BOOKSTORE THEFTS

Losses Small

He is the one in the baggy sweatshirt on a blazing hot day. He is the one who stuffs empty wrappers behind books and walks away with a pocketful of pens, pencils, and other supplies. He is the one who pocketed $6,000 to pray this college's bookstore. People who steal pens, books, or candy among other items are actually stealing from themselves.

All El Corral profits are totally reinvested into student use. Any profit loss in the bookstore is a direct loss for the new College Union facilities.

Mrs. Mary Lee Green, bookstore manager, feels most of the stealing is done "mainly out of the student's frustrations among long waiting lines and high textbook costs."

"Only a small percentage of people cause all the heck," stated Mrs. Green. "I have had "wallets containing as much as $100 turned in." There has never been an item reported lost in the store that hasn't been returned.

As Brendlln stated, "It's a small old problem of the good students being penalized by a few rotten apples in the barrel."

SAN FRANCISCO UPI—Consumer crusader Ralph Nader has called on college students to give up cigarettes "and beer cans" and change their career commitments to battle "environmental violence.""It's difficult for the common citizen to do much about breaking new ground and therefore we need the leadership of lawyers, doctors and scientists to correct the abuses of industry," the lawyer told an audience of 1,349 at the University of San Francisco

He urged people to think of pollution as "environmental violence.

Nader proposed the establishment of public interest action groups to fight pollution in which students could "test whether they can live by what they believe."

"Presently, a lot of young people have been high on rhetoric, too short on commitment and maybe too high on militancy," he said.

He urged students to join the clean environment cause and "help complete the cycle of action that gives knowledge its relevance.

"He said student action armies must be formed to get the community and deal battle with the corporations.

Nader attacked the Nixon administration's war on pollution as a "political gambit that reflects nothing but rhetoric."

Asserting that "economic crimes vastly overshadow street crimes in the United States," Nader charged that "law and order" in the nation has been for only one segment of the society.

"What about corporate crimes like price fixing, which is rampant among corporations?" he asked.

"There are auto, drug and building code violations which have cost the consumer millions of dollars and have made a mockery of competitive enterprise," he charged.

"Thus, our system has capitalised on this system of law and order. If you want to get away from criminal behavior, make sure you're organized and have plenty of lawyers."

He said individuals should go to the courts with suits, charging corporations with trespassing or violence for "spewing pollutants into the air or streams and raping our land."

ANNUAL HOME CONCERT

'Live' entertainment?

A tidal wave of music will engulf the Men's Gym this Friday evening at 8 p.m. as the Music Department presents the 39th Home Concert.

The wave will be generated by 180 students involved with the six groups performing that evening. Eighty of the students are in the Men's Glee Club and its subsidiaries: the Collegian Quartet and the "World Famous Majors and Minors.

The women's groups—the Women's Glee Club and its subsdidiary, the Bestet—number 84.

The remaining 14 are the members of the Collegians, a dance band that specializes in music style common in the days of the big bands.

The Collegian Quartet and its female counterpart, the Bestet, perform many contemporary and folk tunes with the close-knit harmony of a small group.

The Majors and Minors, or M & M as they refer to themselves, are twelve members of the Men's Glee. They specialize in barbershop renditions of contemporary music as well as the barbershop classics. They also tend to contribute their own special brand of humor to the concert.

Yes on EOP requested

Editor:

As one of your elected ASI officers, I would like to urge all of you to vote in the special election on April 15, 1970. At this time, I would urge you to vote yes on the question of granting the Educational Opportunity Program the consideration of receiving ASI budgeted funds. I feel that contributing to this program is the most worthwhile direction that we could possibly take. The State has severely cut back their money for the expanding program for 1970-71. EOP is the only significant means of higher education for minority and/or low income students in the State of California.

In speaking to people the past couple of weeks, the most popular question to me has been, "Will my group or some other group get cut down to; are we so damn worried about our individual extra-curricular activities on this campus that we lose sight of the opportunity to help some underprivileged young people get into college and continue on in college?" A yes vote on April 15th would show that we are, as Cal Poly students, recognize the problem. Puther, it would show that we are willing to put up some of our ASI money to help those who are less fortunate than we happen to be. Hopefully, you are all informed about what EOP is, and what a great job the EOP program is doing on this campus. You should get a feel for it, free to drop in the EOP office (Administration Bldg., Room 217) and Richard Martinez, Director and Carl Wallace, Associate Director would be glad to fill you in.

The program is working. The EOP students have a rough road, but they are making it. Their latest grade check showed an overall 2.14 GPA. Show your support to the program by voting yes on this proposal on Wednesday.

ASI Vice President

Support EOP

Tomorrow's special ASI election will be the deciding point in this year's EOP battle to become ASI funded.

The Economic Opportunities Program is asking for student approval of its bid to be placed among other campus groups in their yearly race for ASI monies.

The immediate fate of the program lies in your hands. As students you will decide if the EOP is worthy of ASI funding. We think it is.

With the fate of the program lies the fate of several continuing students and numerous new students who are applying under the program. Approval of the EOP bid in tomorrow's election will give the program another chance to continue an effective and growing operation. If the program receives more funds through the ASI budget it will be able to expand tutoring and counseling services, as well as allowing more students to go to school under the program.

We urge you to vote yes on the proposal and keep willing, deserving students in school.

It was a prosperous week for the Mustang golfers as they won two consecutive matches on the San Luis Obispo Country Club course. Presently posting a 9-7-1 overall record and a 5-3 mark in league action, the Mustangs travel south this week to take on the Matadors of San Fernando Valley State on Thursday and the Fullerton State Titans on Friday. Earlier this season, the Poly sticklers hosted the Valley State six and came out on top 33-21. Last Thursday, the Mustangs hosted the airmen of Vandenberg Air Force Base. The Mustang baseball team gave the nation's top college division team a run for their money last weekend despite losing all three games of a series. Chapman College has knocked off some of the best this year in route to a number one ranking, but face a determined Mustang nine and narrowly escaped unscathed. Scores of the games were 3-0, 3-1, and 6-0.

Hard-luck pitcher Allen Noble saw a standout hurling effort go for naught in Friday's action. Noble granted his usually hard-hitting opponents on only three hits and a single earned run in the losing cause.

Chapman bunched a pair of singles in the second inning, and a Mustang error let in a run. An eighth inning home run provided moisture, but in all other innings Noble set the enemy batters down in order.

Mustangs stood on first and third base with one out in the third inning, at first and second with one out in the fifth and on third base in the sixth, but at no time could a golden-armed pitcher cross the plate.

The story was much the same in Saturday's first game, as Tim Hayden allowed two earned runs and took a 3-0 loss. The sole Mustang tally came in the first when Dave Kline and Mike Nichols walked, and a single by Robin Baggett drove in Kline. A groundout and a strikeout retired the side.

Chapman struck for solo runs in the first, third, and sixth innings. The loss in the sixth resulted from an error.

Larry Silva picked up for Hayden in the seventh and pitched two scoreless innings. The loss went to Hayden, now 2-2 on the season.

Centerfielder Dave Yazzell collected two hits in the game and hit his singles in the first game. Dean Tremear, plagued this year by a stiff shoulder, gave up three quick runs in the third game, and the Mustangs never had a chance to come back when Chapman scored another three off of Gary Landrith in the second. Bill Hall pitched the final inning.

Chapman's Lennie Jones retired the first 13 Mustangs he faced, and allowed only four hits. Only once did a Mustang runner reach second base.

Fresno State next battles the Mustangs in a 5:30 p.m. doubleheader today in Fresno. The Bulldogs have given themselves to be a trouble team in competition this year.
