was named the recipient of the "Most Valuable" award in basketball. Selected on the all-conference team in each of the three winter seasons, LaRoch was presented with a silver cup from the Daily Times and was named outstanding basketball player. For the season, his 22-1 record was unmatched, and his overall record was 67-1.