Cal Poly Student Organizes Tasting Event on May 31 to Benefit San Luis Obispo Nonprofit Groups

SAN LUIS OBISPO – A Cal Poly business student is using her senior project to tantalize taste buds while helping two nonprofit organizations in San Luis Obispo.

Jessica Sisco organized Flavor of SLO, which is set for noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, May 31, at Mitchell Park in San Luis Obispo. All proceeds from the event will be donated to the United Way of San Luis Obispo County and Alpha Pregnancy Counseling & Support.

Flavor of SLO is an event for all ages that will feature local music from Central Currency and CRITICNUE. There will be tastings from more than 23 local restaurants, wineries and breweries. Face painting and a raffle to win various gifts will also be available.

Participating vendors include Autry Cellars, Central Coast Brewing, Creekside Brewing Company, the Club Car, the Clubhouse at this Old House, Dream Dinners, F. McLintocks, Firestone Walker Brewery, Giordano's Italian Freeze, Go-Girl Energy, Jaffa Café, Jamba Juice, Opolo Vineyards, the Original Spikes, Peachy Canyon Winery, Per Bacco Cellars, Shalimar, Spencer's Fresh Market, Sweet Earth Chocolates, Tio Alberto's, Tolosa Winery, Vieni Vai and Wolff Vineyards.

Ticket prices range from $15 to $28 and include a discounted Family Pack option for purchasing four or more tickets. Tickets are available online at http://www.flavorofslo.com or may be purchased the day of the event at Mitchell Park for an extra $5.
