NOMINATIONS RECEIVED – need to select 4 members

CAFES	Tom Ruehr	Earth and Soil Sciences (Incumbent)
	I have served on the committee at various times since I received the award in 1980. I have a memory to share about unique problems the committee sometimes encounters. I can only serve for 3 more years and will be happy to continue until I complete my University service.
CSM	Dave Keeling	Chemistry and Biochemistry
	I will begin FERPing next fall, but plan to teach half time in Fall, Winter, and Spring quarters. I should have an easier time making classroom visitation than in the past (1998, 1999, 2003, and 2004).
CSM	Matt Moelter	Physics
	I am interested in being a member of the Distinguished Teaching Award Committee. As a previous recipient I know what an honor it is to be recognized by the combination of students and faculty. I appreciated the time and energy put in by the committee members to review the nominations and make class visits. I am interested in seeing firsthand the variety of excellent teaching here at Cal Poly. Serving on the committee would be informative and satisfying as I helped to identify and recognize worthy colleagues.
CBUS	Lee Burgunder	Accounting Area (Incumbent)
	I would be pleased to serve on the DTA Committee next year. I have served on this committee several times in the past, and have always found the experience rewarding, despite the very heavy time commitments. I have always enjoyed working with faculty colleagues and students on this committee, since they consistently have all had a special desire to achieve a defined goal with eagerness and integrity. I have enjoyed having the opportunity to observe the diverse ways that teachers may establish effective learning environments in a wide variety of disciplines. I also have improved my own teaching performance through my exposure to so many innovative educators. For these reasons, I appreciate the opportunity to possibly serve on the committee again.

D'Avignon, India [Lecturer/1.5 years at Cal Poly] – Music

I am in my second year as a lecturer in the music department after having served since 1980 in the Conservatory of Music at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio. At this institution I reached full professor with tenure, was chair of my department for 17 years, was elected chair of the undergraduate faculty, served in the senate, chaired the academic affairs committee of the university, and chaired the faculty affairs committee of the Conservatory, to name a few.

During this time, I was awarded three Lilly grants for travel and study (and recruitment) to Japan, Taiwan and Bali. I was also chair of the local Phi Beta Delta Chapter and was elected International President for the years 2003-2006 where I made monthly trips to PBD headquarters in Washington, D.C. to direct policy in furthering internationalism on college campuses. During this time, we inducted David Kay from the Potomac Institute and Colin Powell, and I secured French Ambassador Jean-David Levitte for our conference speaker.

At Capital University, I was the advisor for international students in the Conservatory, was instrumental in securing the first annual four-year full tuition scholarship specifically for international students auditioning for the Conservatory, and worked with faculty to understand the needs of international students. I worked on a regular basis with our international office to establish procedures for admitting international students to the Conservatory. I compiled a folder of materials and letters that proved 100% successful in our Chinese students receiving their visas to study on our campus.

During my year and a half at Cal Poly, I have worked with our university symphony director in securing Chinese pianist Tianshu Wang to perform the Yellow River Concerto (the most popular and famous piano concerto written in China) in the spring of 2009. We are also starting negotiations with instrumental faculty of the Shenyang Conservatory to visit during that same time to perform on original Chinese instruments for students here at Cal Poly. I have contacted colleagues in the engineering department who have expressed an interest of involvement in some way. I am also interested in exploring the possibility of strengthening (or resurrecting) the Phi Beta Delta chapter here at Cal Poly.

I am a staunch supporter of international activities for faculty, staff, and our domestic students as well as finding ways for international students to benefit from educational experience here on our campuses. The more we experience first-hand and know of other cultures, the better we understand and hopefully appreciate the uniqueness. I would be honored to serve in any way in promoting international activities here at Cal Poly.

Rong, Xiaoying [Tenure track/3 years at Cal Poly] – Graphic Communication

I have been working with university's International Study Program for student interviews for couple times. These interviews gave me the opportunity of learning the CSU International Study Program. At the same time, I am planning to give my students international exposure by taking them for extended field trip to China in the coming summer. I believe that as I am an international scholar, I have better understanding of what international study can bring to the students and faculty. I am willing to serve in IEP council to share my experience and idea.

CONSTITUTION OF THE FACULTY

Preamble

We, the faculty of California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, in order to meet our academic responsibilities hereby establish this Constitution of the Faculty for our governance. The responsibilities of the faculty, the powers necessary to fulfill those responsibilities, and the collegial form of governance are based on historic academic traditions that have been recognized by the people of the State of California through their legislature.

