Academic Affairs VP candidates

Five candidates for the position of vice president for academic affairs are scheduled to be on campus in April to be interviewed and to meet with Cal Poly students, faculty, and staff. Each will be on campus for two days.

Students, faculty and staff, interested in meeting each of the candidates, are invited to a reception in Alumni House hosted by the Consultative Committee, the ASI, and the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate.

The receptions will be held from 3:45 pm to 5:15 pm on Thursday, April 8; Monday, April 12; Thursday, April 15; Wednesday, April 21, and Monday, April 26.

More than 180 people from across the country applied for the vice presidential position. Dr. Hazel Jones will be retiring from the position of Cal Poly’s chief academic official in August.

Payroll deduction option for IRAs

The Office of the Chancellor has announced that a payroll deduction option will soon be available for Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs).

The California State University is in the process of signing agreements with several companies that have requested the opportunity to offer an IRA through the payroll system to all CSU employees.

Inter-campus grants

The Chancellor’s Office of Academic Program Improvement has issued a call for participation in inter-campus grants for 1982-83. These grants have been applied successfully at other campuses in the system and emphasize the improvement of reading and/or writing in the disciplines. Details of the application process, descriptions of eligible projects and project guidelines have been forwarded to the deans of each school. Interested faculty should contact the respective dean’s office for more information. The application deadline is May 5, 1982.

Senate hopeful Maureen Reagan to speak at Poly

Maureen Reagan, Republican primary candidate for the U.S. Senate from California, will speak at Cal Poly on Tuesday (April 6). Scheduled as the first speaker in the Tassels Honor Society’s “Women of Accomplishment” series, Reagan’s free address will be at 11 am in Chumash Auditorium. The public is invited.

Long active in California Republican politics and fundraising, Reagan is the founder of Sell Overseas America, the Association of American Export. She was vice president of the Southern Orange County Republican Women, and for six years served on the Board of Directors of the California Federation of American Women.

For the past 12 years, she has been a major fundraiser for the Arthritis Foundation. Until recently, Reagan hosted a Saturday talk show on a Los Angeles radio station. She is the daughter of Oscar-winning actress Jane Wyman, and President Ronald Reagan.

Tassels is an honor society which promotes “the advancement of the status of women, to recognize and encourage leadership, to provide service and to establish the opportunity for meaningful exchange of ideas.” Reagan’s address is being presented in cooperation with the Dean of Students Office.
Spring Classic Golf Tournament

The San Luis Obispo Country Club will play host to the Third Annual YMCA/Cal Poly Alumni Association Spring Classic Invitational Golf Tournament on Sunday (May 16). The entry fee donation of $100 includes a round of golf (complete with cart), tee prizes, Santa Maria-style steak barbecue for two, refreshments and sandwiches while on the course, and a hole-in-one contest.

If any player hits a hole-in-one on one of the specified par three holes, he or she will walk off with either a 1982 Mazda RX7 or a multi-station TV satellite receiving dish. These two prizes have a combined value of nearly $20,000. Following the tournament and dinner will be an old-fashioned auction of items totaling more than $24,000. The RX7, courtesy of Don Valley Mazda, San Luis Obispo, satellite dish, sports equipment, bicycles, camera equipment, camping gear, professional services, artwork, wines, and champagne are just a handful of the many items scheduled to go on the auction block.

Reservations can be made by telephoning Steve Riddell at the Cal Poly, Alumni Services Office, Ext. 2525 or Jim Gall, 543-7476, or by writing to “Spring Classic, Post Office Box 1165, San Luis Obispo, Calif., 93406.” Visa, MasterCard, and checks are being accepted.

Senior project clinics

Senior project students will have an opportunity to get extra help in using the Library. Senior project clinics will be held in the Robert E. Kennedy Library beginning April 6 and ending April 21. These 50-minute sessions are organized by school or department and sessions will be in Library 202. The times and dates are available by calling Ext. 2649.

A free checklist of Library sources will be given to each participant.

Items to be discussed will be Library of Congress Subject Headings used in the subject card catalog, the logic of call numbers, search strategy, indexes and abstracts which aid in finding journal articles, searching the literature by computer, government documents, reference books, styles for references or sources used at the end of a paper, and guides to further sources in the student's field. Special attention will be given to the proper way to find journals in the Library.

These sessions are open to senior project students and to all students who wish to learn how to use the Library for assignments such as term papers and searches applying to their majors. Further information about the senior project clinics may be obtained by telephoning the Library’s Reference Department at Ext. 2649.

