The Mustang Quartet's arrival at the school was not as expected. The Quartet's arrival was unexpected, as they had been anticipated for weeks. The Quartet's arrival was met with excitement and anticipation. The Quartet's arrival was a much-anticipated event, and the students were thrilled to see them. The Quartet's arrival was a welcome sight, and the students were eager to hear their music.
Evans never zeroed in on the Day Care issue

Editor: I read everyone to know that I'm not carrying on a personal vendetta with Pete Evans, but address him as the chief rep. of ASI Gov't, and include ASI Gov't in what I say. And if being concerned with having a good ASI Gov't puts me on an ego trip, then I've got plenty of company. In Evans' reply to me, there were insults and carrying on about his not raising tuition, I did not accuse him of this. I said, "What will students pay if tuition is added at Pol'y?" In this statement I was referring to possible ASI fee raises (in the proposed Day Care Center that if approved would be used by a few and funded by the entire student body) added to a possible tuition would be raised for poor students. I didn't read anything in the reply concerning the Center. I also saw no reply to my issue of Pol'y's parking citation money being diverted to the county which does no work for us. Evans says, "we can't spend ASI money for individual projects" such as my treadmill survey. I asked for eight dollars when all of ASI money was given to Skip Kelly's Catch-32 computer project which is an individual project Kelly administers (paragraph one, Catch-32). Even with this contradiction, I can't see why ASI can't give money for individual projects if they merit student attention. In tailing Evans on the day of his reply, I questioned his responsiveness on issues such as mine. He said, "If I really need something done, there are probably only three people I could depend on to do it." This doesn't say much for student gov't! Maybe if he got some of the deucedness usually littering ASI offices out and replaced them with doors it would help. Evans says where I'm coming from. I'm coming from where many other students are but where ASI.gov't isn't. Ben Marcellini

Rocking along

Editor: Rocking as a form of exercise is unperceived. Rocking is the by-product and a sense of wellbeing is felt in the soft mobility of rocking chairs. Back and forth, the massage continues, the world drifts by, your shoulders relax, your arms lurk just in the corner. Drifting, swaying, swiveling, moving slowly through that same door as before... something must be there... I'm here... where are the people... a start!...

Another poll... Call... No... Call Pol'y... that's where! Now you've covered everything...very polite...Go...Pol’y... of that...Oh No One... I am rocking on in my chair, back and forth, back and forth... still to sleep.

Budd Drexler

Hassled?

Hassled? Head aghast? Call 542-5965 or drop into CO Ed from 5 p.m. to midnight Monday through Friday.

Early spinners

Editor: In a response to Marie Swanson—Paul Israel's, etc. letter about KEPR's 3 a.m. shift. You must think the DJs are robots and that Steve Magnani is on some kind of power trip. You are wrong on almost every count. The jocks are human, and I'm sure you can imagine how hard it is to get a 3 a.m. 6 a.m. and then go to class a couple of hours later. However, they have been doing it faithfully, and of course voluntarily, for almost all quarter. But, along with the end of every quarter comes more homework, tests, etc., and Magnani would get more and more calls saying "I can't do my shift tonight," he would talk it over with the executive staff (you see, the station is run not by a dictator, but you see perhaps thought), and the decision was made to cancel the entire shift rather than go 24 hour only when the jocks could make it. I know that this is not a perfect change, so relax and wait until next quarter. Unless you'd like to become a DJ and do the shift in question?

John Press

Marvelous

Romance, sir, marriage, no

by BARBARA FLYNN

The dropout word, described in Life as a "striking current of young married young" and exemplified by the feminist movement. The story of one woman's change of consciousness in the March 17 issue of the magazine is a segment to point out the crux of the issue. The issue, as I see it, is not that women are deserting their husbands and families in an attempted to liberate themselves, but more importantly that women and men alike devere little thought to the idea of marriage.

The idea of marriage, as a romantic dependency, is best exemplified by a Carly Simon song popular last year: "You say that we can keep our love alive—oh, all I know is I see—the couples cling and claw—and drawn in love's debris—you say we'll soar like two birds through the clouds—but soon you'll cage me on your shell—I'll never learn to just be me first—by myself—well, okay it's time we moved together—and raised a family of our own you and me—WELL THAT'S THE WAY I ALWAYS HEARD IT SHOULD BE—you want to marry me—'ll marry us. We must be a society of masochists to so eagerly bite into a piece of poisoned cake. And that is the crux of the issue.

