Another Type of Groove Presents 'Mighty' Mike McGee at Cal Poly

SAN LUIS OBISPO - The Cal Poly MultiCultural Center is proud to present “Mighty” Mike McGee at Another Type of Groove: Spoken Word Poetry from 7:30 to 10 p.m. April 7 at Chumash Auditorium.

McGee is best known for his “stand up poetry,” coining himself as an international spoken word artist, writer, performer, speaker, slam poet and comic.

The first poet to win both the National Poetry Slam Individual title (2003) and the Individual World Poetry Slam title (2006), McGee has logged more than 300,000 tour miles delivering his poetic sensitivity and unparalleled comic timing all over North America.

Another Type of Groove is a spoken word poetry event held the first Wednesday of each month throughout the school year. It is intended to create a place for the interchange of ideas, beliefs and personal expression. Each event features a highlighted poet as well as an open mic opportunity for interested students, staff, faculty, and community members.

The MultiCultural Center cultivates a campuswide community that represents and celebrates the diversity of Cal Poly’s student body. This event is free and open to the public.
