Serve on a WASC Accreditation Self-Study Task Force

Every 10 years, Cal Poly seeks reaffirmation of its institutional accreditation status from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. The university's self-study proposal was accepted by WASC in December. The self-study will be guided by one overarching theme, Our Polytechnic Identity, and three self-study themes: The Integrated Educational Experience, Learn-by-Doing, and The Teacher-Scholar Model.

Task forces comprised of faculty, staff, students and administrators will be appointed to study each of the theme areas. A steering committee will guide the overall process. Any member of the Cal Poly community can serve, and many have already volunteered. Organizers are looking for additional faculty, staff, student body and administration representatives interested in contributing to this important institutional initiative.

To apply to serve on one of the WASC task forces, fill out the form at http://wasc.calpoly.edu/engagement/vlntr\_form.html by Feb. 8. Those who indicated interest in serving a committee on the online survey last fall are encouraged to fill out the application. For more information, visit <http://wasc.calpoly.edu>, contact the Academic Programs Department at ext. 6-2246, or email wasc@calpoly.edu.
