Earthly talk for stage

Lake is back at the formative casting job by tonight or early Thursday morning. Lake will probably take extra care in selecting the people that he wants. "King John" has been entered in the American College Theater Festival competition. Universities, colleges, and community colleges from across the nation have entered the competition.

If the campus thespians receive the judges' nod of approval it will mean competing with other carefully screened plays from a region which includes Nevada, Arizona, and Hawaii. The next step could be the national finals in Washington, D.C.

But for this campus, those possibilities are long range goals. Lake is back at the formative stages and he finds a cast of student actors. However, the possibilities still exist.

AC DIRECTOR

Pres. denies conflict

by MALCOM STONE

The co-chairman for Rep. Burt L. Talcott's (Rep.) re-election campaign in this county, have disclaimed any conflict of interest in their roles as ASI officers.

ASI Pres. Robin Baggett and Danny Johnson, ASI Vice President, as the co-chairmen, see their efforts on Talcott's behalf as expressions of individuality. 'You can't be a man without a country just because you're a student body officer," Baggett said. "You have to be in politics."

He said students benefited from the political contests. "It's important to establish good personal contacts, not only with Republicans but with Democrats. It's through these people that you lobby for students."

Baggett said they were asked to coordinate the campaign because of the job we did in May and June (running their own ASI campaign)." He said it required very little of their time, because they functioned essentially as coordinators of other groups. "We did little more than make phone calls each evening on behalf of Talcott.

"We're trying to set an example for all students," he said. "A student should become involved enough to work for what he wants." Johnson said when it comes to a choice between the incumbent and his opponent Julian Camacho "there is no choice."

"It has to be Burt Talcott. He is the best man."

Johnson said there was a considerable amount of effort spent last year trying to get someone from the Niman administration on campus. He said it only took a call to the Republican Central Committee to agree on candidate. Greg Buts, secretary of agriculture, to appear on campus.

Buts, secretary of agriculture, to appear on campus. Johnson added Buts' visit would have political implications, but he said ag students would benefit from the visit too.

Johnson said he was troubled last year because he did not take a stand politically.

Gay students' case begins

The case of the Gay Students Union right to be recognized as a campus organization gets underway Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in Department 1 of the Courthouse Annex.

Mr. Richard Carmel, the ASI lawyer, will defend the Gay Students Union on the grounds that the members of the group have the right to organize under the constitutional guarantees of due, free and equal rights of amendment.

The administration will contend that they have the right to refusal recognition of the group because their activities are unlawful.

In similar cases that have gone to the courts recently the Gay Students Union have won the right to be recognized.

Gay students' parts put on costumes and act out scenes.

McGovern and Nixon on the campaign road

(UPI)—President Nixon praised immigrants of the last century as American heroes who helped to build the nation Tuesday, while Sen. George McGovern accused Nixon of being afraid to let POWs come home because of what they believe threatens the American people about the war.

As part of another brief election campaign foray, Nixon issued a statement in advance of a ceremony in New York where he was to dedicate the American Museum of Immigration near the Statue of Liberty.

“We are witnessing today the completion of something that meant a great deal to a great American,” President Eisenhower, Nixon said.

Nixon said, “The displays inside this building will remind us of our lives and our descendants of where many of our people came from. Every facet of American life today is filled with examples of what they did when they got here, of what they added to America, and of how they strengthened and enriched all of our lives, and continue to do so today.”

McGovern and Mrs. Barbara Stullen, the wife of a Marine Corps major shot down over Laos in 1966, charged that Nixon was responsible for the continuing imprisonment of the POWs.

McGovern counterattacked on the POW issue after joining on-time bitter issue, Robert Humphrey at a labor breakfast and predicting the Nixon administration would try to impose compulsory arbitration, a national rights-to-work law and a national sales tax on American working men and their families.

McGovern said Nixon should be made to answer a long list of questions, including whether he planned to seek legislation requiring arbitration or outside settlement of labor disputes, a nationwide ban on union shop agreements, and a “value added tax” which McGovern said would “be a back to school retreat at the San Juan Capistrano Union is beginning the year with 29 runoff elections for ASCI positions and whether to recall theon the Tuesday afternoon SAC meetings would be better off unless it lasts until the early hours of the morning.

Brazilian guitarist plays

Brazilian guitarist, Bola Sete will appear on campus Sunday, Oct. 1 in Chaminé Auditorium. The event, sponsored by the Special Events Committee, will cost one dollar.

Of Sete, the San Francisco Chronicle said "Bola Sete is among the most versatile guitarists alive, ranking with, or beyond the likes of Charlie Byrd or Laurindo Almeida in the ability to move from jazz to bossa nova to Spanish to flamenco to pop to classical."

Sete began playing guitar as a child in Brazil. Now, after traveling the world and mastering all styles of guitar, he plays his own compositions, the works of other Brazilian composers, and traditional Brazilian folk music; Choro, the songs of the Brazilian cowboys; and Maracamba, Brazilian voodoo music.

