RESOLUTION ON CROSS-LISTING OF COURSES

- WHEREAS, Many subjects are interdisciplinary in nature; and
- WEHREAS, Conflicts have arisen between departments concerning jurisdiction over the teaching of certain courses; and
- WHEREAS, A number of departments are currently proposing the cross-listing of courses; and
- WHEREAS, CAM makes no reference to cross-listing; therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate accept the principle of cross-listing subject to the following provisions:
- (1) Each department adopting a cross-listed course may teach the course.
 - (2) A cross-listed course may be taught jointly.
 - (3) A student may take the cross-listed course under the prefix of any of the departments offering the course. That prefix will then appear on the student's transcript.
 - (4) The teaching units for the cross-listed course will accrue to the department in which the instructor of the course is a member. Where a course is jointly taught, the credit will be divided in an appropriate manner.
 - (5) Unless otherwise specified, a student may not receive credit from more than one department offering a cross-listed course.
