More lectures ready on life of Leonardo

"Molecular Expressionism, an Illustration of Artistic Imagination in Chemistry," will be the topic tonight of Dr. Delbert Verebrable II as part of the "Leonardo and His World" festival series.

Dr. Verebrable II, chemistry professor at Cal Poly, will lecture on the scientific side of 16th Century artist-scientist Leonardo de Vinci. The lecture will be held in the Men's Gym at 8:15 p.m.

A second series of lectures, Dr. Harry Fierstine, biology professor at Cal Poly, will lecture on "The Leonardo of Anatomist" on Thursday at 11 a.m. Dr. Fierstine willgisitulate a dissecting room of da Vinci's time and discuss problems related to dissection. The demonstration lecture will be held in Chumash Auditorium.

Also in the series, Dr. Gene Bruester, historian at the University of California at Berkeley, will lecture on "Leonardo the Mathematician" Friday at 6 p.m. in Chumash Auditorium. The public is invited to attend one or all of these lectures. Admission is free.

These three lectures are just part of the month-long festival. There are more lectures, films, and exhibits featuring the work of da Vinci. An exhibit of models of da Vinci inventions is available for public viewing until April 15 In Room U101.

Inventions are available for public viewing until April 15 In Room 503. Inventions includes a bit of models of da Vinci's 15th Century art tat-scientific and artistic. Five of these models are on exhibit in the University Union. See page 4 for more pictures of the Da Vinci exhibit.

Professional atheist to make campus debut

"Anyone who believes in Judeo-Christianity is a little weak," said self-admitted professional atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair to the St. Petersburg Independent.

Mrs. O'Hair, who has been called the "most hated women in the world," will speak in Chumash Auditorium April 5, at 8:00 p.m. She is being presented by the Speakers Forum. Admission will be 15 cents for students and $1.50 for the general public.

Founder and spokesman for the American Atheist movement, Mrs. O'Hair was first brought into the public spotlight in 1963 when she was given credit for the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing prayers and Bible reading in public schools. Since then she has filed five suits with the Supreme Court involving taxation of the Church's wealth.

According to Harvey Blatter, AEI accountant, before any reimbursements are complete, the groups must have signature cards signed by the elected officials and the ASI accountant, before any disbursement authorisations are processed, "the groups must have signature cards signed by the elected officials and serve as a supervisor of psychiatric social work projects."

Names first, then funds

Poly Royal is near and for those groups with incomplete or outdated signature cards, any reimbursement authorisations will not be processed.

According to Harvey Blatter, AEI accountant, before any reimbursement authorisations will be processed, "the groups must have signature cards signed by the elected officials and serve as a supervisor of psychiatric social work projects."

Before the reading of a Christmas prayer by the church Altar, it was demanded, that the Supreme Court prohibit the reading of prayers in space.

"I don't think anyone is going to have a good Christmas," said Blatter. "Those groups that have signature cards will be paid, but anyone that doesn't have a signature card will not be paid."

"Anybody's guess as to what next year's enrollment is going to be," said the loss of moneys from funds to help offset the shortfall. "We've had pretty good luck with moneys this quarter."

"There is a tendency to hope that more money will come in, but our income is almost nonexistent and on and on and on."

"We aren't going to change those menus to Coin-" Mr. O'Hair, who has been self-admitted professional atheist, which she supports by general Eisenhower's staff. Besides being a professional atheist, which she supports by entertaining social work projects.

The committee did not try to balance the budget by projecting more income than reasonable. "There is a tendency to hope that more money will come in, but our income is almost inexhaustible," said the committee.

"Pretty much" with Friesell's optimism pervaded the noon and evening meals, the food supervisor, noted that at noon and evening meals the financial situation was planned but never built by Leonardo da Vinci. The cannon, among many other Inventions of Leonardo, is on exhibit in the Union. See page 4 for more pictures of the Da Vinci exhibit.

The unexpected cost of morality

This case has cost the ASI several thousand dollars. That's not a bad price to pay for something that one wants badly enough. But to pay that much to hear a judge say, "Sorry, kids...better luck next time," is nothing short of ridiculous.

An appeal is the only to recoup any of the court and lawyer expenses. ASI lawyer Richard Carlsen estimates a successful appeal by the ASI will win only bring an accompanying judgment of $1,000 iur court costs and $3,000 for attorney's fees against the administration. If the case is not appealed, not only will the money not be returned, but the ASI will have to pay the administration court costs.

The American Civil Liberties Union was apparently willing to appeal the case on behalf of the gay students at no expense to the ASI but with no promises of retrieving any ASI money. ASU sided in favor of going to a higher court on its own with Chancellor's promise that the bill would be no higher than $800.

Carlsen says that the ASI has a "moral obligation" to pay extra costs of litigation. The attorney should know that morality is not a strong inducement where money matters are concerned. And there is always the question of how moral what the government calls "cost overrun" is.

ASI Business Director Roy Gerstman says that ASI authorized $900 for pursuing the case in June and then the Summer Interim Committee added $2,900 to the pot. Total: $3,800.

