Our readers write...

Trudeau and God

Editor:

In response to Wednesdays’s “Morality of Trudeau”, I happen to belong to that small, but extremely vocal, group of Americans... better known as Christians. Your quarrel on premarital sex is not with us, but with God Himself. You snub twice that we forced our own beliefs on others, we don’t have to force any beliefs on you or anybody, because you already have them. It’s called your conscience and furthermore it was given to you by God. The Bible describes your conscience as your heart. In Hebrews 8:10 it states that you or anybody, because you already have twice that we (arced our own beliefs on conscience, no matter how small it may be, God has written His law on everyone’s called your conscience and Himself speaking to you. If just for a wrong you know it because that small voice they have one and what is written on it is furthermore it was given to you by God. The laws of God. When you do something find that peace and love you have always been looking for, but never could find.

The issues of premarital sex, drugs, alcohol, etc. are only smoke screens hiding a persons inward rebellion against God and His laws. I know, I was once there myself. Until I listened to that voice and it was only smoke screens hiding the shallow concept that many people been searching for. That love really is.

The large number of students who drive by, my deepest apologies. Apologies for even suggesting you take lime out to another person, a student in a full leg cast and on crutches? To those of you who turn your heads and drive by, by my deepest apologies. Apologies for even suggesting you take time out to help another person. Upon graduation from Cal Poly you will have learned nothing.

I would like to thank each of you who you keep the proper distance from the student. If you leave Graue Wilt, Mountaun.ing. I could understand this not being mugged or raped, but really campers, a student in a full leg cast and on crutches? To those of you who turn your heads and drive by, drive by, my deepest apologies. Apologies for even suggesting you take lime out to another person, a student in a full leg cast and on crutches? To those of you who turn your heads and drive by, by my deepest apologies. Apologies for even suggesting you take time out to help another person. Upon graduation from Cal Poly you will have learned nothing.

I would like to thank each of you who you keep the proper distance from the student. If you leave Graue Wilt, Mountaun.ing.
Poly to expand oil storage by MERRILL McCARTY

Daily News Writer

With summer approaches drop¬ ing and energy consump¬ tion rising, Cal Poly has made a major step toward combating dwindling oil resources. C.I. Poly has the Me Alpine Conamiction natural gas fuel suppliea.

The university decided to take this type of service about 20 years ago," said Phillips, because the cost is much lower. Now we’re stuck with residential consumers are classified high priority users,

"And, according to Phillips, by 1989 there may be no natural gas available at Phillips estimates that 90-000 gallons of fuel oil will last from 15 to 20 days.
The fuel oil is trucked in from Bakersfield. Phillips said that Cal Poly has never had a minor construction and never relocated by the university for construction or improve¬ ment projects not costing more than $10,000, accord¬ ing to Doug Gerard, ex-necutive dean of Facilities Planning.

The fuel oil is used as a substitute by the university for natural gas, when supplies of natural gas are available. The fuel oil is used in boilers, which provide heat and air conditioning in certain buildings, including the dorms.

According to Phillips, Cal Poly has inexhaustible service, which means that during peak usage periods, such as extreme cold, natural gas service is cut off from Cal Poly to allow higher priority consumers to be supplied.

"The university decided to
take this type of service about 20 years ago," said Phillips,
because the cost is much lower. Now we’re stuck with

residential consumers are
classified high priority users,
"And, according to
Phillips, by 1989 there may be no natural gas available at Phillips estimates that 90-000 gallons of fuel oil will last from 15 to 20 days.
The fuel oil is trucked in
from Bakersfield. Phillips
said that Cal Poly has never
had a minor construction
and never relocated by the university for construction or improve¬ ment projects not costing
more than $10,000, accord¬ ing to Doug Gerard, ex-necutive dean of Facilities
Planning.

The fuel oil is used as a substitute by the university
for natural gas, when supplies of natural gas are available. The fuel oil is used in boilers, which provide
heat and air conditioning in certain buildings, including the dorms.

According to Phillips, Cal Poly has inexhaustible service, which means that
during peak usage periods, such as extreme cold, natural gas service is cut off from Cal Poly to allow higher priority
consumers to be supplied.