Surprisingly enough, many couples in the movement still harbor hope of a good marriage. Although a faction either tried and failed, or rejected marriage for various and sundry reasons, many hope that women have little major change in consciousness on the matter.

Ad sales jobs now available

Jobs are available for people interested in working in the fields of advertising. The Mustang Daily advertising staff has a 13 percent commission on what they sell.

Sign-up will be taken today with advertising manager Frances Squire in Graphic Arts Room 206 or after that date with staff advisor Loren Nicholson in Graphic Arts Room 301.

Mustang Daily

Managing editor: Kathleen Beasley
News Editor: Tony Santos
Layout Editor: Steve Gale
Sports Editor: Max Boveri
Photo Editor: Thomas Granee
Business Manager: Frances Squire
Advertising Manager: Michael K. Sheehan

Marcellini: Advertising material is printed here and not reproduced unless by permission to do so. Such permission may not be construed as endorsement of views expressed. The Mustang Daily is published weekly by the students of Cal Poly. Subscriptions are available from the post office in White Mountains. Unsolicited manuscripts are not accepted. The Mustang Daily is published on a Thursday for the following week. The paper is owned and published as a student publication by the students of Cal Poly. All rights are reserved. Mailing address: Mustang Daily, Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407.

For all advertising inquiries, call 542-5965.

GEDERAN AUTO

Expert V.W. and Porsche Repair

273 PACIFIC
543-7473

GERMAN

AUTO

Printed and published by the students of Cal Poly. The Mustang Daily is a non-partisan, non-profit, student publication. Written and edited by students, the daily news and opinion is the only responsibility of the editors.
PLAY REVIEW

Troupe shows Shakespeare not all dull and educational

by WINNIE ROBBINS

The New Shakespeare Company of the United States performing Shakespeare's plays with passion, vitality, entusiasm, and talent.

Last Friday and Saturday this San Francisco troupe, who believe that Shakespeare is in no way out of date appeared in "As You Like It" and "Romeo and Juliet." The Fine Arts Committee outstanding performances which were held in the Little Theater.

Under the exciting direction of Margit Romo, the company proves that Shakespeare does not have to be "dull, boring, and educational."

Most of the twenty-five members of the company are between 20 to 27 years old. All of the actors succeed in their attempts to perform Shakespeare as they believe his plays were performed for Elizabethan audiences: direct, involving, and bawdy-with havoc, humor, and spontaneity as the only order.

Very definite order prevails, though, when it comes to the duties of production which include stage managing, makeup, and the problems of publicity and promotion. All of these duties are shared by the actors. The financial rewards the actors and actresses derive are minimal. They are artists devoted to their art, that is acting.

Maria Barron who played Phebe in "As You Like It" seems to express the company's feeling concerning their art: "Acting should involve people, give the audience something.

The New Shakespeare Company does indeed give of themselves, like no other company I have seen.

Outstanding performances were given by Kevin Gardner who moves with the grace of a bird in flight and the force of a man many times his size. Gardner has the ability to get caught up in the parts he plays. He doesn't portray the befuddled Orlando or the lovelorn Romeo, rather he is Orlando and Romeo. Corsia West is at once, lovely and forceful. Susan Rebello is a dynamic, little-in-size actress who has great command of the stage.

The audience favored the company's production with much laughter and applause. It turns out that the company favors us for they have proposed San Luis Obispo as the site of an annual Renaissance Fair in conjunction with the Mozart Festival which takes place in early August. If you are interested in performing or planning a Renaissance Fair come to a Fine Arts Committee meeting. Meetings are held every Tuesday in CU 18 at 7:19 p.m.

Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke, in his report to the trustees, welcomed Frank P. Adams, Robert P. Smith, Ray T. Brophy and Mrs. C. Stewart Riddle, the four Reagan appointments.

In other trustee action, criteria to be used in determining which state college will become state universities were approved and will now be submitted to the Coordinating Council for Higher Education for approval.

The board authorized the Committee on Educational Policy to act on behalf of the board during the period of March 10 through July 10 in changing the name of campuses.

William Langdort, vice chancellor, told the trustees he was "pretty sure" that 11 of the state colleges would be designated as universities and five would not be, according to a report in the Telegram-Tribune.

