QUEEN CONTEST
Dialogue with finalists
by JUNE KRAFFT
Homecoming Queen ought to add up to more than a pretty face and charm. Or at least that's the opinion of a score or so women students—including four candidates—who met in the College Union Thursday afternoon.

Meeting in the weekly Women's Discussion Group, the women discussed and chose five questions which they felt would give an Candidate a chance to "get to know the finalist"—rather than just voting for a picture.

Below are the responses to those questions from each of the five finalists—Carol Maurer, Christine Rants, Pat Gonzales, Kathy Reid, and JoAnn Blanco.

Do you feel this school has changed between the time you came here and now? Were there differences between your expectations and what you found?

Carol Maurer: "I found the campus much more conservative four years ago, with life centered around parties on the weekend. Now it's much more aware politically. This is nice, as I feel we can have a balanced life and not possible new ways of handling things, of experimenting with what you want to become.

Chris Rants: "The campus hasn't changed much since I've been here two and a half years. I have noticed there are more girls and more traffic. The people have changed from more conservative to more liberal."

JoAnn Blanco: "I didn't want to come, but I grew to love it.

Kathy Reid: "I didn't expect anything. I had only heard of the campus. I thought it was very conservative, but I found the people very friendly. I was really impressed with the people; they put up no fadades."

What unusual things have you done or would like to do?

JoAnn Blanco: "I knew there was a difference between high school and college, but I didn't realize the scope of it until I came here."

What do you want to do with your life?

Carol: "Career-wise, I want to teach high school drama. I want to give valid information to my students. Personally, I want to have as many experiences and meet as many people as I can."

Kathy: "I'd like to hitchhike through Alaska the next summer and drive down the Colorado River rapids."

Jeann: "I toured Australia and the Fiji Islands last summer. I'd like to tour Europe next summer."

What is something unique about yourself, something good about yourself that others wouldn't know unless you told them?

Carol: "My biggest urge is to stand in the middle of the LA. library when I'm 85-years-old and scream as loud as I can, then walk out. I hate enforced quiet.

Kathy: "I'm in a cocktail waitress this summer in Orange County."

Pat: "I'm very, very tidy."

Kathy: "I like to make people laugh, I like to bring out the humor in things."

Jeann: "I come across as a goofy clown, but I'm a pretty serious-thinking individual."

What things are most valuable to you?

Carol: "My family—my nephews and nieces, my parents.

Kathy: "My family and my boyfriend. And my dolls—I've kept all my dolls—they remind me of past and growing up. My religious beliefs are important to me, too."

Jeann: "The most important thing to me is to be people to be sincere and honest and don't play little games."

Voting for Homecoming Queen will take place Wednesday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Polling places will be set up in the Math Building, CU Plaza, Post Office, and the Administration Building.

Dr. Gordon Curzon, English professor on this campus, squelched rumors and presented facts concerning drug abuse at a SAC meeting Thursday night.

Curzon spoke to a gathering of interested listeners on the history of literature as connected to drugs. He read excerpts from the works of drug users and alcoholics but stated emphatically that no great work of literature has been produced in all the history of writing by a person under the influence of drugs.

"Literature is a communicative medium," argued the doctor, "and drugs block communication." As evidence to his point he read examples of works composed while under the influence of drugs. The works, written by normally competent people, were, for the most part, utterly nonsensical.

Dr. Curzon concluded by saying, "There is too much phoniness in the world today. If I feel a piece of literature or art is a serious attempt at premeditated communication, I will attempt to understand it." Project 6, which sponsored Dr. Curzon's talk, meets twice each week to discuss various aspects of the drug world. Richard Birchler, coordinator of the group, announced that Dr. Frank Peterson, M.D. will speak on the medical implications of drug abuse at 5 p.m. Thursday, also in Ag. 231.

Interested persons are invited to attend any of the meetings.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Attend a SAC meeting

Editor:

The editorial of Oct. 14, concerning interest in Student Affairs Council is truly appropriate. At this time, as school responsibilities pick up and as student government goes down to work, SAC is busy, as it has been from the outset, and is reviewing important business.

