focused "A Look Back" into Cal Poly's history.

Alumni milestones are now listed under "Class Notes," and our fall advancement section is presented on pages 17-30.

Finally, we are initiating "From Our Readers" as a forum for readers' responses to articles, suggestions for future stories, or comments on the magazine itself (for information on how to mail in items, please see below).

For this first year, we are publishing fall 1997 and spring 1998 issues only, enabling us to produce a magazine within the same budget as Cal Poly Today's (for related delays in printing alumni and in memoriam information, we apologize). We are exploring the possibility of taking outside advertising to help defray production costs for Cal Poly Magazine and move toward more frequent publication.

Meanwhile, we take a breath and launch this new effort. I hope you enjoy it. And I encourage you to write in and let us know what you think so we can continue to make Cal Poly Magazine better with each new issue.
