McGovern’s flight calls won’t lure the President

...Bar Fraser (UPI) - President Nixon, increasingly confident of victory, said Wednesday he will not permit Democratic nominee George McGovern to go in for a follow-up meeting following the campaign schedule.

"I shall campaign only when I conclude it will not interfere with doing the job the people elected me to do," Nixon said in a statement issued as he arrived in California for a pair of $1,000-a-plate fund-raising speeches.

McGovern has been trying for weeks to lure Nixon out of the White House and onto the campaign trail.

"I do welcome the opportunity to take the case for this administration directly to the American people," Nixon added.

"But my first responsibility is to do my job as President of the United States." Nixon also renewed his criticism of McGovern’s proposal to cut the Pentagon budget.

Nixon’s visit to Los Angeles on Saturday, Oct. 7, and the meeting place to be announced at a press conference.

"One of the patients have been for ten or more years," said Davis, "and are therefore ten years behind the time. We help bring them up-to-date." The hospital official involved in the program is Bob Watts. He is to be at the meeting for the question and answer session. Watts also supervises the group activities of students and patients. It is against policy to have separate, one-to-one contact between students and patients, according to Davis.

"It’s really an experience. People who go once (to the hospital) never fall to come back," said Davis.

The Gay Student Union (GSU) vice president, Henry P. Huff, the airline would offer passengers a "no frill service." But he said the $8 one-way fare would be open to all ages during any season of the year and would not be governed by present escalation flight restrictions.

"I don’t believe there would be a limit on the number of passengers," Huff said.

TIA president McCracken, chairman of the President’s Council of Economic Advisers, added: "I would give It a 40-60 per cent chance of success." He said he believed the tax increase was necessary to raise $9 billion in revenue and prevent a recession. But he said that if the tax were not cut, the government would have to borrow $8 billion from the private sector.

The first hearing was June 36 at Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles. It was rescheduled at that time.

The Student Interim Committee (SIC) alloted $1,000 which the GSU could be carried on the books. The SIC had not yet recognized the GSU as an official organization.

The Associated Students In-
Talcott labeled 'phony big-wig'

Editor's Letter:
The students at Cal Poly, as constituents of Congressmen Burt Talcott, deserve a fair analysis of the confrontation here last Friday between Talcott and his political opponent Julian Camacho.

During the summer Camacho challenged Talcott to an open forum to air the issues; in stronger language a debate. Talcott immediately 'reviled' by publicly stating he would debate anyone, anywhere, anytime. The next day he issued his refusal to debate Camacho; his position he has maintained ever since. Talcott, being ideologicallyaligned with the President, is counting on massive funding and a clouding of the issues to win the election. The last thing he wants is coverage and exposure of his stands on the issues.

So Talcott showed up to discretely pass out cigars and shake hands in his campaign bid. His recent Lopes Wilderness bill has been exposed by environmentalists as a fraud and even his poor congressional record is not the issue at hand but rather his conduct and that of our student body President. I was unpleasantly surprised to read and hear (KFLY) Talcott and Baggett accuse Camacho of a 'planned disruption' and 'gross discourtesy' for attempting to give the students some exposure to the issues and differences between the candidates. And set behind Talcott's back but to his face.

All President Robin Baggett should know about 'planned disruptions.' Through his position he directed an undisputed planned disruption of an opposition conference that effectively crippled democratic elections here. Come on Robin, quit playing ball with phony big-wigs like Talcott and go to bat for real people that represent the views of students, justice and peace. Field and Stream, magazine, the League of Women Voters and other concerned partisan groups have rated Burt Talcott as one of the worst legislators in the nation on environmental issues. His record on other concepts is equally depressing.

No charges for Seale

Chicago (UPI) - Federal authorities said Wednesday they would seek to drop contempt of court charges against Bobby Seale, the Black Panther leader who was bound and gagged in order to preserve order during the “Chicago Seven” trial.

U.S. Attorney James R. Thompson said he would ask that the charges be forgotten rather than reveal transcripts of electronic surveillance in connection with the explosive 1968-70 trial.

Thompson said “it would be unwise to national security interests” to reveal the transcripts to the defense.

The U.S. Appeals Court, overturning Seale’s four-year sentence on contempt charges and ordering a new trial earlier this year, had ordered that the transcripts be made available to Seale and his lawyers.

The transcripts were originally introduced in the chambers of the Chicago Seven trial to the judge, Julius J. Hoffman. The appeals court ruled that if they were not shown to the defense “then the contempt charge against Seale must be dropped.”

Thompson, in a letter to Chief U.S. Appeals Court Judge Luther M. Swygert, said, “It would be unwise to national security interests to disclose the contents to the defendants as required.

“Therefore, we conclude that the interests of justice would best be served by withdrawing the contempt case charges against Seale and will more before the judge when this case is assigned.”

Thompson said the action will mean there will be no charges remaining against Seale in connection with the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

The binding and gagging of Seale was one of the dramatic high points of the trial of activists on charges of conspiring to incite riots during the convention.

Bowling clinic

Bill Bunetta, professional bowler and Hall of Famer, will be at the CU bowling alley today to help interested students, faculty and staff members improve their bowling games.

Nicknamed “The Professor” because of his knowledge of the sport, Bunetta has bowled several games in which he scored a perfect total of 300 points.

According to Gene Legari, CU games manager, Bunetta will give a short lecture at 11 a.m. (college hour) and give individual instruction afterward.

The clinic, sponsored by the College Union, will be free of charge.

Children's Faire

A carnival spirit will permeate San Luis Obispo's Mission Plaza Saturday as it becomes the site of an old-fashioned Children's Faire from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Nobody seems terribly worried about the kind of job he is capable of doing. When asked if the offense would change to compensate for the loss of Foley, quarterback John Pettas was quick with an answer: "We won't make any changes. Gliniak is reliable and we're not worried about the replacement job he's going to do. Rick's actually faster than Foley. Mike may be quicker hitting the holes, but when Rick gets outside he's really got speed."

Gliniak's speed carried him well through his freshman season two years ago, when he was the leading rusher on the freshman team.

It may be interesting to note that the man who played behind him on the second string was none other than Mike Foley. That year, it was Gliniak who had the knee injury, requiring surgery and keeping him out of action last season.

But he's back now, with sophomore eligibility, a starting spot and a crucial vacancy to fill.