It is important that each and every student attend at least one SAC meeting, either to let his fellow students know the importance of student government. You elected us. Now support us and inform us about your feelings on pertinent student government matters. Student Affairs Council and student government cannot be effective without your input. The most effective way to express your views is to attend the meetings.
The meeting will be attended by members of the Southern and Northern California Chapters. Speakers from various colleges and universities will give presentations centered around the theme: 'Divisions in American Culture: Location, Age, Gender.'

Everyone is invited to attend the presentations by the speakers. Exploring the unique problems of women in today's world will be the topic of discussion every Thursday afternoon in CU 217-D.

The film will be shown in (CU) 220 Friday, running continuously from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and the film will be free and open to the public.

The Baha'i Association will be sponsoring the weekly 2-4 p.m. meetings. The next meeting will be attended by members of the Southern and Northern California Chapters. The purpose of the sessions, according to Miss Paul, are to explore the unique problems of women in today's world in relationship to men, especially at this campus.

For more information call Ken Griffin at 544-1037.

The Bahá’í Association will present a documentary film, "It’s Just the Beginning," based on Baha’u’llah: the oneness of religion. The oneness of religion, the oneness of mankind, the oneness of God and the oneness of creation are fundamental teachings of the Bahá’í faith. The faith, billed as the fastest growing religion in the world today, now boasts over 313 countries and territories its followers in the United States in which its Bahá’í reside. The film will be shown in (CU) 217-D Friday. Running continuously from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., the film will be free and open to the public.

Mustangs control Matadors

by STEVE GALE

Poly quarterback Steve Breanahan combined passing and rushing efforts to lead the Mustangs to a 19-0 victory Saturday night in their CCAA conference opener at San Fernando Valley State College.

The Mustangs came on strong in the second quarter, scoring 12 points while the Poly defense held the Matadors scoreless. This was the second time this season that the Mustangs used a big third quarter to defeat the Poly ball club.

The Mustangs scored first in the second quarter, with quarterback Steve Breanahan completing a 30-yard pass to senior guard, Bandy Genung, for a 7-0 lead. The Mustangs added three more points in the quarter when senior Gary Faccia returned a punt for 78 yards to the Matador 19-yard line. Matt Cavanaugh fumbled on the following play, but the Mustangs recovered the ball and scored on a 12-yard pass from Breanahan to senior Gary Faccia.

In the third quarter, senior guard, Bandy Genung, carried the ball nine times for 122 yards while Caccavo caught three for 63 yards. The Mustangs added five more points on a field goal by senior guard, Bandy Genung, for a 19-0 lead.

Basketball outlook encouraging for Stoner as practice begins

by WALTER STONER

Coach Nels Stoner opened basketball practice for the coming season with three starters returning and the depth situation definitely improved.

"I feel strongly that this is the best group I've had in my three years here," Stoner said. "We have a chance to be a real good basketball team.

We are no longer an unknown. We are a good team and we hope to go on from there. A lot will depend on the development of three sophomores in the backcourt and improvement of our front line players, Billy Jackson, and Bob Jennings.

Jackson, a 6-foot-3-inch forward, had a sensational sophomore season scoring 504 points for an 11-point average. He led the Mustangs to a 19-0 victory over the Valley State College.

In the passing department as they depended on the development of that performance, he was selected for the second All-District 6-7-8 Team by the California Basketball Coaches. Jackson to clear the rebounds for the Mustangs will again feature the fast break as well as a half-court offense. Helping Jackson to clear the rebounds will be Jennings, a 6-foot-6-inch junior center who averaged 18.4 rebounds a game as he collected a total of 270.

Senior guard, Randy Genung, 6-foot-1-inch, is the third returning starter. Other returning lettermen are senior center, Richard Stickelheimer, senior forward, Mike Jackson, junior forward, Leonard Lowndes, and junior guard, Chris Blake. The only newcomers are three sophomores. Students Interested in playing must attend the practices every Tuesday and Thursday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Mustang Stadium.
