The art of making things crystal clear

The workshop looks like a scene from the "Glass Mountains".

Cyclical unicorn dances on a black velvet field and ghosts in the air while transparent steps with white-eyeed and the delicate shapes of a chain after sculpted crystals flash their sculptural elegance.

For Ron Bource, founder of Lecain glassworks in San Luis Copa, his glass business is a fragile relationship between business and lifestyle.

"We're doing what we want to do, and it's incredible to be now for we've came," said Bource from his workshop, beautifully turning a glowing red of molten glass.

"We're now working on over 130 designs and selling them all along the coast. And we're coming up with new ideas all the time," he said.

Bource, 35, started glassblowing while a student at Cal Poly.
After transferring to Cal Poly, he went on to work in a plant that furnished him with the means to turn his glassblowing hobby into a business.

"I've always wanted to make things more important than myself," he said. "That's why we're here. That's why we're fortunate to be a professional business that displays people on their faces for various styles.

Story and photos
by Dennis Steers

"The business has really come together in the last few months. It's mainly just a lot of experience and the ability to approach it and work with people.

"Really manipulating the glass into a desired shape. Bource recounts a time when a customer asked him to create a memento of a friend's death and he put up a small dimensional organization in Illinois.

"The glazing business is a means of working with design—this is the most fun. You can do what you're trying to do on the glass without being=" he explained.

Bource credits education with making this dream a near reality. He said it taught him to systematic and control his business.

"Technology teaches you ways to organize people, and a glass business is no different. If you can organize and can do anything you have the tools," he said.

These organizational skills have greatly spread up the development of the business, the artist maintains.

"I've had a lot of fun in the past few months. I've had a good time. I've been doing a lot of new things and I've come up with some ideas that I didn't think were going to work. But I've come up with some things that are really good," he said.

Bource is currently working on several commissions for various organizations. He said he's also been studying some new ideas that could possibly be work on wall chimes and Christmas ornaments. He said the idea of starting a line of novelties for San Luis Copa.

"I'm in my travels probably are a result of my interest in nature, I've a pet-ool major at Cal Poly," he said.

Aligning some delicate figurines on a display table, Bource explained that people respond to peaceful, natural designs. "I know I do."
Tips fight dullness

This book will contain everything you did and didn't want to know about solitaire. Here's a few for starters:

- Watch TV.
- Try to name all 50 states in 10 seconds.
- Think up pat names for your irish setter.
- Have a TV, try watching.
- Watch TV.
- Hope for change under the sofa cushions.
- Make an obscene phone call to Dial-A-Freud.
- Watch TV.
- Wall, this is only a partial list. You might even want to do something strange like reading a (old) book (la possible. You must begin to rely on yourselves for entertainment.

Author: Cheek Dunbar is a senior journalism major.

Entertainers in ads snagged by FTC

Coming out for wholesomeness last week, Dr. Bob became the first person ever to market himself as an all-purpose parent. The advertising for the product, designed by the FTC's Consumer Protection Bureau, called Dr. Bob's action a step forward in combating efforts to regulate deceptive advertising.

Due to the FTC's uncovering of a deceptive advertising campaign, the bureau has launched an investigation to determine whether certain advertisers are using false or misleading advertising to promote their products. The bureau has also issued a warning to advertisers that they may be violating federal law if they fail to comply with advertising regulations.

The FTC's action and Kramer's commitment, said Has, "are a step forward in combating efforts to regulate deceptive advertising. It is not enough for advertisers to make false claims about their products. They must also be truthful and accurate in their advertising."}

Author: Kathy Mckauley is a journalism major.

Loneliness stemmed by outlets

I'm organized, in general, it's not chaos. Al and I, we've been married for 10 years, it's not chaos. We have a very organized day-to-day life. We have a daily routine, we have a weekly routine, we have a monthly routine. We have a yearly routine. We have a lifetime routine. We have a death routine. We have a heaven routine. We have a hell routine. We have a purgatory routine. We have a purgatory routine.

I'm organized, in general, it's not chaos. Al and I, we've been married for 10 years, it's not chaos. We have a very organized day-to-day life. We have a daily routine, we have a weekly routine, we have a monthly routine. We have a yearly routine. We have a lifetime routine. We have a death routine. We have a heaven routine. We have a hell routine. We have a purgatory routine. We have a purgatory routine.

I'm organized, in general, it's not chaos. Al and I, we've been married for 10 years, it's not chaos. We have a very organized day-to-day life. We have a daily routine, we have a weekly routine, we have a monthly routine. We have a yearly routine. We have a lifetime routine. We have a death routine. We have a heaven routine. We have a hell routine. We have a purgatory routine. We have a purgatory routine.

