Cal Poly Engineering Student Wins New Car at Water Exhibition

SAN LUIS OBISPO – A trip to the world's largest exhibition about water paid big dividends on land for Anna Yeutter, a Cal Poly environmental engineering junior from Huntington Beach, Calif.

Yeutter won a 2012 Ford Fusion Hybrid after participating in a scavenger hunt-like contest at the Water Environment Federation's annual Technical Exhibition and Conference (WEFTEC) at the Los Angeles Convention Center recently. She said the charcoal gray Ford Fusion she picked out is her first car.

"I traveled to WEFTEC with a group of 10 Cal Poly environmental engineering students, and we pooled our

She attended the conference because "events like this expose you to the latest technologies - and it's fun."

About the Water Environment Federation

Formed in 1928, the Water Environment Federation (WEF) includes more than 36,000 water quality professionals from around the world. For more information, go to www.wef.org or www.weftec.org.
