The MET: Live IN HD New Screening on November 19

The MET: Live in HD screening series continues with an encore engagement of Philip Glass' unforgettable opera, SATYAGRAHA, Saturday, November 19, 2011 at the Performing Arts Center - Cohan Center.

Met favorite Richard Croft once again is Gandhi in Glass' unforgettable opera, which the Washington Post calls "a profound and beautiful work of theater."

Cal Poly Arts and Opera San Luis Obispo present the live transmission from New York City's Metropolitan Opera house beginning at 9:55 a.m. and running approximately 4 hours and 13 minutes, with two intermissions.

Local screening sponsored by Bill & Carol Rust.

The Met: Live in HD is the Metropolitan Opera's Peabody and Emmy Award-winning series of performances transmitted live by satellite in high-definition to more than 1400 movie theaters around the world.

Opera stars such as Renée Fleming, Natalie Dessay, Plácido Domingo, Susan Graham, Thomas Hampson, and Deborah Voigt have served as hosts for the shows, conducting live interviews with cast and crew and introducing behind-the-scenes features – allowing the worldwide HD audience an unprecedented look at what goes into the staging of an opera at one of the world's great houses. Robotic cameras and state-of-the-art technology are used to capture the action, giving a bird's-eye view and interesting perspectives on the productions.

In order to offer the The Met: Live in HD series, the Performing Arts Center underwent major technological renovations in 2010, including the installation of a new 22,000 lumen projector with high-definition capabilities. The purchase of the new equipment was made possible by the Foundation for the Performing Arts Center through a generous donation by the Hind Foundation.

The Met: Live in HD series is also made possible by a generous grant from its founding sponsor, The Neubauer Family Foundation. Bloomberg is the global corporate sponsor.