THE PARTS HOUSE

SPEED EQUIPMENT-AUTO PARTS
20% off to Cal Poly Students
524-3434

Grand Opening Specials

at

S.L.O. Transit Authority

MOTOBECANE NOMAD
FRENCH 10-SPEED RACING BIKE
Reg. $90.00 NOW $79.95

GITANE
10-SPEED RACING BIKE
Reg. $240
NOW $199.95

344 MONTEREY
Reg. 544-3143

MONTANA
Reg. $39.95
NOW $27.95

HEAD STANDARD
Reg. $39.95
NOW $27.95

588 HIQUERA
Reg. $35
NOW $27

YUCKII
Why hassle the bookstore?
Buy & sell used text books thru Tele-Book Interlink.
544-1103 or 544-3082

Letters remain

A substantial number of letters to the editor remain in Mustang Daily files from Winter Quarter. These letters will be printed in the Spring and if the author of the respective letters requests it, letters will be printed in the Daily office is in Graphic Arts. Room 218.
New Riders of the Purple Sage

Photos by Max Boveri
New Riders trot into the sunset
by MALCOLM STONE

The New Riders of the Purple Sage rode onto campus Sunday night with a country rock sound that sent much of the audience a little overjoyed. The response of most people I talked to afterward was "they were pretty good." The New Riders have a ways to go before they make the complete transition from country group to country rock stars. Warming up for the Grateful Dead must have been a deadening experience, because the New Riders were not up to par from an identity problem. They lack a certain something that makes the audience relate with the artists, and all of their musical skills cannot overcome the nagging feeling you'll enjoy on the album at home just as much. It is a prevailing truth in the music business that anything a performer can take from another artist and make his own is right on, but the New Riders apologized too often for doing likewise themselves. No apologies were necessary since they did not attempt to imitate other groups, just played enjoyable music.

They covered a lot of ground from Maria Haggard to Chuck Berry and offended no one. Some of the songs were "Hello Mary Lou," "I Don't Need No Doctor," "Willie and the Hand Jay," "Honey," and "The Last Lonely Eagle." The warming group for the New Riders was California Express, a "blue grass" group. They performed numbers like "Break My Mind," "Cryin' Woman," and "The New Old Kentucky Home," a tune that must make Stephen Foster queasy. California Express set the mood making small talk was an acceptable pastime.

The New Riders continued that mood making small talk for the benefit of the audience, but mostly just plain enjoying their work. If any of their listeners were disappointed by the lack of star power present the good music and an enthusiastic willingness to point cut deep into that disappearing. If their fans hang on and keep buying those records, the New Riders may become genuine stars and develop the presence that makes paying the price of a ticket worthwhile.

Angela Davis called passionate

San Jose, Calif. (UPI) — Prosecutor Albert W. Harris Jr. said Monday Angela Davis helped plot the 1970 Marin County incident in which a prison guard in a case linked by the state with that of Angela Davis. The jury returned the verdict a day after Judge S. Lee Vavurts refused to accept their report that they were deadlocked and sent them back for further deliberations. The heavily guarded courtroom, surrounded by the strictest security in San Francisco judicial history, broke into cheers from supporters of the two black convicts, Florence Drumgo, 38, and John Clutchetta, 39.

Judge and three others were black convicts, Fiesta Drumgo, and John Clutchetta, 39. Drumgo, Clutchetta and black revolutionary George Jackson, who was killed in a shooting rampage at San Quentin Prison last August, had been accused of killing Soledad Guard John Mills Jan. 18, 1970. The jury had the choice of verdicts of murder or manslaughter in arriving at their decision, and rejected all of them.

The two defendants and their attorneys threw their arms around each other when the verdict was announced just before noon.

‘Soledad Brothers’ are innocent, jury decides

San Francisco (UPI) — An all-white jury of nine women and three men Monday found the two surviving "Soledad Brothers", innocent of killing a prison guard in a case linked by the state with that of Angela Davis.

The jury returned the verdict a day after Judge S. Lee Vavurts refused to accept their report that they were deadlocked and sent them back for further deliberations.

The heavily guarded courtroom, surrounded by the strictest security in San Francisco judicial history, broke into cheers from supporters of the two black convicts, Florence Drumgo, 38, and John Clutchetta, 39.

Drumgo, Clutchetta and black revolutionary George Jackson, who was killed in a shooting rampage at San Quentin Prison last August, had been accused of killing Soledad Guard John Mills Jan. 18, 1970.

The jury had the choice of verdicts of murder or manslaughter in arriving at their decision, and rejected all of them.

The two defendants and their attorneys threw their arms around each other when the verdict was announced just before noon.

