Week of Welcome Orientation Program Begins Tuesday, Sept. 15 at Cal Poly

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly will welcome thousands of new students to the university and the San Luis Obispo community during Week of Welcome, Sept. 15-19.

WOW helps students make connections with peers, faculty and staff, student clubs and SLO businesses to ease the transition to college life. About 4,200 new students will take part this year.

Additionally, the orientation program informs new students about issues they may face during their college years and healthy ways to address them.

WOW participants can look forward to various activities including a trip to downtown San Luis Obispo called SLO Bound, a day dedicated to academics, awareness sessions on issues relevant to college life, multiple days of community service, and respect workshops.

For more information, visit http://orientation.calpoly.edu/wow, send e-mail to wow@calpoly.edu or call Jason Mockford at 805-756-2477.

###