

THANKS

Thanks to those who have supplied us with so many of the addresses we asked for, in particular to Marjorie Anchel, Robert A. Brown, F. Barbara Orlans, the American Anti-Vivisection Society, Argus Archives, and the IIT Center for the Study of Ethics in the Professions.

MEETING REMINDER

The 1982 annual meeting of the Society for the Study of Ethics & Animals will be held in Room 311 of the Baltimore Convention Center at 10:00 a.m., December 28, 1982. The papers by Cave, Pluhar, and White in this issue, and the paper by Sapontzis in the last issue, will be discussed.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The terms of Theodore Sager Meth and Lilly-Marlene Russow on the SSEA Board of Directors will expire in May, 1983. Nominations may be made at the annual meeting, or by mail to the Executive Secretary. Nominations do not require a second but do require the consent of the nominee, who must be a member of the SSEA.

RENEW NOW

This is the last issue of E&A for 1982. A form is enclosed for your convenience in renewing your membership in the SSEA (for organizations--your subscription to the journal). Do it now. The membership/subscription rates for 1983 remain at the same ridiculously low level as those for 1982. Now, while you have your checkbook out, consider a contribution in addition to renewal. It's deductible, of course.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

All material submitted for publication in Ethics & Animals should be addressed to the Editor. Reviews and articles should be typed, on one side of the paper only. One copy is sufficient for all submissions except articles, of which three copies are requested. Reviews, reports, directory entries, and other such matter are screened only by the E&A staff, but article manuscripts are evaluated by 'blind' referees. To facilitate such 'blind' reviewing of articles the author's name should not appear on the manuscript, but should be on a separate sheet of paper which also bears the title of article. If possible, authors should also remove internal references which would identify them (such as "as I argued in my article on animal liberation in The Journal of Beasts"). Such references can be re-inserted before publication.