I'm organized, in general, it's not chaos. Al and I, we've been married for 10 years, it's not chaos. We have a very organized day-to-day life. We have a daily routine, we have a weekly routine, we have a monthly routine. We have a yearly routine. We have a lifetime routine. We have a death routine. We have a heaven routine. We have a hell routine. We have a purgatory routine. We have a purgatory routine.

I'm organized, in general, it's not chaos. Al and I, we've been married for 10 years, it's not chaos. We have a very organized day-to-day life. We have a daily routine, we have a weekly routine, we have a monthly routine. We have a yearly routine. We have a lifetime routine. We have a death routine. We have a heaven routine. We have a hell routine. We have a purgatory routine. We have a purgatory routine.
Finishing touches for senior projects

by MICHAEL O'KEEFE
Daily News Writer

Even when senior project presentations and papers are complete, there is still the matter of getting copies made and putting the project together. Copies of senior projects and papers can usually be obtained in San Luis Obispo.

At this time of year, most copy shops are open late and some even on weekends. A new shop, called Print Rite, has opened on Main Street.

Copy shops can often provide a variety of color copies, as well as black and white copies. The shops can also offer other printing services, such as binding and mailing.

Student fees are lobby priority

by LAURA CHRISTMAN
Daily News Writer

Cal Poly has an account that may not be running red, but it is receiving criticism for its transparency. The Cal Poly student account is funded by a percentage of student fees, which are used for various projects.

Blood account works on credit

by LAURA CHRISTMAN
Daily News Writer

Blood accounts are important for students looking to donate blood. The Blood Account is a system that allows students to donate blood and obtain points that can be used for tuition and other expenses.

Blood donation is a critical service for the community, and the Blood Account helps encourage students to donate.

Campus polls available

by LAURA CHRISTMAN
Daily News Writer

Cal Poly students may vote on campus in the June 5 primary election, because of a last-minute decision by the San Luis Obispo County Department of Elections.

The decision will have an estimated 1,000 registered student voters who are eligible to vote in the election.
Creamery processes milk and more

By MARIAN FLANDRICK

Creamery processes milk and more. Cow: "Our liddad baaatti..."

Super students, super loads

By MARIAN FLANDRICK

Super students, super loads. Cow: "...in their academic lives."

MOONLIGHT SALE
STARTS 7 P.M. THURSDAY
EVE 9 P.M., THURS. NITE

Rack after rack of men's pants and shirts, women's skirts, sweaters, tops, blouses, vests, belts, socks, jewelry and other items. There are values of up to $30.00 now at these prices:

$1 RACK
$2 RACK
$3 RACK
$4 RACK
$5 RACK
$6 RACK

Special Group
LADIES' SHOES
SAVE UP TO 30% OFF
$14 85

Copeland's
CLOTHES
MADDONNA ROAD, PASCO

The San Francisco Chronicle

"Confronts the homosexual stereotype and then destroys it..."

GAY

The polysexual attnioin of the gay activity is the most widespread and most significant movement of the gay liberation movement.

Cali Poly Gay Students Union

"...to the point, proud without conceit, and above all deeply emotive..."
Body of Chaplin recovered

LONDON, Switzerland (AP)—The body of Charlie Chaplin, stolen from his grave 10 days ago in a burglary that frightened international movie stars, was found Wednesday in a shallow hole in a纠正村 near Zeebrugge and the two stolen gravy robbers were arrested. A few feet away, a police station where they allegedly sold the Chaplin family money demanding a ransom for the return of the remains of the silent screen star.

Billie Burke, ex-wife of Chaplin, said she was notified of his death Wednesday. Saturday was not described as political life.

Burke's daughter, actress, is now at the center of the national scene as an anti-war demonstrator. His "arme in the afternoon" last Friday.

The police said they had determined that he is withdrawing as a candidate for the U.S. Senate seat in the new wave of straightpinned as a governor.

A new government Wednesday, Wallace, being released and fit with a newly elected gun, said his administration was on the rise. But it is not on the rise. He has a little light on the record on the police.

Former head pleads no contest

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former Columbia Pictures president David Begelman pleaded no contest Wednesday to two counts of larceny and was sentenced to a year in jail.

The plea was the result of a 10-year-old investigation that involved mail theft and fraud.

Social Security rollback stiffs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee reversed its position Tuesday and held on in a last-ditch effort to kill Social Security benefits for the elderly.

The committee voted to roll back Social Security benefits for the elderly.

The new law would affect 400,000 Social Security beneficiaries and their employers.

I have decided that I shall live in a quiet. In the 5th year ending Oct. 31, and December, said Rep. Al Ullman, D-Ohio, chairman of the committee, and the results of the 1970 election will be a mandate from the House Democratic Caucus.