"The university decided to take this type of service about 20 years ago," said Phillips,
because the cost is much lower. Now we’re stuck with

residential consumers are
classified high priority users,
"And, according to
Phillips, by 1989 there may be no natural gas available at Phillips estimates that 90-000 gallons of fuel oil will last from 15 to 20 days.
The fuel oil is trucked in
from Bakersfield. Phillips
said that Cal Poly has never
had a minor construction
and never relocated by the university for construction or improve¬ ment projects not costing
more than $10,000, accord¬

...
Instant funds: Just follow all the bouncing Poly checks

by FRANCES C. JENSEN
Daily Staff Writer

Your quarterly bank statement reads, "$25.25." It is Friday, your gas tank needs filling, it's your mother's birthday and you need a haircut.

The only quick solution to your money worries, of course, is to cash a check—and wait until Monday to worry about how you go-de to cover it.

Cal Poly students have a habit—a bad check-writing
habit—a bad check-writing year. It seems that when students write checks in San Luis Obispo every year. It seems that when Monday rolls around, the check that was written on Friday is as long forgotten as the money spent.

"The favorite trick of the Cal Poly student is to hit the clothing stores, write checks and split," Bryan DuVall, Mid-State Bank manager said. "The way to catch them depends on how much they overdraw, and upon the cooperation the bank gives the merchants in giving any forwarding addresses."

Merchants who are victimised by bad check cashers, DuVall said, usually take case to the police department and demand correction. It is the policy of the police department, however, to wait until the checks amount to $100 or more before trying to collect.
"Once the amount exceeds $100, the bad check writer has committed a felony.
"There would be a higher collect this bad deed." DuVall said. "If merchants would report the checks, make phone calls and actually go out and talk with the bad check writer. Instead they leave it up to the police department. They want the best of both worlds."

Once the checks amount to over $100, the police department sends out a for-nal letter explaining that if the debt is not paid there will be a warrant out for arrest.
If the letter is not returned the bad check writer has committed a felony.

"There is no background check writing, a person might just get one year in prison for every count, every check writer is stiff—especially if a person already had a record. If found guilty of cashing bad checks, a person must also make good the penalty sentence is handed out, the arrest is made.

Handwriting experts study the bad check signature and determine whether or not it matches with the suspects handwriting," he said.

Punishment for cashing bad checks is stiff—especially if a person already had a record. If found guilty of cashing bad checks, a person must also make good the
penalty sentence is handed
out, the arrest is made.
Handwriting experts study
the bad check signature and
determine whether or not it
matches with the suspects
handwriting," he said.

If signatures are inconsistant, then we contact the person the checks were reportedly stolen from and have them fill out affidavits of forgery.
They must take a handwriting test so we can make sure they weren't the ones writing the bad checks," Barba said.

"When we get a suspect, photographs are taken to him and shown to the merchants who had the unfortunate luck of accepting the bad check. If that checks collides, is arrested. Handwriting experts study the bad check signature and
determine whether or not it
matches with the suspects
handwriting," he said.

Funds denied for new library by BETSEY LOVELAND

Daily Staff Writer

Cal Poly students will just have to make do with the overcrowded conditions at the library for the time being.

Anticipated federal funds which would have been used for the construction of a $11 million, five-story library structure, were not received by Cal Poly, according to Douglas Gerard, executive dean of facilities planning.

The funds were earmarked for selected building projects as part of a $3.7 billion federal trust fund to alleviate unemployment problems throughout the country.

Cal Poly submitted an application for $11 million of the funds to build a new library. Notice that the funds had been denied to Cal Poly was received last week.

The unemployment stipulation in the federal bill was what ruined Poly's chances for the funds, according to Gerard.

Unemployment in San Luis Obispo County is out of the lowest in the state. This county reported a 6.5 percent unemployment rate, compared to 10 percent in most other parts of the state, explained Gerard.

"The funds were supposed to be available only for projects that would cost less than $5 million," Gerard said.
"We tried to get a special waiver for our project, but it was denied."

The final decision on what projects would be funded in the western United States was made by the Employment Development Office of the Department of Commerce, according to Gerard.

Gerard said he had not yet been informed which

The Original Hofbrau Oktoberfest Beer has arrived in the United States

- A home brew from - Each Year at harvest time, Bavaria comes alive with the spirit of the Oktoberfest. Long tradition, this dazzling fourteen day long festival honored the marriage of a Crown Prince.

