Riverdale Resident Selected Cal Poly Outstanding Student Employee of the Year

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly senior Michael James Brughelli was recently selected Cal Poly’s 2003-2004 Outstanding Student Employee of the Year for the quality and quantity of his work as well as for the positive impact he has on literally hundreds of employees.

Brughelli, who hails from Riverdale, oversees the Associated Students Inc. Recreational Sports’ sport club program, which operates much like a Division III athletics program. ASI has 17 teams, of which approximately 11 are ranked nationally, and three have earned national champion status.

As student manager of the collegiate sports program, Brughelli is responsible for coordinating, managing, supervising, scheduling and developing a program with more than 700 athletes, including its standards of care for safety and risk management.

“In addition to his responsibilities and achievements, Brughelli enjoys a great deal of respect from his co-workers,” said a member of the selection committee.

Brughelli, a senior majoring in agricultural business with a minor in wine and viticulture, was nominated by ASI Rec Sports staff members and unanimously selected from a pool of 37 nominees. He and all the nominees will be recognized at a campus reception April 15.

Brughelli’s nomination was forwarded to a regional competition sponsored by the Western Association of Student Employment Administrators. The winners of the regional and national competitions will be announced during National Student Employment Week, April 11-17.