A check with Carlsen's secretary shows that ASI paid bills by October totalizing $2,900. Bills since then, that have not yet been presented, total $1,900. The ASI is authorized of more court costs to come. Total: approximately $4,000. That's over $1,000 spent without authorization.

One lesson that can be learned from the whole experience: going to court is a very expensive way of getting things done for everyone concerned—especially when the prize tag is not agreed upon in advance.

The decision to appeal the Gay Student Union Case was a good one.

There is little doubt that students may argue about the moral question of recognizing a Gay Student Union—Student Affairs Council meetings have dwelled on late into the night while they did just that.

Students may also question the legal basis for denying membership and composition should be expanded and Colleges Student Presidents' Association has endorsed part of the Joint Committee's proposed revisions. The Joint Committee has recommended that there be a Student Trustee, but in his recommendation the Committee has excluded the proviso. CRUCFP has asked that the recommendation be amended to include a full member of the board, which would make a vote.

William Johnson, Chairman of CRUCFP, delivered a presentation before the Joint Committee on March 16 to voice the student presidents' concern for student participation in governance. As a result, Mr. Edwards makes many excellent justifications for the existence of a Student Trustee, but in his recognition of the Committee's proposed revisions. The California State University and Colleges Student Presidents' Association has endorsed part of the Joint Committee's recommendation that the membership composition should be expanded to include a Student Representative on the Higher Education governing boards. The Joint Committee has recommended that there be a Student Trustee, but in his proposal the Committee has excluded the proviso. CRUCFP has asked that the recommendation be amended to include a full member of the board, which would make a vote.

The Student Trustee would be an open line of communication between the traditional trustee members and the student population. The institution would be administered more effectively if students were full partners in the governing process. If there ever was a conflict of interests on a particular issue, the student would recognize himself from participating on that issue, a practice that is uncommon to governing board policy.

The student perspective which would be provided by the Student Trustee is necessary to complement the existing input for a more robust and informed decision.

At the present time, ten states have full voting student members on their governing boards. Kentucky took the initiative in 1968, followed by Massachusetts, both enacting legislation to include students in governance (Continued on Page 2).

Stuart Little

The Stuart Little film is an adaptation of the beloved children's book by E.B. White. It tells the story of a young man named Stuart Little, a small mouse who leads a life similar to a young human. One day, his family takes him to New York City, where he meets a girl named Margalo. Together, they embark on a journey to find a new home for Margalo and return her to the nature she loves.

The film is a heartwarming tale of friendship, adventure, and the power of love. It features the voices of some of Hollywood's biggest stars, including Billy Crystal, Elizabeth Plu...
Soap box rules laid-out

Editor: This letter will hopefully clear some of the misinterpretations and rumors about the First Annual Poly 500 Soap Box Derby, to be held Saturday of Poly Royal.

There seems to be some question as to the course that will be used. The course that was first published, and that will be used, starts in front of Tenaya Hall on Grand Ave., runs towards the Union, turns left onto Outer Perimeter Road, and turns again at the finish line of the Graphic Arts Building.

It has come to my attention that several participants would like to have a pre-inspection inspection. For this reason, there will be a pre-inspection inspection and trial runs for those who wish to do so, on Sunday, April 18 at 1:30 p.m. in the Grand Ave. parking lot. In order to participate you must have your entry form and fee turned in by Friday, April 13 at 5 p.m.

If, for any reason, a participant wishes to withdraw from the derby, he may do so and have their entry fee refunded. To receive a refund, write a note stating why you are pulling out along with the entry receipt and the name and addresses that the refund should be sent to, and mail them to Russell Leach, care of Rally Club, Afl Box 39. Refund deadline is 5 p.m. Thursday April 26.

Poly 500 rules and regulations can be picked up at the Union Information Desk, Roundhouse Activities Planning Center and by mail at the above address.

Hope to see you all at the First Annual Poly 500 Soap Box Derby. Russell Leach

The Triple-Tier Machine Gun (above), designed by Leonardo da Vinci, is one of 27 mechanical models now on exhibit in the University Union. The gun has 19 barrels in each of three tiers. While one tier is being fired, another is cooling while the third is being reloaded.

The Printing Press (left) incorporated improvements in the Gutenberg press that were not used till the early 17th century. The rotating bridge (below left) was designed to connect an island stronghold with the mainland.

Leonardo da Vinci was a man of many talents. Besides being the engineer he was a courtier, poet, musician, anatomist, mathematician, architect, geologist, teacher and artist. Several reproductions of da Vinci's most famous works of art (below) are included in the exhibit.

The 27 mechanical models were provided by the International Business Machines Corporation. These models were constructed directly from da Vinci's drawings.

The exhibit will be open to the public everyday till April 18.
The popular jazz-rock sounds of Jon Mark and Johnny Almond will be highlighted on April 21 at 9 pm in the Man's Gym. The supporting act will be Mose Allison.

Tickets will be on sale April 18 at the University Union Information Desk, Brown's Music, King and Queen Stereo and all the Stereo West outlets.

Reserved seats will be $1.60 for students and $3.00 for non-students. General seating will be $1.00 for students and $2.00 for non-students. This Poly Royal show will be sponsored by the A.S.I. Concert Committee.