Today, it is the annual celebration that draws crowds of happy people from all over the world.

Oktoberfest beer, set aside the previous March to mellow and mature, reaches its distinctive flavor in October. Should you not be in the Oktoberfest, the largest beer festival in the world, celebrate it in your own home with Hofbrau.

HOFBRUA
Oktoberfest Beer

It is, especially brewed by the Hofbrau Bavaria comes alive with the spirit of the Oktoberfest. Long tradition, this dazzling fourteen day long festival honored the marriage of a Crown Prince.

Today, it is the annual celebration that draws crowds of happy people from all over the world.

Oktoberfest beer, set aside the previous
March to mellow and mature, reaches its distinctive flavor in October. Should you not be in the Oktoberfest, the largest beer festival in the world, celebrate it in your own home with Hofbrau.
USC guest will speak on pollution

The devastating effects air pollution has on human health will be the subject of a talk to be given at the Cal Arts Theatre on Friday, at 4:10 p.m. Dr. Samuel F. Barvies, Hastings Professor of Physiology at the University of Southern California School of Medicine, will be the guest speaker.

Dr. Barvies is here for the 10th Measurement Science Conference. He will present information on the reactions of microorganisms to human emissions in the conference.

Dr. Barvies will show photographic evidence of the damage air pollution can cause to lungs in his talk "Measuring the Microbiology of Lungs." The presentation will include special time-lapse motion pictures.

Conference members will be among the audience. Students are also invited to attend.

Library hours

Beginning Friday the library will be open additional hours. The lobby, duplication room, reserve book room Rm. 101 and Rm. 314A will be open until 10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. On Sunday day will be open at 10 a.m. and will remain open until mid-morning. From Monday through Thursday day will remain open until midnight.

CONTINENTAL'S TAKE OFF AND PUT ON.

We take off 28% and put on lots of extras everywhere we fly.

Whenever you take off on Continental, we'll take off 28% from the cost of a regular round-trip Coach ticket to all our mainland cities with our Economy Excursion Fare. It's a great way to keep your money in your pocket. Then sit back and watch Continental put on a show.

We've put the Pub on our wide-bodied DC-10's, with electronic Pub Pong games and free popcorn. Plus exclusive specially condensed double feature films, old-time newsreels and your favorite animated cartoons. You can also put on the feedbag for only a dollar with our Good Times Snacks.

On our spacious, wide-body 227's you can put on your headset and enjoy the free stereo entertainment. There's overhead storage plus a middle seat in Coach and Economy that folds down when unoccupied so you can relax or spread out the books.

Call Continental or your Travel Agent and ask for our 28% Economy Excursion Fare.

Bob Ansari 5'10" 170 lb. QB

Bob threw 2 touchdown passes in Cal Poly's 34-10 Thanksgiving Day victory.

Bob completed 10 of 15 passes for 167 yds and 2 touchdowns in Cal Poly's 34-10 victory over Sac. State on Thanksgiving day. Ansari completed 67 of 117 passes for a season total of 1014 yards.
How to spend 54 happy holiday hours

by FRANCES C. JENSEN
Daily Staff Writer

This is the weekend to adjust your bindings, buy new sunglasses, host some small parties and bug out your old knapsack. Starting next weekend you want to be prepared for your long awaited trip to Aspen, don't you? Park City? Not even China Peak or Holiday Hill. Well, if you're going to be in San Luis Obispo for Christmas, which isn't too bad when everybody goes back home then you might as well get in the spirit by joining in some of the activities that are taking place around here.

CHRISTMAS CAROLING: Everyone is invited to get into the Christmas spirit at a free Christmas caroling party and sing-along at Cal Poly Chumash Auditorium, Saturday Dec. 12 at 7 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the Cal Poly Men's and Women's Glee Clubs. The World Famous Majors and Minors, the Women's Sextets and others. Everyone is invited to sing along and children are most welcome.

THE MESSIAH: "The old holiday favorite, Handel's "Messiah" will be presented in two performances on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 4 and 5 at the First Baptist Church in San Luis Obispo. The 8 p.m. Sunday performance and the 4 p.m. Sunday performance will be open to the public without any charge. (075 Johnson Ave.)

