in a special meeting with Pres. Robert E. Kennedy, the chairman of the speaker arrangement committee, and other student leaders discussed the controversy surrounding the arrangement of the speaker, which had been revoked by a directive.

Speaker directive lifted

The college administration and the ASI administration have been in communication with the speakers about the arrangement of the speaker. The speakers have been given the opportunity to present their arrangements to the college. The college administration has also been in contact with the speakers to discuss the arrangements.

Robert P. Beaver will fill the late Dudley Swan's term until 1976. Beaver lives in Fullerton and serves on the Fullerton Blue Ribbon Committee for Planning and Development. He is also on the Orange County Transit Committee and is a former member of Chapman College President's Council. He is a businessman active in Orange County civic and service organizations.

Reagan appoints three

Three persons were appointed last week by Gov. Ronald Reagan to fill three of the four vacant positions on the California State Colleges and Universities Board of Trustees. The appointments will have to be confirmed by the state senate.

Jeanette Ritchie, replacement for Phoebe Conley, lives in Merito Park and serves on the State Board of Education from which she is expected to resign. Ritchie is assistant head nurse at Stanford University Hospital. She has taught at San Francisco State and is on the committee to study minority dropout. She received her undergraduate degree from Stanford University and has also attended the University of California at Berkeley and the University of Utah.

Roy T. Brophy is replacing William A. Norris. Brophy lives in Sacramento and is expected to resign from his position on the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. He is vice president of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce as well as a director of a Sacramento land development company. He has served as president of San Juan Unified School District Board of Trustees.

SAC resolution is questioned

The new disciplinary action is seen as a reaction to the SAC resolution that was passed in February. The resolution called for the termination of all ASI clubs and the suspension of all ASI activities. The SAC resolution was questioned by many student leaders, who argued that it was unfair and discriminatory. The SAC resolution was also seen as a reaction to the recent ASI activity protests.

Many students and faculty members have expressed concern about the SAC resolution. They have argued that it is unfair and discriminatory and that it could lead to a decrease in student involvement in the campus community. Some have called for the SAC resolution to be rescinded and for the campus community to work together to address the issues that are causing concerns.

Dumke to define role of college

If Pres. Robert E. Kennedy is correct, today's Founder's Day event will be the most important event of the college system's history. According to Kennedy, "The day will be the first public appearance for Dumke since he became chancellor of the renamed 18-school structure." Dumke is expected to highlight the role of the college system as the state's largest public education system.

Dumke is a controversial figure both on campus and in the state legislature. During his near-decade as chancellor of the California State College System, he has proposed the renaming of the college system and the creation of a new state college system. Dumke's proposals have been met with mixed reactions, with some supporting his ideas and others opposing them.

The day will also feature a panel discussion on the future of higher education in California. The panel will include representatives from the California State University system, the California Community Colleges, and the private sector.

The panel discussion will be followed by a luncheon, which will feature keynote speakers from the college system. The luncheon will be open to all members of the college community, and it is expected to be an important event for the future of the college system.

Stephen Preve's letter (Mar. 2) was an amazing display of bigotry and naivete. His first mistake was in generalizing the number of parents who will benefit by a day care center. His feelings thereafter are liberally laced with displays of Ignorance, bigotry and naivete. His first mistake was in generalizing the number of parents who will benefit by a day care center. There are special students here, parents or not, who can't get their money's worth from fees paid at registration. They nevertheless pay the government responsibilities and community activities, etc. All of these are on contact with Instructors. This is the plight of the student.

CU officials fill rooms

Plains are underway for putting a stereo shop in the College Union. The actual moving-in process will begin late Spring Quarter.

The College Union Board of Governors (CUBG) said that a lease will be signed by Sutter Warehouse. The shop will occupy room in the evening during the time they meet. The motion was made that the room be reserved for the program and that SAC could use one of the other rooms for their meeting. The motion was seconded and unanimously passed.

A bank on campus may still be possible and the CUBG will be discussing the matter further at another meeting.

