SAC indignant at dean's threat

Peace candidate Spock to rally support here

by NORMAN KEMPETER

Washington (UPI) — The United States announced Thursday that a Vietnam settlement agreement signed "within a matter of weeks or less," ending the longest and one of the most aggressive wars in American history.

While House adviser Henry A.
Kissinger said Hanoi had been close to joining in, final negotiations were to be effective.

The U.S. statement appeared to confirm the Independence, sovereignty, unity and territorial integrity of Vietnam, as recognized by the

3. A cease-fire in South Viet­ am within 48 hours of the signing of a treaty. An end to U.S. bombing and mining of North Vietnam. Withdrawal of American troops and "foreign" allies from South Vietnam. A ban on foreign troops or advisors in South Vietnam, and on the introduction of new weapons except for exchange as those damaged.

5. Return of all prisoners of war and foreign civilians who carrying out simultaneously with U.S. troop withdrawal, aid of the Geneva agreements.

6. "Free and democratic" elections in South Vietnam in three years, under the supervision of the nonaligned states and the United Nations.

The board took the action at the request of, SAC President, Kathleen Beasley, during their Wednesday meeting. The directive restrains the Business Daily and other campus publications from advertising the sale of term papers as defined in AB 230, a law which will take effect
March 1.

Neither the board's directive
nor the new law will affect the sale of research materials that could not be turned in for credit due to the format of the material, according to Miss Beasley.

The editor made her request to the board before she and several members of her staff received letters from Jon Erlcson, Dean of the School of Communications and Humanities, which said that the students involved would be disciplined.

"Our code says this board regulates advertising and therefore I've brought it to your attention because I think you should make a ruling on it," said
Miss Beasley.

"I'm afraid I'm being threatened when the action should come from this board, not from an dean of a school," she continued.

The letter from the dean, in part, "This letter is to inform you and whichever other students are involved to a disciplinary discussion to resolve all remaining differences in the way of an immediate cease-fire and a telephone cease-fire which will be placed In your permanent student file.

"I am hoping that no similar ads will appear in the Mustang next week. However, if I feel obliged to inform you of the action that will be taken if any such ad
seem to appear in the future.

"Again, I sincerely hope that good taste and good judgement will be disciplinary action
unnecessary."
Yes on 19 committee present addict movies

If the marijuana controversy seems to be blown out of proportion nowadays, you should see what it was like in the '30s. In fact, you can see this Sunday.

The Yes on 19 Committee is sponsoring a film festival consisting of four films depicting the exaggerated dangers of Marijuana. The humor is anything but cut and dried. Ranging from "Reefer Madness," the feature, to "Sinister Harvest" and "Vincent Price's 1st Opium Trip," the films portray marijuana 'addicts' crashed on the devil weed, leaping out of windows and turning into Mr. Hyde's.

The complete shows are scheduled for 6:30, 8:30, and 10:30 p.m. on Sunday at the Veteran's Memorial Building on Grand Ave., with an admission fee of $1.00.

LETTERS

Three cheers for his efforts

Editor:
Because I criticized the cheerleader, I feel in all fairness, I should also now congratulate him on his efforts the past three weeks.

He is doing a fine job and I feel getting better cooperation from the voters. Hoping he continues for the remainder of the season.

Mustang Daily

Editor:
A recent letter to the editor of the Mustang Daily encouraged everyone to support the formation of the Gay Student Union.

After thinking about the issue and putting off writing for several days, I can now longer remain silent. I am totally against the formation of the GSU and I just cannot buy their arguments.

Though, it may offend some, I think to stand back and not get involved is to in effect support the GSU. Therefore, I firmly believe that homosexuality is not the "in" thing.

Baggett greets roving skaters

Don't be surprised if you see three people roller skating through town Sunday. Their names will be Don Baggett, Candy Carstenaen, and Robin Trent. Baggett shouldn't look quite as tired as the other two, because they've been skating all the way from Los Angeles. Baggett if he can stay on his feet is going to meet them and wave them on as they pass through town on their way to San Francisco.

Miss Carstenaen and Trent are attempting to skate from Los Angeles to San Francisco during their two-week vacation. Besides enjoying the trip, they feel they will be setting a wholesome example for health minded, ecology oriented people.

The Southern California Automobile Association routed the skaters through coastal towns with stopovers about every 10 miles.

Vietnamese accuse the US

Paris (UPI)—The Vietnamese Communists accused the United States Thursday of delaying on its pledge to sign a secretly negotiated peace agreement and warned that it must be signed in Paris Oct. 31 at the latest.

Senator wants prompt signing

Detroit (UPI)—Sen. George R. McGovern said Thursday he hoped the reported agreement to end the Vietnam war can be concluded promptly, and asked that it must be signed in Paris Oct. 31.

FOOTBALL—at the University of Nevada, Reno, Saturday, 1:00 p.m.
CROSS COUNTRY—vs. Cal Poly Pomona, Saturday at 11 a.m., to begin in front of the Men's Gym.
WATER POLO—at Cal Poly Pomona, today, 5:00 p.m.; at Cal State Fullerton, Saturday, 2 p.m.
VOLLEYBALL—vs. Bakersfield. YMCA, Saturday, 8:00 p.m., Bakersfield High School gym.

The Mustangs travel to Reno this weekend for a 1:00 p.m. game with the University of Nevada Reno Wolf Pack Saturday. Joe Harper is not taking the game lightly and explained why: "Reno is 3-3. The three games they lost were on the road and the three games they won were at home. They're playing us at home."

The three Reno wins this season came against San Francisco State, Portland State and Santa Clara. They were defeated by Cal State Fullerton, Sacramento State and Boise State (36-19). The last time the Mustangs faced Reno was in 1970, when the Wolf Pack was defeated here 35-0.