Statistical consulting

The Computer Science and Statistics Department is continuing its statistical consulting service through Spring Quarter with Roxy Peck as the main consultant. Dr. Peck will help on design and analysis of faculty and student research projects. In addition, Dr. Peck is available to lead seminars or tutorials on requested topics and offer advice on various computer packages currently available at Cal Poly.

Open consulting hours:
- Mon.-Wed. 10 am-11 am
- Tues.-Thur. 1 pm-2 pm

Consulting by appointment:
- Mon.-Wed. 3 pm-5 pm
- Tues.-Thur. 11 am-1 pm

Poly choir concert scheduled at Mission

The concluding concert of the Cal Poly University Singers’ 12th annual California Missions tour will begin at 8 pm on Saturday (April 3), in Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa. The concert is the sixth performance in a tour that will see the 40-voice mixed choir appear in cities from San Miguel to San Diego under the direction of James Dearing of the University’s music faculty.

General admission tickets for the San Luis Obispo concert are priced at $4 for adults and $2 for students. They can be purchased at the University Union Ticket Office on campus or at the Mission on the evening of the concert. Presented as part of the 1981-82 Choral Season, the concert is being sponsored by the university’s Music Department and Associated Students Inc.

Heart attack fatal to Andrew Jones

Andrew D. Jones, head of the Civil Engineering Department at Cal Poly from 1972 to 1979, died on March 20 in El Paso, Tex. At the time of his death, Dr. Jones was chairman of the Civil Engineering Department at University of Texas, El Paso, a position he had held since leaving Cal Poly. Funeral services and burial were both in Kerrville, Tex.
Long Beach Wind Symphony will perform

A university wind ensemble that has been internationally acclaimed for its fresh interpretations and use of full tones in its stirring performances will appear in concert at Cal Poly on Tuesday (April 6). The University Wind Symphony of California State University, Long Beach, will present a full program of symphonic music at 8 pm in Chumash Auditorium. General admission tickets are priced at $3 for adults and $1.50 for students. They are being sold at the University Union Ticket Office on campus, and by members of Cal Poly's Symphonic Band.

With Larry G. Curtis as its conductor, the CSULB band has also given concerts throughout Germany, Austria, and Japan, and in 1975 presented a live radio concert on Switzerland's French language radio (Radio Suisse Romande), regarded throughout Europe as an exceptional source of fine music for discriminating listeners.

HOUSING NEEDED

Since the proceeds of the April 6 concert will benefit the Cal Poly Symphonic Band, which has performed as a guest on the CSULB campus, local residents who can serve as hosts for members of the Long Beach ensemble are being sought. Involved will be meeting one or more musicians about 5:15 pm on April 6, taking them home for dinner, returning them to Cal Poly for the concert, housing them overnight, feeding them breakfast the next morning, and returning them to campus for their departure. William V. Johnson (Music), said the hosts will receive two complementary tickets to the performance. He asked those interested in hosting the visiting musicians to telephone Ext. 2556 or Ext. 2607 to volunteer and receive further information. The Cal State Long Beach band's concert is being sponsored by Cal Poly's School of Communicative Arts and Humanities, Music Department, and Associated Students Inc.

Tweety will be heard!

Bugs Bunny, Tweety Bird, Road Runner, Yosemite Sam, Daffy Duck, Porky Pig, Pepe LePew and Woody Woodpecker all have one thing in common. The prolific voice-over master Mel Blanc is the vocal cords for all of them, and more.

Blanc will bring his vocal roadshow to Cal Poly on Saturday (April 10), at 8 pm in Chumash Auditorium. The public is invited, with tickets set at $3.50 for students, available at the University Union Ticket Office, and $4.50 for the general public, and $2.50 for children under the age of 12.

Well before the advent of rock music, Blanc had two gold records in the hits, "I Tawt I Taw a Puddy Tat," and another novelty number, "The Woody Woodpecker Song." His total sales on the Capitol label reached 13 million.

As busy as ever, Blanc works on prime-time network specials in addition to TV commercials for such clients as 9-Lives Cat Food, Del Taco, Pepsi, Oscar Mayer, and Paine-Webber. Blanc's appearance is being presented by Speakers Forum and the University Union Board of Governors.

AID/United Givers' fund drive report

President Baker announced that faculty and staff of Cal Poly contributed $35,251.15 to last fall's San Luis Obispo County AID - United Givers' Fund Drive. The total is $1,444.71 more than the amount contributed by University/Foundation employees in last year's campaign.