ARTICLE I. MEMBERSHIP OF THE GENERAL FACULTY

Voting members of the General Faculty of Cal Poly shall consist of those persons who are employed at Cal Poly and belong to at least one of the following entities: (1) full-time academic employees holding faculty rank whose principal duty is within an academic department, unit, or program; (2) faculty members in the Pre-Retirement Reduction in Time Base Program; (3) full-time probationary and/or permanent employees in Professional Consultative Services as defined in Article III.1.b of this constitution; (4) full-time coaches holding a current faculty appointment of at least one year; (5) lecturers holding full-time appointments of at least one year in one or more academic departments, units, or programs; or (6) lecturers with a current assignment of 15 WTUs for at least three consecutive quarters.

Members of the General Faculty, including department chairs/heads, shall not cease to be members because of any assigned time allotted to them for the carrying out of duties consistent with their employment at Cal Poly. "Visiting Personnel" shall not be members of the General Faculty. Members of the General Faculty who are on leave for at least one year shall not be voting members during their leave.

Nonvoting membership in the General Faculty shall consist of all academic personnel not included in the voting membership.

ARTICLE II. RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND POWERS OF THE GENERAL FACULTY

Section 1. Rights of the General Faculty

The right of academic freedom is necessary for the pursuit and dissemination of truth and the maintenance of a free society. It is the obligation of the General Faculty to insure the preservation of an academic community with full freedom of inquiry and expression and insulation from political influence.

Voting members of the General Faculty have the right to nominate, elect, and recall members of the Academic Senate and the right to call for, participate in, and vote at meetings of the General Faculty.

Section 2. Responsibilities of the General Faculty

The primary responsibility of members of the General Faculty is to seek truth and to encourage the free pursuit of learning in their peers and students. To this end, they devote their energies to developing and improving their scholarly competence. They make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct and to assure that their evaluation of students and peers reflects true merit. They respect the confidential nature of the relationship between professor and student. They avoid any exploitation of students for their private advantage, acknowledge significant assistance from them, and protect their freedom of inquiry.

Section 3. Powers of the General Faculty: Meetings, Initiatives, Referenda, and Recall

No regularly scheduled meetings of the General Faculty are provided for but meetings of the General Faculty may be called by the University President or the Academic Senate Chair. Meetings of the General Faculty will be scheduled by the Academic Senate Chair upon receipt of a meeting request petition bearing the signatures of 10% of the voting membership of the General Faculty. The Academic Senate Chair presides at meetings of the General Faculty and parliamentary procedure is in effect. Positions developed at meetings of the General Faculty must be ratified by initiative.

A majority of the voting members of the General Faculty in attendance at duly called General Faculty meetings is needed to propose an initiative to be put before the entire voting membership of the General Faculty. A majority of those voting in a mail ballot is needed to pass an initiative. Initiatives to amend this constitution shall be governed by Article IV.

Actions of the Academic Senate are subject to nullification by the voting membership of the General Faculty. Upon receipt of a referendum petition bearing the signatures of 15% of the voting faculty constituency, the Academic Senate Chair will conduct a mail ballot of the voting members of the General Faculty. - 1. An individual eligible to vote in the election for the representative shall notify the Academic Senate Chair of her/his intention to circulate a recall petition. This written notification shall state further the reasons for the recall action in brief terms.

2. The Academic Senate Chair shall notify all of the eligible voters in the area affected of the intended recall petition and state the reasons given for the petition to recall.
3. The notification will be in effect five (5) days in which classes are in session prior to the circulation of the petition. Signatures on a petition may be obtained for the next ten (10) days in which regular classes are in session. A recall election, if required, shall be initiated within twenty (20) days, in which classes are regularly in session, after the recall notification is received by the Academic Senate Chair.

11. The election procedures and ballot counting shall be as provided in these bylaws for regular elections.

X. AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended by a two thirds majority vote of the senators present at a regular meeting of the Academic Senate, providing that a first reading of the proposed amendment has taken place at the previous regular meeting of the Academic Senate.

(April 14, 2008)

Additional bylaw changes to be considered with the “Resolution on Changes to the Bylaws of the Academic Senate”
(see Business Item C above)

1. Should the Executive Committee have discretion to waive the bylaws requirement of “no person shall be assigned concurrent membership on more than one standing committee”? (p. 13, last paragraph of Section VIII.B)
2. Should the Executive Committee be charged with discretionary review of Academic Senate CSU nominations prior to the campus election? (p. 12, VII.B)
3. Should a Statement of Interest be required for faculty members submitting a petition for election to the Academic Senate CSU? (p. 8, III.B.6 and p. 12, VII.B.5)
4. Should ex officio committee membership be changed from “voting” to “nonvoting” status? (top of p. 13, VIII.B)
5. Should procedures for first and second readings of resolutions be added to the bylaws? (see attached examples for wording)
6. Should the position of Academic Senate Chair be excluded from the term-ending requirement of “A senator can serve a maximum of two [two-year] consecutive, elected terms and shall not again be eligible for election until one year has elapsed”? (p. 6, II.B)
7. Is it helpful to have specific requirements for the student representatives to the Distinguished Teaching Awards Committee (“junior standing...36 quarter units...3.0 gpa”) or should student requirements be standardized for all Senate committees (minimum of 2.3 GPA)? (p. 4, I.B.2 and p. 16, I.4)
8. Should student membership be standardized; i.e., one student on each Senate committee? (Presently the DSA, DTA, Fairness Board, and Sustainability Committees have two student representatives.)

