SLO Community Gets Involved at Cal Poly Open House

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly Open House has received some amazing involvement from the San Luis Obispo community this year, and invites the public to come see the results at the event which will take place April 15-17.

Kicking it off on Thursday evening, Open House will be directing visitors to the San Luis Obispo Farmer's Market. Here visitors will get a taste of Cal Poly student life by interacting with 25 student clubs, while immersing themselves in the San Luis Obispo culture.

On Friday, the SLO Visitor's Bureau will have a booth outside the Student University Welcome providing guests with information about tourism and local businesses throughout the county.

Saturday morning will begin with the Poly Royal Parade, showcasing many different University and local organization, including Mission Prep High School. Opening Ceremonies will be held at 10 a.m. with a performance by the Atascadero Show Choir.

Also available Saturday is the Kid's Zone, where children can run and have fun while their parents have an opportunity to participate in all of the other activities that are available during the event. All of these activities are open, and Open House encourages the local community to come participate.

For more information, visit the Open House Web site at http://orientation.calpoly.edu/openhouse or call the Open House office at 805-756-7576.