Funds contributed in the campus drive are distributed by AID United Givers to nonprofit youth and service agencies operating in San Luis Obispo County plus those specified charities designated by the contributors.

President Baker expresses his special appreciation to Robert Negranti and Mary Smith (both Personnel Office), who coordinated the program and to all those participating in the campaign - the donors who contributed generously to a worthwhile cause and to the many captains who did so much to make the campaign a success.

Staff representative need for UU Board

Persons interested in serving as a staff representative to the University Union Board of Governors are asked to submit their names and a brief statement of reasons for interest in serving to the Dean of Students Office by April 9.

Genthner dead at 63

Graveside services for Frederick L. Genthner of the University Library's professional staff took place on Monday, March 29, in Springfield, Mo. A Cal Poly employee since 1952, he died unexpectedly in a San Luis Obispo hospital on Wednesday, March 24, while recovering from surgery.

Genthner, 63, had worked in the Library continuously since joining the university staff. He had filled a number of assignments over the years and was particularly pleased with the time he spent in the Special Collections Department, where he developed a vast knowledge of Cal Poly's history. More recently, he had been working in the Reference Department.
Calendar

THURSDAY, APRIL 1

Breakfast Meeting: Monthly Business Leaders’ Breakfast. Vista Grande Restaurant, 7:30-9 am. Speaker Dr. James Aiken (Counseling Center) on “Stress Management.” Co-sponsored by Extended Education and the School of Business. ($)

University Club: “Landscaping with Native Plants in San Luis Obispo,” presented by Marshall Ochylski (Ornamental Horticulture). Staff Dining Room, noon. Faculty and staff invited. (!)

Women’s Softball: San Francisco State University. Poly Field, double-header beginning at 2 pm. (!)

Concert: Sukay, a group of four musicians playing exotic music of Peruvian and other Andes cultures. Cal Poly Theatre, 8 pm. Presented by the Fine Arts Committee of the ASI. Public invited. ($)

FRIDAY, APRIL 2

Men’s Tennis: UC Riverside. Upper courts, 2 pm. (!)

Men’s Volleyball: CSU Northridge. Main Gymnasium, 7:30 pm. ($)

Baseball: Chapman College. SLO Stadium, 7:30 pm. ($)

Concert: The Kronos Quartet, final performance of the 1981-82 Quintessence Concert Series. Cal Poly Theatre, 8 pm. Sponsored by the Music Department and the School of Communicative Arts and Humanities. (!)

SATURDAY, APRIL 3

Baseball: Chapman College. SLO Stadium, double-header beginning at noon. ($)

Men’s Tennis: San Francisco State University. Upper courts, 2:30 pm. (!)

SUNDAY, APRIL 4

Films: Robert Flaherty’s “Nanook of The North” and Van Dyke/Steiner’s “The City” as part of the 1981-82 Free Film Festival. Cal Poly Theatre, 7 pm. Sponsored by Extended Education, Alumni Services and the English Department. (!)

MONDAY, APRIL 5

Spring Quarter: Last day to add a class. Last day to late register and pay registration fees. Last day to change from audit to credit status.

TUESDAY, APRIL 6

Speaker: Maureen Reagan, Republican candidate for U.S. Senate from California. Chumash Auditorium, 11 am. Sponsored by Tassels Honor Society. Public invited. (!)

Women’s Softball: CSU Sacramento. Poly Field, double-header beginning at noon. (!)

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7

Speaker: Matt Hilling, a civil engineer assigned to the State Department of Water Resources in Sacramento, will discuss the Peripheral Canal project. Staff Dining Room, 7:30 pm. Sponsored by the Cal Poly student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers. Public invited. (!)

THURSDAY, APRIL 8

Speaker: William Winslade, J.D., Ph.D., Chairman, Program in Medicine and Human Values, UCLA, on “Clinical Ethics: Moral Decisions and Medical Technology.” UU 220, 11 am. Arts and Humanities Series. Public invited. (!)

University Club: “Whale Watching Along the Central Coast,” presented by Tom Richards (Biological Sciences). Staff Dining Room, noon. Faculty and staff invited. (!)

Picasso: A celebration of dance and art based on the life and times of Pablo Picasso, presented by the Valerie Huston Dance Theater. Cal Poly Theatre, 8 pm. Sponsored by the Physical Education Department. ($)

FRIDAY, APRIL 9

Men’s Tennis: CSC Bakersfield. Upper courts, 2 pm. (!)

SATURDAY, APRIL 10

Men’s Volleyball: UC San Diego. Main Gymnasium, 7:30 pm. ($)