DISCOUNT

IS HERE.

the Record Exchange OFFERS

ALL $5.98 albums sell for $3.79

All $6.98 factory 8-track tapes

$4.98

Watch for weekly Specials like:
THIS WEEK:

Neil Young's HARVEST $3.39
Humble Pie Smokin' $3.39

RHY'S EXXON

SAINT PATRICK'S SPECIAL

OIL CHANGE AND LUBE $3.98

All $6.98 factory 8-track tapes

$4.98

for Spring Picnics

Ice Cream $1.50 gal
Fruit Drinks .25 gal.
Cheddar Cheese extra sharp 1.00 lb.

at CAMPUS FOOD STORE

in the Foothill Plaza
Evans challenges Chandler about rights

by KATHLEEN BEASLEY
Managing Editor

"On Friday night, March 10, two students were violated of their first amendment right. ...the restrictive action was based on illegitimate information and a false interpretation of existing regulations.

"...the seriousness of the crime far overshadows many that carry stiff penalties... you lay regulations on us like napkins in Vietnam.

"Raving from U.C. Berkeley No — it's ASI Pres. Pete Evans letting go with a double-barreled shotgun full of anger when students were barred from soliciting signatures in the college theater.

"The hassle began, according to Dean of Students Everett Chandler, when students tried to obtain signatures for the marijuana initiative in the lobby of the college theater, after a performance by the San Francisco Mime Troupe.

"After several individuals stated to the theater manager that they were being bothered, by the petitioning group, he asked them to go outside the building, which they did," Chandler wrote in a letter to Marquis Daily Editor Paul Simon.

"On March 10, Chandler was informed of the incident and decided that the President's Directive Regarding Use of State College Buildings and Grounds did apply to the situation.

"One portion of the directive requires that "students not part of a recognized organization must obtain the written approval of the Dean of Students, or in his absence, the Administrative Vice President," Chandler said."

"Approval of the time, manner and place for gathering signatures had not been obtained, so Chandler told the theater staff that a citation for a misdemeanor could be issued if the group returned.

That evening the students returned and were informed that campus security would be called if they did not leave. The group left and one petitioner, Norman Stone, talked to Evans about the problem.

"Evans and Stone called Chandler that night to complain about the restriction.

"I explained to both of them that I believed the president's directive to be applicable.

"In response to their charge that each interpretation of violation of the first amendment constitutional rights, I informed them that I would check with the legal counsel of the chancellor's office early Monday morning.

"March 13," Chandler wrote.

"Evans, in a letter to Pres. Robert Kennedy and Chandler, asked, "if the state can regulate time, place and manner about petitions, especially initiative for the ballot, how in hell are (remember all?) ever to realize a viewpoint popular with them but not the government?"

"Chandler discussed the issue with his attorney Robert Henry, who said that in his opinion the directive applied.

"Petitioners do not have absolute freedom to seek signatures without regard for the rights of the campus community."

ALL AUTO PARTS
(STUDENT DISCOUNT)

AMERICAN PARTS

SUN 10:00 to 4:00
MON thru SAT 8:00 to 5:30
544-7050

 STUDENTS & DO IT YOURSELF OWNERS Car Boats Pickups Horse Trailers
You can save all the labor costs on body & paint work. You sand & prepare-we spray or we rent the spray booth & equipment & supervise for top quality results. Competitive insurance estimates
We buy & sell wrecked Volkswagen parts

CREDIT TERMS
AUTO BODY COLLISION SERVICE of San Luis Obispo
& Broad at Fremont 544-6260

In the news.

Denver—Senate judiciary Committee hearings in Denver were halted by the collapse of lobbyist Dita Boed who returns to Washington to take further testimony from president of ITT.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Mayor John Lindsay talked to farmers, Sen. Henry Jackson to police, while other candidates spoke to students as campaigning steps up for the Wisconsin presidential primary.

Washington—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy disclosed a list of contributors who had given $1 million so far to his campaign for nomination.

Beijing—U.S. military strength in South Vietnam fell below 100,000 troops for the first time in nearly seven years.

Paris—North Vietnam criticized as "insolent," Vice President Nixon's reasons for suspending Vietnam peace talks and returned that U.S. prisoners will be freed only when Americans withdraw.

Washington—The Supreme Court upheld a law banning cigarette commercials on radio and television.

Beijing—Communists attacked a series of South Vietnamese and U.S. bases in Indo-China. Seven were killed, 50 pounds of mortar and rocket fire into a tank base in Cambodia.

Dean Everett Chandler others," Chandler wrote. In applying the directive, the attorney said, decisions based on the substance of the petition cannot be made.