Ullman said he had cast the 54th vote last week when the changes were made for a Social Security tax. Ullman was in the majority and, as a result, would have ended up in the majority.

The Social Security tax and the 50 cent tax on Social Security benefits were rejected by the committee.

Decoy officer kills suspect

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A police officer in a decoy operation shot and killed a robbery suspect yesterday at the San Francisco Presidio, police said.

The suspect was identified by the officer who shot him as Peter Foster, 16, of South San Francisco, police said.

The officer's name was not released. The suspect's name was not released.

The officer's name was not released. The suspect's name was not released. The suspect's name was not released. The suspect's name was not released. The suspect's name was not released.
The weight room sags under pressure

By JAY ALLING

Special to The Daily

With building use and weightlifting maintenance, Cal Poly's weight room is in a constant state of renovation, agreed two physical education professors, Dr. Jim Bailey, head of the Physical Education Department, and Dr. Vincent Buccola, director of physical education. Dr. Bailey recently commented that the weight room is almost one-third the size needed to accommodate Cal Poly students. Buccola said that the weightlifting facility, moved to the present location in the gymnasium, was originally designed to meet the needs of about six thousand persons.

Currently, as many weight lifting classes as possible are offered, while still leaving time for the facility to be used by others, said Bailey. Also, he said that even when weight lifting classes are in progress, it is used as much as possible as a gymnasium for team workouts.

Muscle imbalances and other problems with the weight room, both in the Gal Poly and Buccola. Bailey notes that the department has faced increased use of the facility.

OVERCROWDED—As people wait around to use the equipment in the Cal Poly weight room, the signs of over-population are evident. (Photo by Vince Beal)

The Mustangs look forward to '79

The women's softball team ended its season with less.

Galileo Goldfish Aquarium
Central SCENIC COAST PET SHOP
1716 Main
(just North of Anderson Road)
OPEN DAILY

then a hang when the U.C.L.A. Bruins cancelled the Mustangs' final game. The game was set for Saturday May 15, but the Bruins unable to make it.

The Mustangs finished their season with a record of 14 and look fourth place in the Western Association for Intermediate Athlete for women's regional tournament held in El Monte and around the country on May 4.

The Mustangs record a total of 114 runs during the season to their opponent's 82. Their overall batting average was .459 and they batted .407.

With six freshmen on the team, Coach Val Pilce is hoping for an even better next year. There were many top performers for the Mustangs such as Lynne Vorsaw and Peru Olive. Their performances were accepted in the WAAW regional all-conference team.

Big sticks for the Mustangs this year were:

Yoshua who batted .394, 18th and Rose Ponore, .389.

Both Mustang pitchers did an excellent job. Using several different methods, they managed to pitch 75 to 80 batters and walked only 8. Larry Rief had an ERA of .180 and a 4-4 record. Sheila Langrook, in her first year on the team, finished with an ERA of 3.9. A 4-3 ERA.

Next year looks good for the Mustangs and coach Val Pilce.

Hart to try for comeback

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP)—Cal Poly's Jim Hart, who helped the Poly team win the Western Athletic Conference title, is hoping to have the team ready for the Poly team as soon as possible. Hart was disqualified from the event in the Poly team's second meet of the season after finishing third in the 100-yard dash.

Hart, who led the team in the 100-yard dash, is hoping to have the team ready for the Poly team as soon as possible. Hart was disqualified from the event in the Poly team's second meet of the season after finishing third in the 100-yard dash.

CAL-WEST PHOTOGRAPHY
WAREHOUSE

1827 ARCHER ST.
SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIFORNIA 93401
(805) 541-0600

Demo Day
May 20, 1978 8:30-5:30

Vivitar Lenses.
They get into your system.

Space-Age computer design programs furnish the optical formulas that make these automatic lenses operate simply. Feel free to examine the different characteristics that even the pros respect. Best of all—price you can afford to the quality you demand. All lenses available in most popular camera mounts.

Vivitar Series 1
70-210mm F/3.5 Zoom Lens

Wide angle normal, 70mm. High performance, automatic zoom lens.

Vivitar 35mm Film

Port 35-105mm F/3.5 Fixed Mount Zoom

Some lens distortion.

High performance, automatic zoom lens (less than 12 degrees of field.)

The get into your Pentax system.

FACTORY REPRESENTATIVES FROM PENTAX AND VIVITAR will be here all day to answer your questions and demonstrate studio equipment.

ALSO all Pentax and Vivitar equipment will be 15% over cost May 20-22.

HOUSING ISSUE?

