Cal Poly Open House Announces 2012 Theme

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly's 19th annual Open House invites prospective and current students, alumni and the community to discover gold at the Green and Gold Rush! The event will take place the weekend of April 12-14.

Open House gives students and their supporters the opportunity to spend the weekend exploring all of the enriching aspects of Cal Poly and the San Luis Obispo community.

On Thursday, April 12, the Open House Committee invites all visiting students and their families to "Blaze the Trail" by forging their own path through the wilderness of clubs and organizations that will be represented at San Luis Obispo's downtown Farmers Market.

Admitted Students' Preview Day, set for Friday, April 13, will allow students to "Stake a Claim" in their area of academic interest. Prospective students will be encouraged to take ownership of their academic future as they learn about curricula, hear from college deans and talk with faculty and current students.

On Saturday, April 14, those who attend the public Campus Showcase event will "Strike it Rich" as they enjoy food, games and booths prepared by more than 200 clubs and organizations. Visitors and students can experience special events such as the Poly Royal Parade, a Kids' Fair, live music, the Cal Poly Tractor Pull, the Cal Poly Rodeo and more!