Angela Davis plays dual role

By DONALD B. THACKERY

San Jose, Calif. (UPI)—The prosecution Monday hammered away at Angela Davis’ dual role as both defendant and co-counsel in her kidnapping-murder-conspiracy trial.

Assistant State Attorney General Albert W. Harris Jr., in questioning prospective jurors, dwelt on the difference between what Miss Davis may say from the floor of the court room as one of the defense counsel and what she may say from the witness stand if she decides to testify.

“What she says as co-counsel is not evidence,” Harris told potential jurors. “If she argues or directs questions to witnesses it is not evidence only what comes from the witness stand is evidence.”

A bank on campus may still be possible and the CUBG will be discussing the matter further at another meeting.

Trustee, a past student guest at Founders Day

A former editor of the campus newspaper and now a trustee of the state college and university system, Roy Brophy of Sacramento, is a guest at Founder’s Day observances today.

In 1941 the paper was known as the Cal Poly Californian. Brophy was the editor, and Robert E. Kennedy was the journalism adviser. Thirty-one years later Kennedy, as the college president, is welcoming back his former student.

Last week Gov. Ronald Reagan named Brophy to fill one of four vacant seats on the system’s board of trustees. Thus Brophy becomes the first product of the system to become a trustee, according to Kennedy.

Over the years Brophy has served as president of San Juan Unified School District Board of Trustees and presently is on the board of governors of the California Community Colleges, a position from which he is expected to resign. He is also a partner in a land development company in Sacramento.

As part of Founder’s Day, Brophy will attend an address by Chancellor Glenn R. Dumas, a special luncheon and a plaque dedication at a long-standing oak tree in Poly Grove.

Roy’s Save-Mor
‘Troupe’ acts for change

America’s best-known guerrilla theater company, widely noted for its spontaneity and commitment to social change, recently had a two-day run at the college, from Thursday and Friday.

The San Francisco Mime Troupe will present “The Independent-Panama, or A Man Has His Pride” Thursday, and “The Dragon Lady’s Revenge” Friday at 9 p.m. in the college theater.

Founded in 1968 as an alternative to the traditionally commercial theater, the troupe has performed free of charge in San Francisco parks since 1968 and has chosen to speak out on issues of social relevance. The troupe supports itself by passing the hat after performances and by touring campuses and cities of the United States.

Directive...

A prime question at the meeting dealt with the makeup of Speaker’s Forum and the ability of the members to involve additional student opinion into their decisions.

Kennedy said he was concerned the members were not representative, and that in the past “anyone who came to the meeting did, in fact, constitute a group.”

Mrs. Doebi noted representatives of the seven school councils are members of Speaker’s Forum and should be communicating ideas on speakers to those councils. She said Speaker’s Forum could impress the council of the importance of the speaker decisions, and “the very fact we made it an issue might help.”

Evans added SAC does not have to write itself into the speaker approval process, as it is already done through the ALL by-laws which give it powers of intervention where student funds are being used.

Chandler’s directive instructed Roy Gerstein to halt the process of speaker contracts for a study of them one at a time while the discussion of review was underway. However, no contracts were forwarded to Gerstein and the directive did not halt the process, Chandler indicated. He said the directive is no longer in effect.

Chandler said the college administration is interested in creating a board of trustees adequate control of speaker selection and approval is present, thereby protecting the speaker program from further negative action by the trustees.

Bus available for Dumke speech

A community-to-campus bus service, the “Pioneers Days Express,” will be provided today for civic leaders and others attending the 1st anniversary of the college.

Door-to-door service will be provided from San Luis Obispo City Hall to Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke’s convocation in the Men’s Gym.

Six will wrestle for Nationals

The Mustangs will be sending six wrestlers to College Park, Md., to compete in the National Collegiate Athletic Association, University Division, championshps.

In addition to Larry Morgan, Glenn Anderson and Allyn Casada, who qualified by finishing in the top three in their weight division, Gary McKie, Mike Whomhood and Keith Lainard will attend.
