Cal Poly Business Students Hosting Career Conference, Job Fair This Weekend

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- Students from Cal Poly's Orfalea College of Business are putting on the 15th International Career Conference Saturday (Feb. 20) at the Embassy Suites Hotel in San Luis Obispo.

Professionals from fields including wine, marketing, finance and technology will lead workshop sessions. Firms including Rabobank, Clever Ducks, Ernie Ball, Northrop-Grumman, Target and more will participate. The conference runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and registration is $4 for students and $5 for the general public. For details visit the event web site at http://www.icc.calpoly.edu.

Keynote speaker for the event will be Amith Nagarajan, co-founder of Aptify software company and a Cal Poly grad with a degree in business administration. Prior to founding Aptify Corporation, Nagarajan worked in the R&D laboratories at Hewlett-Packard in Palo Alto.
