Nadas' recital began
7'4 Mozart Festival

by CATHERY CARRIER

The lights dim and a hush goes over the crowd. The stage is lighted to allow a one-piece piano standing regally before a dark green curtain. A man, dressed in a black suit, white shirt and bow tie, appears from the side of the stage and the audience begins to clap. He walks to the piano and takes a quick bow at the piano bench and begins to play.

So began the 1974 San Luis Obispo Mozart Festival, Wednesday, July 31 in the Cal Poly Theatre.

Ivan Nadas' piano recital made Mozart's Fantasia in C minor, Sonata in B-flat major, and Bach's Aria with sumber variations, come alive.

During the recital's two hours Nadas became one with his music. He felt every note and every piano key become a part of his soul.

Chemistry grant awarded

The Chancellor's Task Force on Innovation with over 160 students to use their mental in the summer program was initiated last year.

The committee July 31 also approved a new campus club, the Filipino Student Organization that had been approved last quarter by the Student Affairs Council.

The action had not been recorded in the minutes of the S.A.C. meeting last Thursday, August 8, 1974.

The committee must also decide how profits from the card sales will be available to students in fall for participating merchants and S.A.I.

Card discounts sold in fall

The cards are valid through the school year. Fowler said that last year approximately 70 local merchants offered their services and discounts to students.

All merchants will keep 40 percent of the proceeds and students will receive the remaining 60 percent.

In other discussion, S.A.I. Vice President Mike Hurstvedt recommended to the committee that the S.A.I. Codes and Bylaws be revised. The present codes and bylaws, he said, are vague and not specific and haven't been revised since 1966.

Defaul ted loans hurt
defenseless students

Senator John Tunney recently introduced a bill that would protect students from being stuck with federally insured student loan programs when their schools close.

Tunney said, "Under present circumstances, when an institution closes its doors, the student is left holding the bag for the unused part of the loan. The second portion of Tunney's bill would cover institutions that have closed down. It would direct the Secretary to forgive the federal loans that were defaulted to the institution in the reaction of the legislation.

According to Tunney, the federal government has been held responsible for over 116,000 defaulted student loans which amounted to $100,5 million of taxpayers money. California alone had 88,000 defaulted loans paid by the government amounting to $79.8 million.

Tunney said, "Only a percentage of these defaults were the result of the institution closing. However, one such instance is too many and neither the student nor the federal government should be forced to clean up after an educational institution that has shirked its responsibility of educating. Too many students are being blinded duped into attending new vocational and proprietary institutions by misleading sales tactics and other abuses.

Here's a headache aspirin won't scare away.

It'll take more than two aspirin to cure the one as a matter of fact, it'll take a lot of time and a lot of money. Headaches like these can be avoided through proper maintenance carried out by qualified mechanics. It's a good idea to have your Volkswagen serviced on a regular basis. Oil changes, tune-ups, minor repairs all make life a little easier. The mechanics at the Bug Werks are good at finding little problems before they become "headaches." Bring your bug to the Bug Werks for their famous "fixed-it." It costs a bit, and will save you money in the long run. At the corner of Marsh and Santa Rosa.