Cradling his Martello guitar, Bola's fingers weave a spell of intricate patterns, entrancing both his audience and himself. Simulating the sound of three and four guitars at once, Bola draws out the bass, the rhythm and the melody lines of a song while sometimes using the face of his guitar as a drum. The resulting symphony has made Bola's music famous the world over.

New approach to contemporary art

Television teacher for the contemporary art course, which is produced and coordinated by New York University, is Ruth Loughran, head of this campus' Art Department, and will be instructor-coordinator of the televised course as far as Cal Poly Extension is concerned.

Dr. Loughran said those who watch the programs and successfully complete the mid-term and final examinations, which will be given here, will earn three-quarter units of university credit. Registration fee for the course is $1.

The televised Extension course will emphasize the artist and art movements of the 20th century. Also covered during the course will be the courses and development of current painting, sculpture, and architecture.

The art course is among 30 courses on such subjects as architecture, child development, education, engineering, English, home economics, and speech that will be offered by the extension program this fall.

The final concert of the season will be held in the Drama Building, room 122 or phone 646-2556.

FAIRFIELD, Cali., USA-
After 11 gruelling days of debate and questioning, a jury was chosen Tuesday to hear the murder trial of Juan V. Corona, 38, charged with murdering 26 itinerant farm workers.

Corona's attorney announced during a recess.

Also covered during the course will be the courses and development of current painting, sculpture, and architecture.

The art course is among 30 courses on such subjects as architecture, child development, education, engineering, English, home economics, and speech that will be offered by the extension program this fall.

Interested persons throughout San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara Counties will be able to study contemporary art without leaving their homes through a new cooperative program.

Involved are this campus' extension program; television station KCOY, Channel 11, Santa Maria; the CBS Television network; and New York University.

Vehicle for presentation of the course titled "Contemporary Art" (Art 228 ETF) will be a program series on 30th century American art being presented this fall by CBS Television as part of its award-winning "Bursie Semester" series.

It will be aired in color on KCOY at 6:30 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays starting Sept. 26.

The half-hour programs will alternate with a second Sunrise Semester course. The second course, which will be on contemporary law, will be aired by KCOY, but will not be part of the new Cal Poly Extension arrangement.

Russians spell out proposals for war's end

The Soviet Union declared today that the Vietnamese question cannot be settled only on the basis of proposals put forward by North Vietnam and the Viet Cong.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, in a policy speech to the General Assembly, said:

"The United States should respect the right of the Vietnamese people of genuine independence and the right of the people of South Vietnam, cease the bombing, the mining, the blockade and all military actions in Vietnam, reunite the implementation of the policy of 'Vietnamization' the war immediately and completely withdraw American troops from South Vietnam, discontinue its military participation and its support of the Saigon regime.

"In solving the internal problem of South Vietnam, it is necessary to proceed from the real state of affairs: Two systems, two armies and two states of affairs: Two systems, two armies and two states. Therefore, the basis for the solution of the problem is the equality of the parties and the renunciation of armaments.

"For that purpose, it is necessary to set up in South Vietnam a provisional government of national accord on a tripartite basis which will deal with all matters in the transitional period and will organize general elections on truly free and democratic lines."

WASHINGTON UPI — The Senate passed and sent to the House Tuesday a compromise bill extending the life of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission for five years and giving it authority to protect the rights of women.

The measure was adopted with little debate. In previous years, such a measure would have touched off weeks of acrimonious debate.

A House-Senate conference committee which wrote the compromise version dropped a Senate-passed section creating a National Committee on Women.

Duggan best defender

"I think maybe Tom Duggan wasn't too happy with his performance in the game with Cal State Hayward. I think he had something to prove Saturday night." This was merely a conjecture by defensive line coach Bobbie Lane but, if it is true, there can be no doubt that the senior outside linebacker for the Mustangs proved himself with room to spare.

He was credited with 14 assists on tackles, two tackles-for-losses, two pass deflections and one forced fumble. Duggan's defensive point total for the game was 30, the most for a Mustang defender this year. He was selected Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.

Lane pointed out that for an outside linebacker to roll up those kind of statistics, he has to cover some ground. "When you figure (Continued on page 8)"

They can do it if they want to this year, but they're going to have to cut down on the fouls." Anderson intends to use a swimming offense this season, as opposed to the slower, hole-men variety prominent in the Olympic Games. The swimming offense is similar to a fast break offense in basketball and, in basketball, the price is paid in fatigue. Because they are constantly moving, players get tired faster, and it is essential to have a good bench to back them up.

It is here the coach of Mustang aquatics does not feel he will get caught short. "The first string is tougher this year, and the second string is too," he said. "We're going to have good depth to fill in for the starters when they get tired."

The next outing for the poliists will come soon enough when Cal State Hayward travels here Thursday for a 3 p.m. game. Although Hayward was the victor both times the teams faced each other last year, each contest went into overtime and was decided by a single goal.
