Mustang Boxers Suffer 7 1/2 - 1/2 Loss to San Jose

A Proclamation

The week of February 28-28 is hereby proclaimed "Humanism in Life Week" for the San Luis Obispo campus of the California State Polytechnic College. "Learning by Doing" has long been the trademark of Cal Poly's philosophy of education and it should be just as meaningful in religious experience as in vocational and avocational pursuits. The observance of a non-sectarian "HUMANISM IN LIFE WEEK" at Cal Poly is especially appropriate on this residence campus which for many months of the year is a college home for students of many races and faiths.

Arthur J. Young, Jr., brought from a poet's pen in the past, is an engineer of the present. A recent graduate of San Luis Obispo High School, he has spent two years at Mare Island at the Mare Island Apprentice School studying metal work and heat treatment, two years at the Marine Engineers' Institute for the pursuit of his Bachelor of Science degree in marine engineering, and held positions as a junior operating engineer for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. He also worked for the Underwood Corporation, (Standard Oil Company), and the Moore-McCormack Lines.

Bongio Gets Merit Award; Serves State $30,000 Yearly

A welding instructor here has been given a State Merit Award for a suggestion reported to save the State of California $30,000 annually.

Enrico P. Bongio has been rewarded for one of the many suggestions which have been made to improve the state's operating efficiency. Bongio's suggestion involves the state purchase its own cryogenic tank, to be used in the storage and transport of liquid oxygen, as a replacement for similar equipment purchased from private sources. The Army Air Forces, the Navy, and several state agencies have recently been using such tanks, and the suggestion involves the purchase of two such groups in the near future.

This is not Bongio's first award. He has been one of the recipients of the Allan B. Hunter Award for a suggestion reported to save the State of California $80,000 annually. Bongio, who has been at Poly since 1954, has given half of his award check to his department's club, the Cal Poly student chapter of the American Welding Society, and the other half to one of two such groups in the college placement office.

Surgery Performed
On Poly Printer

Printing Instructor Ed Hows underwent surgery at Franklin Hospital in San Francisco Thursday morning for the removal of a blood clot and scar tissue from his left leg. Howe is reported to be doing well and resting easily after the operation. He is expected back on the job in a week.

The plot is believed to have been caused by an old injury, the clotting being the end result. Howe has had considerable experience in the printing and newspaper fields, came to Cal Poly in 1954 and was the editor and publisher of a Wisconsin paper prior to that.
