Fluor Corp. Vice President to Speak on Business Ethics Sept. 22 at Cal Poly

SAN LUIS OBISPO — Wendy Hallgren, vice president of Corporate Compliance for Fluor Inc., will speak at Cal Poly on Thursday, Sept. 22, as part of the Orfalea College of Business Distinguished Speaker Series.

Hallgren will present “Business Ethics: Doing the Right Thing Can Be a Competitive Advantage,” from 2:10 to 3:10 p.m. in the Spanos Theater. The event is free and open to the public.

Prior to moving to Corporate Compliance, Hallgren was a member of Fluor’s Legal Department from 2002 to 2004. She earned her undergraduate degree from Georgetown University and her law degree from the University of Michigan Law School.

Fluor is a Fortune 500 company specializing in international engineering, procurement, construction, maintenance and project management. The company is No. 5 on Fortune’s 2011 list of the World’s Most Admired Companies in the engineering, construction industry, and Ethisphere magazine has named Fluor one of the World’s Most Ethical Companies for the past five years in a row.

The Orfalea College of Business Distinguished Speaker Series seeks to enhance the educational experience of business students and the Cal Poly community while showcasing programs, faculty and students to the California business community.
