

BALTIMORE MEETING

The 1982 annual meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, December 28, 1982, in Room 311 of Baltimore's Convention Center. One of the papers to be presented at that meeting is contained in this issue, that by Sapontzis. The other three papers will be published in the December issue.

1983 MEETING TOPIC and CALL FOR PAPERS

The topic for the 1983 meeting will be the relation between 'animal liberation' and environmental ethics. Is concern for the welfare of individual animals compatible with the ascription of independent moral value to species, ecosystems, and similar entities? If so, how? If not, which side has to give? Papers are due to the Editor by April 15, 1983. Those papers selected will be published in the September and December, 1983, issues of Ethics & Animals.

CALL FOR REVIEWS

All members of the SSEA are hereby reminded that the list of 'Reviews Needed' in each issue of E&A constitutes an open invitation to submit reviews of the listed works. Very few reviews have been received recently. Get on it.

ONCE AGAIN ON LIBRARIES

Does your library subscribe to E&A? If not, why not? (It is, after all, very cheap.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

All material submitted for publication in Ethics & Animals should be addressed to the Editor. Reviews and articles should be typed, on one side of the paper only. One copy is sufficient for all submissions except articles, of which three copies are requested. Reviews, reports, directory entries, and other such matter are screened only by the E&A staff, but article manuscripts are evaluated by 'blind' referees. To facilitate such 'blind' reviewing of articles the author's name should not appear on the manuscript, but should be on a separate sheet of paper which also bears the title of article. If possible, authors should also remove internal references which would identify them (such as "as I argued in my article on animal liberation in The Journal of Beasts"). Such references can be re-inserted before publication.
