Cal Poly Collegians Alumni Big Band to Play at Madonna Inn Aug. 25

SAN LUIS OBISPO – The Cal Poly Collegians Alumni Big Band will celebrate its 45-year reunion with a performance from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 25, in the Madonna Inn Ballroom in San Luis Obispo.

The all-male ensemble of 20 musicians will recreate the swinging sounds of Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller, Les Brown and other big bands of the 1940s through the '60s. The program, featuring big band jazz and swing, is great for dancing or just listening.

Two winners of the 2012-13 Collegians' Jazz Scholarship will join in the performance: music majors Dylan Weddle, trumpet, and Tyler Miller, percussion.

The alumni band is comprised of Cal Poly graduates from the late '40s to the early '60s living in California, including local members from Atascadero and San Luis Obispo; Arizona; Oregon and Massachusetts. The band – predecessor to today's acclaimed University Jazz Bands – was founded in 1937 by then Music Department Head Harold P. Davidson.

The alumni band has performed at a variety of local venues on the Central Coast over the years, including the Madonna Inn Ballroom since 1999.

Admission to the concert is free, but dinner reservations are suggested to ensure seating. Voluntary contributions for Cal Poly's Collegians Jazz Scholarship are appreciated. To make a dinner reservation at the Madonna Inn, call 805-543-3000.