Supervisor District 2

‘For More Info: Call 776-1188
‘Leadership for a Change' 776-1188

Leadership for a Change' 776-1188

Rational Growth

Conserving Our Resources

Voice for Student Input

Vote for Jon Eklund JUNE 6th
'Bleacher Bums' unite in baseball play

By BILL ROCK
AP Sports Writer

The 17th annual "Bleacher Bums" have been the inspiration of modern baseball. The Bums, who usually identify themselves with the Chicago Cubs, were started by John Heyer in 1950 and have been going strong ever since. In the past, the Bums have been identified as the most loyal fans of the Chicago Cubs.

The Bums are a group of fans who follow the Cubs to every game and never miss a chance to see them play. They are known for their loyalty to the team, and have been referred to as the "true loyalists" of the Chicago Cubs.

The Bums are known for their enthusiasm and dedication, and are a popular attraction on game days.

In conclusion, the "Bleacher Bums" have been a part of Chicago Cubs baseball for over 60 years, and continue to be a beloved fan group.
Students and faculty receive awards

OH

Ronald Reagan, head of the Ornamental Horticulture Department, received the award of the year for his outstanding work. He will be awarded the prestigious award by the Agricultural Committee of the California Association of Future Farmers of America (FFA). In the past, the FFA has awarded Reagan chapter, national and state honorary

"The FFA has been a very useful organization," said Ronald Reagan. "It has helped me develop my skills in horticulture and photography, and I am very proud to be a part of it."

Senior week will honor grads

A variety of activities will be held during Senior Week to celebrate the achievements of the Class of 1978. The activities include graduation Mass, commencement exercises, and a special luncheon for the graduating seniors.

Ag fraternity banquet

Alpha Delta, the honorary agriculture fraternity, will hold its annual banquet on Friday. The banquet will be held in the University Union and will feature speakers and entertainment. There will be a formal dinner and dance, followed by a variety show and a silent auction.

Fire fighting

Personnel interested in fighting fires this summer may want to attend the fire fighting course that will be offered at 11 a.m. in Science Hall.

Pre-Law meeting

Cal Poly's Pre-Law Club will hold its final meeting of the year on April 17. Officers for next year will be elected at the meeting.

PAC meeting

The National Student Senate will meet this week to discuss fall semester elections for next year.

CAPHER dinner

The annual CAPHER dinner will be held this week. The banquet will be held at the Sheraton Inn at 5 p.m.

Journalism dinner

The Journalism Department will hold its annual dinner this week. Tickets are on sale through 3 p.m.

Ag fraternity banquet

Alpha Delta, the honorary agriculture fraternity, will hold its annual banquet on Friday. The banquet will be held in the University Union and will feature speakers and entertainment. There will be a formal dinner and dance, followed by a variety show and a silent auction.

Senior week will honor grads

A variety of activities will be held during Senior Week to celebrate the achievements of the Class of 1978. The activities include graduation Mass, commencement exercises, and a special luncheon for the graduating seniors.

Ag fraternity banquet

Alpha Delta, the honorary agriculture fraternity, will hold its annual banquet on Friday. The banquet will be held in the University Union and will feature speakers and entertainment. There will be a formal dinner and dance, followed by a variety show and a silent auction.

Senior week will honor grads

A variety of activities will be held during Senior Week to celebrate the achievements of the Class of 1978. The activities include graduation Mass, commencement exercises, and a special luncheon for the graduating seniors.

Ag fraternity banquet

Alpha Delta, the honorary agriculture fraternity, will hold its annual banquet on Friday. The banquet will be held in the University Union and will feature speakers and entertainment. There will be a formal dinner and dance, followed by a variety show and a silent auction.

Senior week will honor grads

A variety of activities will be held during Senior Week to celebrate the achievements of the Class of 1978. The activities include graduation Mass, commencement exercises, and a special luncheon for the graduating seniors.

Ag fraternity banquet

Alpha Delta, the honorary agriculture fraternity, will hold its annual banquet on Friday. The banquet will be held in the University Union and will feature speakers and entertainment. There will be a formal dinner and dance, followed by a variety show and a silent auction.

Senior week will honor grads

A variety of activities will be held during Senior Week to celebrate the achievements of the Class of 1978. The activities include graduation Mass, commencement exercises, and a special luncheon for the graduating seniors.

Ag fraternity banquet

Alpha Delta, the honorary agriculture fraternity, will hold its annual banquet on Friday. The banquet will be held in the University Union and will feature speakers and entertainment. There will be a formal dinner and dance, followed by a variety show and a silent auction.

Senior week will honor grads

A variety of activities will be held during Senior Week to celebrate the achievements of the Class of 1978. The activities include graduation Mass, commencement exercises, and a special luncheon for the graduating seniors.

Ag fraternity banquet

Alpha Delta, the honorary agriculture fraternity, will hold its annual banquet on Friday. The banquet will be held in the University Union and will feature speakers and entertainment. There will be a formal dinner and dance, followed by a variety show and a silent auction.