"NUTCRACKER SUITE": Christmas is filled with tradition and Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite" is engrained in most people's minds as being one of the greatest. The Santa Barbara Ballet will give two performances in the Granada College auditorium on Saturday, Dec. 4. Tickets for the 2 p.m. matinee are $3 general, $2.50 students, and $1.25 for children. The 7 p.m. show prices are students, $2.50 general admission, $3.50 students and children. Advance tickets are sold by the college community service office, 544-3475. Professor Brown's Music store also have tickets available.

CHRISTMAS CRAFT SALE AND CELEBRATION: Don't be dumb. Buy some of your Christmas gifts before you go home. The Craft Center in the UU has leather, pottery, graphics, macrame and a lot of other people-made items for sale from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

MISSION PLAZA CHRISTMAS: Music, dancing, food and Christmas gifts aplenty this Saturday and Sunday in the Mission Plaza. Folk dancing, caroling, judo, tumbling and real life bag jumpers are on hand to entertain you while you browse through craft booths. It's going to be a full two days, so go on down anytime and browse around.

INDOOR PLANTS

10% OFF WITH THIS AD

Enjoy Christmas this year by giving a living gift.

We also carry: Baskets, Pottery, Jewelry, Macramés, Macrame supplies and plant stands.

COASTAL POOL CENTER
265 "A" Pacific St. SLO 543-9308
Wrestlers to begin lengthy road trip in Arizona today

After edging powerful Arizona State in wrestling the University of California at Santa Barbara Tournament, it is apparent that the Cal Poly wrestling team has the ammunition, as well as the bit «una, to shoot down all competition this weekend at the 20-team University of Arizona Tournament in Tucson.

The Mustangs will be gun­ning for the team championship against each wrestling power at the University of Oklahoma, University of Minnesota, Oregon State University, Brigham Young University, and their most recent, archrivals—the Sun Devils of Arizona State.

Cal Poly will attempt to win their second championship of the young season with the starting line-up of Jack Graham, Tom Moore, or Roger Flook, Benjie Williams, Glen Cooper or Ron McKinney, Steve Hitchcock, Robert Edby, Jim Weakick, Terry Markoff, Chris Anaya and Dan Hayes.

Placing all of its ten wrestlers the final, the Cal Poly grapplers won the UCSB Tournament on Nov. 10 with 186 points. They were followed closely by the ASU Sun Devils with 186 points, the San Jose State University Spartans, who gained third place with 58 points, and the hapless host Gauchos who managed only 54 points.

Following their upcoming tournaments this weekend at the University of Arizona, the Mustang wrestlers will travel to Lehigh University on Dec. 10 and 11. Their difficult road trip will continue as they face a number of east coast wrestling powers on successive nights from Dec. 12-17.

Their upcoming road trip will be the “toughest in Cal Poly wrestling history”, offered a wary, yet optimistic coach Vaughan Hitchcock. “They’re all capable of beating us, but we’re also capable of beating them.”

Now In Morro Bay!!
Family Style Basque Dinners

Above dinner served: Sun, Thur thru Sat. 5 PM to 9 PM

Beautiful Atmosphere and Classical Spanish Guitar background music

For those Diners Wishing To Dine Early we are offering the following menu

SERVED: Mon, Thur Sat 5 PM to 9 PM

Sundays 12 noon to 9 PM

Soup Tossed Green Salad — Choice of dressing Bouquet Cooked Peas
Whipped Potatoes
Sourdough Bread

Entries:
Breasted Chicken $3.90
Deep Fried Cod 2.90
Roast Leg of Spring Lamb 4.00
Sherbet Coffee

The Basque Chalet
1616 Main St. — Morro Bay (one block South of Atascadero Main Street Junction)

For Reservations Call 772-2910 Your Hosts: Dan and Betty Cooper

Student banking problems are different.
Their bankers should be, too.

That’s why Bank of America has Student Representatives close by at offices near major college campuses in California. They’re always students or recent graduates themselves. So they know all about student banking problems. And how to solve them.

Depend on us. More California college students do.

At CS Polytechnic College San Luis Obispo just ask to see Lanelle Piccinati University Square Branch 972 Foothill Boulevard - 544-0600 When you've got only 2 tickets to the big game and you forgot that you asked Cheryl, Lori, Tracy, Kelly, Sabrina and Trisha, but they didn't.....it's no time to get filled up.

Lite Beer from Miller.
Everything you always wanted in a beer. And less.