Washington (UPI) — The United States announced Thursday that a Vietnam settlement has been signed "within a matter of weeks or less," ending the longest and one of the most devastating wars in American history.

While House adviser Henry A. Radio Hanoi Thursday broadcast the terms of a nine-point agreement it said had been reached between North Vietnam and the United States to end the Vietnam war.

Campaigns to reelect the independence, sovereignty, unity and territorial integrity of Vietnam as recognized by the 1954 Geneva agreements.

6. "Free and democratic" elections in South Vietnam within 45 days of the signing of a treaty.

7. A total of 1.5 million dollars for the reconstruction, rehabilitation of the economy of South Vietnam.

The board directed what type of advertising goes in the paper.

According to Santos, the newly elected Publisher's Board chairman, John Anderson, will talk to Dean Erlcson about the new directive when the term paper controversy is over.

Paul Simon, communications and arts representative, feels Erlcson has overstepped his authority. "Dean Erlcson has circumvented the authority of Publisher's Board," Santos said.

Ray Righetti from engineering and technology said: "It's a poor practice to continue something that will become illegal? He (Erlcson) is perfectly justified in what he has done. He is completely justified.

In a related action, SAC decided by voice vote to take no action on the new term paper resolution, which was introduced last week.

According to Righetti, the resolution was withdrawn because he feels it is too late for it to be effective.

In other business, SAC voted to reendorse Proposition 1, but voted to endorse Proposition 3 in the November ballot.

If the marijuana controversy seems to be blown out of proportion nowadays, you should see what it was like in the '30s. In fact, you can see this Sunday. The Yes on 19 Committee is sponsoring a film festival consisting of four films depicting the exaggerated dangers of Marijuana. The humor is anything but cut and dried. Ranging from "Reefer Madness," the feature, to "Sinister Harvest" and "Vincent Price's Trip Opium Trip," the films portray marijuana "addicts" in a totally false light. Editor: A recent letter to the editor of the Mustang Daily encouraged everyone to support the formation of the Gay Student Union. After thinking about the issue and putting off writing for several days, I can no longer remain silent. I am totally against the formation of the GSU and I just cannot buy their arguments. Though, it may offend some, I think to stand back and not get involved is in effect support the GBU. Therefore, I firmly believe that homosexuality is not the "in" thing thing.

Mustangs go to Reno

The Mustangs travel to Reno this weekend for a 1 p.m. game with the University of Nevada Reno Wolf Pack Saturday.

Joe Harper is not taking the game lightly and explained why: "Reno is 5-3. The three games they lost were on the road and the three games they won were at home. They're playing us at home."

The three Reno wins this season came against San Francisco State, Portland State and Santa Clara. They were defeated by Cal State Fullerton, Sacramento State and Boise State (3-3). The last time the Mustangs faced Reno was in 1970, when the Wolf Pack was defeated here 35-0.