"Informed of the incident and Chandler, Robert Kennedy and Chandler, asked, "if the state can regulate time, place and manner about petitions, especially initiative for the ballot, how in hell are (remember all?) ever to realize a viewpoint popular with them but not the government?"

Chandler discussed the issue with his attorney Robert Henry, who said that in his opinion the directive applied.

"Petitioners do not have absolute freedom to seek signatures without regard for the rights of the campus community."

Evans and Stone called Chandler that night to complain about the restriction.

"I explained to both of them that I believed the president's directive to be applicable.

"In response to their charge that each interpretation of violation of the first amendment constitutional rights, I informed them that I would check with the legal counsel of the chancellor's office early Monday morning.

"March 13," Chandler wrote.

"Evans, in a letter to Pres. Robert Kennedy and Chandler, asked, "if the state can regulate time, place and manner about petitions, especially initiative for the ballot, how in hell are (remember all?) ever to realize a viewpoint popular with them but not the government?"

"Chandler discussed the issue with his attorney Robert Henry, who said that in his opinion the directive applied.

"Petitioners do not have absolute freedom to seek signatures without regard for the rights of the campus community."

Evans and Stone called Chandler that night to complain about the restriction.

"I explained to both of them that I believed the president's directive to be applicable.

"In response to their charge that each interpretation of violation of the first amendment constitutional rights, I informed them that I would check with the legal counsel of the chancellor's office early Monday morning.

"March 13," Chandler wrote.

"Evans, in a letter to Pres. Robert Kennedy and Chandler, asked, "if the state can regulate time, place and manner about petitions, especially initiative for the ballot, how in hell are (remember all?) ever to realize a viewpoint popular with them but not the government?"

"Chandler discussed the issue with his attorney Robert Henry, who said that in his opinion the directive applied.

"Petitioners do not have absolute freedom to seek signatures without regard for the rights of the campus community."

Evans and Stone called Chandler that night to complain about the restriction.

"I explained to both of them that I believed the president's directive to be applicable.

"In response to their charge that each interpretation of violation of the first amendment constitutional rights, I informed them that I would check with the legal counsel of the chancellor's office early Monday morning.

"March 13," Chandler wrote.

"Evans, in a letter to Pres. Robert Kennedy and Chandler, asked, "if the state can regulate time, place and manner about petitions, especially initiative for the ballot, how in hell are (remember all?) ever to realize a viewpoint popular with them but not the government?"

"Chandler discussed the issue with his attorney Robert Henry, who said that in his opinion the directive applied.

"Petitioners do not have absolute freedom to seek signatures without regard for the rights of the campus community."

Evans and Stone called Chandler that night to complain about the restriction.

"I explained to both of them that I believed the president's directive to be applicable.

"In response to their charge that each interpretation of violation of the first amendment constitutional rights, I informed them that I would check with the legal counsel of the chancellor's office early Monday morning.

"March 13," Chandler wrote.

"Evans, in a letter to Pres. Robert Kennedy and Chandler, asked, "if the state can regulate time, place and manner about petitions, especially initiative for the ballot, how in hell are (remember all?) ever to realize a viewpoint popular with them but not the government?"

"Chandler discussed the issue with his attorney Robert Henry, who said that in his opinion the directive applied.

"Petitioners do not have absolute freedom to seek signatures without regard for the rights of the campus community."
Baseball men expect to snap spell

The Mustang Baseball team, playing right through the quarter in a mid-season plateau because we have such a young club. We think that we will snap out of it and finish strong as we had anticipated before the season began.

"Coach Harr was pleased with the performances of freshman Ted Bailey, Larry Black, and Jesse Mendosa over the several games. He complimented these three as he said, "We have liked to have won more games but the three freshmen helped to keep the team's momentum going. Bailey and Black are hitting over .300 and are doing a good job for us."

Sally has taken over the right field duties with a .250 average. Black is slowly getting back into the batting order after a .303 average. Mendosa has played well but has hit only .300. According to Coach Harr, the lack of pitching consistency has been one major cause of the Mustangs' mid-season slump. But he added, "At the same time we can’t forget the excellent pitching job we got from Les Ohrn against Cal Lutheran, Doug Altman against Fresno State, and Dennis Root against Hayward State."

Spring tryouts for comedy set

Spring tryouts for the Speech Department’s Spring Quarter production, "You Can’t Take It With You," are scheduled for 7 tonight in Music, Speech, and Drama Room 313.

According to Robin Lake, director of the 1986 comedy, the cast calls for 8 men and 7 women. "You Can’t Take It With You," which was written by George Kaufman and Moss Hart, deals with a family-the Van der Dopp family. The comedy is one of the most successful in the Kaufman-Hart team wrote.

