BOMB TRIO

Terrorists rock coast

UPI - A trio of bombs up and down the West Coast early Thursday rocked a courtroom, a lecture room at a university building which houses Navy and ROTC offices. There were no injuries.

The first blast wrecked the San Rafael, Calif., courthouse, blowing out a door and several windows in the west wing of the building and ripping out chunks of wood and plaster, the Marin County Sheriff's Department said.

The second explosion was reported at 4:15 a.m. explosion rocked the downtown area.

Authorities were notified of the bomb by the Marin County Sheriff's Department.

Inspector Wilson, who has been holding some hearings inside San Quentin State Prison, was notified of the repair needed to restore the windows.

The third blast hit a National Guard armory at Santa Barbara, Calif., blowing out a door and numerous windows were blown.

No one was inside the building at the time. A large hole was blown in a wall.

In Seattle, security officers notified of the bomb were able to keep the area clear and alert the police.

There was no structural damage to the building although some interior plaster cracks were visible in the room.

Ronald Reagan today angrily denounced the bombing of the armory in Santa Barbara.

The operator immediately notified the Marin County Sheriff's Department.

Judge Wilson had been holding some preliminary hearings in San Quentin in an effort to prevent any possible escape attempt similar to the one that killed Superior Court Judge Harold Hales in August.

The question is straight to the point and leaves no doubt to its implications. How is the ugliest man on campus?

Did we say it leaves no doubt to its implications? How is the ugliest man on campus?

Alpha Phi Omega doesn't think so. To them, being ugly is really being beautiful—because if you are ugly you can win a beauty contest, or more precisely, an "ugly beauty contest."

To enter this ugly beauty contest, get your applications to Box 56 in the TCU by Oct. 16. The election will be held on Monday, Oct. 19 to noon Friday, Oct. 23.

A donation of one penny shall carry one vote for the Ugly Man and Alpha Phi Omega encourages ballot stuffing. The collected pennies will be turned into dollars which in return will be used to improve Poly Grove.

A meeting will be held the weekend before the election and all candidates will be presented at the time. Candidates are encouraged to wear their Ugly Costumes, as publicity pictures will be taken (as the camera doesn't mind).

As in any beauty contest, there are certain rules to be followed. One of them is that the winner must be chosen by members of Alpha Phi Omega, and not by the public.

There is to be no campaigning downtown (as not to scare the good people in BLD). All publicity material must be approved by the UMC Committee and permission given by Alpha Phi Omega.

for large groups to operate. dwarfs and midgets must look for other occupations. Teaching is a popular area, although some schools are still hesitant to hire them. Artran said, "what could be better than having a teacher who is able to meet his students on an eye to eye level."

If the convention has a specific purpose, "It's probably more social," admitted Artran. As he pointed out most conventions generate curiosity, but he does not want people to be rude and gawk at their proceedings. He has invited all small people in the area to attend the meeting.

Agenda for the convention includes two board and two general meetings, a picnic at Montamna de Oro, and a dinner banquet and talent show.

Joplin to sea

UPI - The body of blues singer Janis Joplin will be cremated and the ashes scattered at sea off the Martin County coast north of San Francisco.

Private funeral services were held Wednesday for Miss Joplin, 27, who died Sunday of a drug overdose. Ten persons attended.

The coroner's office is conducting a "psychological autopsy" into the death of the gravel-voiced singer. Her background and her emotional state at the time of death will be probed to determine whether the overdose was accidental or voluntary.

Family wins

NEW YORK - (UPI) - A businessman from West Hempstead, N., his wife and their teen-age son won the $1 million top prize in the New York State super lottery today.

The winners were George and Geneva Ashton and their 16-year-old son, Glenn.
The ride is all over. With their three easiest games behind them, the Mustangs will meet their toughest opponent so far of the season. This weekend at the University of Nevada Wolf Pack, which boasts a 3-0 record, at Nevada Wolf Stadium. The Nevada Wolf Pack has scored victories over San Francisco State, 24-8, U. C. Riverside, 43-36, and Williamette, 34-0. The only team in common to the two schools is S. F. State, whom the Mustangs murdered, 34-0.

"Getting it all together" was the apparent theme to Coach Joe Harper's comments about Nevada. "We will be going against an undefeated football team. Nevada is the strongest and deepest team that we've met to date."

Harper pointed out that "they have five running backs over 200 yards rushing, and 203 yards passing. Meanwhile, the Wolf Pack shows an average of 100.3 total offense, scoring, punt returns and interception columns. Defensively, the Mustangs are heading up the rushing, passing, total offense, scoring, punt return and interception columns."

Individually, tailback Darryl Thombs holds top honors in scoring and rushing, with five TDs and over 200 rushing yards for a total of 616 yards. Quarterback Milan also leads in passing with 169 yards rushing, 447 passing and 221 yards gained. Don Milian leads in total offense with 16 completions. Bob's Beacon

Waterpoloists to open conference competition

The 1975 Mustang water polo team won California Collegiate Athletic Association play this weekend when they take on Cal State Fullerton and Cal Poly Pomona. Both games will be on the road.

Co-coach Dick Anderson said, "Fullerton and Pomona are probably the class of the conference. We don't have too much information on them, but we do know they have picked up some very fine talent in the off season."

The Mustang will either have a 4-0 or 3-4 record when they take to the road pending the outcome of last night's match with Fullerton Junior College. Coach Anderson stated, "Hopefully the team will have a positive attitude after that game. Last week against UCLA and UCSB we got into the pool with a negative attitude."

Horsemen

The equestrian skill of horsemen from this and other colleges will be on display tomorrow night at a horse show sponsored by the Cutting and Reining Club. The intercollegiate horse show, to be held at Collet Arena, will feature competition among several horse show teams, according to Cutting and Reining Club president Bob Hadley. The show will begin at 8 p.m. and is open to the public. No admission will be charged.