Istvan Nadas

A native Hungarian, Dr. Nadas has appeared all over the world performing concerts. He is a specialist of the keyboard music of Bach and Beethoven. The program will be Beethoven's 36th "Diabelli" Variations and Prokofiev's Sixth Piano Sonata.

Istvan Nadas will perform at Cal Poly on April 8 in the Cal Poly Theater. Ticket prices are $1.00 students and $2.00 public for the 9 pm show. This is being sponsored by the A.S.I. Fine Arts Committee as part of the Classical Series.

POTTERY III

Reception and announcement of honors: Tuesday, April 17, 5-10 p.m.

In compliance with the guidelines established by the Trustees of the California State University and Colleges, the following names, times and dates are those of contracted speakers, financed with ASI Funds, appearing at California Polytechnic State University.

Madalyn Murray O'Hair, April 6, 1973

Madalyn Murray O'Hair, American Atheist, is the person most often given credit for removing Bible—Prayer from the public schools of America, in a case which went before the United States Supreme Court in 1963. In ensuing years she has been brought to public attention many times as she fought to the United States Supreme Court the issue of taxation of the church, attempting to pass prayers in school, established Atheism as a religion and now has created an Atheist book publishing house.

Mrs. O'Hair, a fifty year old, graying grandmother, has a career behind her of Psychiatric Social Work, and as an attorney for the federal government. She also served as a commissioned officer in the European Theatre of War, Second World War, on Eisenhower's Staff. Her last several years have been spent as a seasoned lecturer, debater, on television, radio and on major college campuses. From Harvard Law School to U. C. L. A. she is in much demand. Many of her appearances have been at religious universities— including the famous St. John's University in Long Island, Southern Methodist University, the Jewish training centre of Loyola University in Chicago, to name a few.

Mrs. O'Hair's American Atheist Centre is in Austin, Texas, where she maintains such cordial relations with the community that she is a frequent guest speaker at St. Edwards University and the Rotary Club. Her program "American Atheist Radio Series" is aired weekly on K.T. B.C. radio, owned by the family of former President Lyndon Baines Johnson.

Mrs. O'Hair, author, attorney, lecturer, educator is a provocative and militant champion of her cause. She always demands a spirited questioning period from her audience. Come prepared to challenge her with your question.

To set the mood for the 32nd annual Home Concert, three groups from the Music Department will join for a performance during College Hour Thursday. The Men’s Glee Club, Women’s Béjart, and the Collegians will present a collection of folk and popular songs in the Cal Poly Theater at 11 a.m. A comical stunt will be performed by Keith Record followed by the Men’s Glee Club wrapping up the hour with old-time drinking songs from Yea and Dartmouth.

Closing the spring music season, Home Concert will take place at 8 p.m. April 13 in the Men’s Gymnasium. According to Harold P. Davidson, head of the Music Department and director of the Glee Clubs, Béjart and Majors and Minors, the Home Concert is virtually an all-campus activity because of the great number of students involved.

The Majors and Minors, Women’s Glee Club and the Men’s Quartet will add to the musical talent during the Home Concert. Tickets can be purchased at the College Union and from all performing members for $1.50 general admission and $1 for students.
Volleyball hosts Chico

by DENNIS CHRISTIE

The Mustang Volleyball Club hosts Chico State Thursday at 5 p.m. in the Men's Gym. The meeting will be the second of the year with Chico having won the first match.

The season record stands at 15-14 which is quite responsible for a first-year team, according to player-coach Mike Fitzsimmons. The Volleyball Club, as it is recognized by the AAI, is only in its infancy at this university, Fitzsimmons said. "The high point of this season was our fourth-place finish in the Santa Barbara YMCA Tournament."

There were ten teams entered in the tournament, among those was the UC Santa Barbara Volleyball Team which is always regarded as a national power. According to Fitzsimmons, the response to volleyball has been good even though "we are hurting in the publicity department."

The Club has about 30 to 36 active members, but only eight to nine actually participate in intercollegiate matches.

An indication of the growing response to volleyball is "that intramural volleyball has increased from 35 to over 100 students within the past two years," Fitzsimmons said. Besides the increase in participation, the club has raised $871 through a volleyball clinic, an international match, and proceeds from one match.

According to Fitzsimmons, the Athletic Department is financially geared for three major sports (football, basketball, wrestling) thereby leaving little or no money for the development of a volleyball team.

Fitzsimmons said a volleyball team funded through the athletic department would cost about $70,000 to $80,000 annually. "Being recognized as a club has helped us both financially and physically by limiting our practice times," said Fitzsimmons. They are allowed to use the gym only twice a week for two hours at a time.

why does a man join Maryknoll?

There are probably as many answers to this question as the number of individual members in the Maryknoll Society. Some are drawn to the society because of a genuine desire for human fellowship and companionship between the men and the poor across the world that have been involved in the work for many years even since their youth. The desire to travel in an organized way and the opportunity to serve people in need are also important factors.

If you keep saying you want to do something with your life — here's your chance to prove it!