McGovern will consider black

(UP1) — Sen. George B. McGovern said Monday he would be willing to consider a woman or a black as a vice presidential running mate if he should win the Democratic presidential nomination.

Asked during his campaigning in Wisconsin if he would consider Rep. Shirley Chisholm for the No. 2 spot, the South Dakota senator commented: "I would certainly not rule out running with a black person or a woman or both wrapped in the same person. However, I don’t want to make a commitment to Mrs. Chisholm.

Car president wins race

Last Sunday’s auto race, "3001: A Car Oddity," sponsored by the Cal Poly Sports Car Club was won by its president, Ric Wycuff. Ric placed first by taking the top time of the day in his Mustang II. The small sedan class was won by John Rupeagge and his Capt. Other class winners were Bill Charron, class C, in a TR-271, and Bruce Wilhelm, large sedan class, in a Camaro. The awards will be handed out at the club’s next meeting on Thursday night April 6 at 7:30 in the Library parking lot. The club welcomes all cars.

Sports car club president Ric Wycuff is shown in his Mustang II in which he won the auto race last Sunday.
Field events give track team second at relays

by MALCOLM STONE

The Mustang track team lived up to its billing as a big meet team Saturday when it survived mishaps to tie Idaho State for second place in the college division of the Easter Relays.

Sacramento State won it with 30 points while Idaho and the Mustangs deadlocked at 30 apiece. The University of Southern California surprised no one by scoring 82 points and running off with the university title.

Rene Simmons, Mustang head coach, was pleased with the team's overall performance, especially since he was convinced before the season it would be strong in that type of meet.

"The team is young, but I think they're making good progress," Simmons said. "I thought they did a good job under the circumstances."

The "circumstances" included some tough breaks for the Mustangs. The first problem was John Reiley, the team's top sprinter, who was out with an injury.

Then in the two-mile relay Bob Chance was tripped when the man ahead of him fell down, and he lost an opportunity to finish in scoring position. "He did a good job of getting up and coming in," Simmons said.

Simmons filed a protest after the 440-yard relay when one of the Mustang runners crossed into the Mustangs' lane and spiked Kerry Gold. "Gold got cut up pretty good," Simmons said, but the protest was not allowed because the lane judges said they did not see it.

Gold's foot was so bad Simmons had to scratch his mile relay team.

Simmons had concentrated his recruiting efforts for this season in the field events, and his efforts paid off even more when the track events fell through. He was so pleased he said, "I'm going to do more in that area."

Tom Murphy and Randy Zimmer finished first and third in the high jump. Murphy won on fewer misses at 6-4 and Zimmer topped 6-6. Murphy's jump equaled the winning height in the university division, and Zimmer's would have been good enough for second.

Bob Jennings, who has not worked out much, because of his basketball duties, won the triple jump at 46-11H. Simmons said his timing and step were off, but he won on "just natural ability."

Sophomore guard Pinky Williams goes high for lay-in during season game. Williams is one of three Mustangs chosen to All-Conference first team.

Junior center Robert Jennings (64) is shown making a free throw while junior forward Billy Jackson jumps for rebound.

Three on top cage team

The Mustang basketball team dominated the 1970-71 California Collegiate Athletic Association All-Conference team named recently with three of its members on the first team.

Junior forward Billy Jackson, junior center Robert Jennings, and sophomore guard Pinky Williams were selected to the team by the league coaches.

Senior Sam Cash of UC Riverside and senior Paul Mc-Cracken of Valley State were voted co-players of the year and rounded out the list of top players.

Jackson, who was voted player of the year for the 1970-71 season, ended the season with a 22.5 scoring average in conference competition. Jennings, who made the second team last year, scored 17.9 points a game while Williams averaged 16.4 points in his first year of varsity play.

The CCAA basketball season finished in a three-way tie between the Mustangs, Valley State, and UC Riverside, who was later named the league champion by the executive board.

Riverside's All-American Cash will compete in the Annual East-West Coaches All-American game at Dayton, Ohio April 1. Cash is one of two college division players invited to the contest, the other being Travis Grant of Kentucky State. Cash becomes the first CCAA player ever invited to an All-Star basketball game of this stature.

Students who think of quality first think first of Ross Jewelers

Any domestic 6 cylinder without air condition parts & labor on tune up

$14.95

Superblend 29.9¢

Discount Is Our Business

Compair Prices

Roy's Save-Mor