9. Should the two ASI representatives to the Academic Senate also be voting members of the Executive Committee?
10. Should a process for censure and possible involuntary resignation of a senator/statewide senator be established?
11. Should a resolution originating outside an Academic Senate committee be sent to a Senate committee prior to agendaizing as a matter of due process?
12. Should a section be added to the bylaws describing the duties of caucus chairs and indicating how they are (s)elected?
13. (Discussion) inclusion of Brown Act provisions.

RESOLUTION PROCESS

- Usually proposed by Senate committee.
- Reviewed and formatted by Senate Analyst.
- Screened by Executive Committee, which may "agendize."
- Read twice by Senate, which may amend and adopt.
- Forwarded to President, who may accept, approve, or disapprove.

FIRST READING

- A time for suggestions; resolution still belongs to author and is not yet amendable.
- Resolution may be moved to second reading at another meeting.
- Motion to suspend rules may be used to move time-sensitive resolutions to second reading at same meeting.

SECOND READING

- Motion to adopt resolution may be moved and seconded; it then belongs to the body and may be amended.
- Precedent: attached documents are not amendable.
- New rule: amendments of one sentence or more must be made in writing and submitted to the Senate in advance.

Language from the bylaws of CSU San Francisco

5. First reading: Voting on substantive motions (i.e., those involving university policy, those in which the senate takes a position on an issue, and the like) takes place in two stages: first reading and second reading. In first reading, the motion is introduced and seconded. Discussion is in order in first reading, but not amendments. The first reading of a motion is concluded if 1) there is no one remaining the speakers' list who wishes to speak on it, or 2) a motion to close debate is passed (requires a two-thirds vote), or 3) a motion is approved to move the motion to second reading (requires a three-fourths majority).
6. Second reading: Voting on substantive motions shall take place only after a second reading of the motion at a meeting subsequent to the meeting at which it was first introduced, except that the Academic Senate, by three-fourths vote of the senators present, may waive this requirement. During second reading, amendments may be presented for action by the senate.

COLLEGE COUNCILS

(January 2008)

Agriculture

CAFES College Council meets for two hours each Tuesday morning. It is attended by dept chairs/heads, associate deans, certain staff members (head of the farm, etc), and a few others, but I am not sure who. I was invited to attend as caucus chair under a previous dean, and while not specifically invited now, I could probably attend if I asked. I am welcome at any time there is something from the Senate.

Agenda is items from the Deans Council and anything else of interest-- budgets, recruitment, fund raising, college events, industry and alumni matters, etc.

Architecture

CAED has a manager's meeting every other Tuesday which includes the dean, associate dean, department chairs/heads, and dean's staff. An attempt has been made to include the caucus chair, but only one invitation has been extended.

Business

The OCOB has semi regular meetings of the area chairs and the two associate deans.

The agenda varies, but it includes strategic initiatives, reports from the various committees in the OCOB, etc. It also deals with our Faculty Annual Report issues, accreditation issues, etc. I was on this committee a few years ago under a different dean. I have heard that the meetings are somewhat different now, but the items I have listed above are pretty accurate.

Education

The COE does not have a College Council per se. We do have an Executive Committee that consists of administrative and instructional personnel.

The ExCo is driven by the dean and addresses policy and administrative issues. There is a larger group (an extension of the ExCo) that includes more academic personnel. The ExCo meets regularly at the pleasure of the dean. Strategic planning, accreditation, and budget occupy most of the agendas.

Engineering

Who attends meetings? Department chairs and guests, including the Senate caucus chair, Career Services, Counseling Services, and administrative members on the Dean's staff.

What is on the agenda? Varies, but guests each give brief reports/announcements and the dean occasionally has announcements.

Liberal Arts

The College of Liberal Arts College Council consists of department and program (e.g., Humanities and Women's Studies) chairs/heads. The college's Director of Advancement, Eileen Joseph, and Director of Communication, Steve Davis, also attend meetings. Meetings are every other Tuesday at 8:30am.

The agenda varies but typically has reports about the Deans Council, Advancement, and Communications, as well as other relevant business.

Library

The Chair oversees and leads the Council in its official charge: Promote library faculty effectiveness and uphold professional standards to meet library users' needs; demonstrate the library's value to the campus; advise, respond, and work in concert with the Dean of Library Services and the Leadership Team to meet the overall goals and objectives of the Kennedy Library and Cal Poly; determine policies and procedures for Library faculty appointment, retention, promotion, tenure, and post-tenure review; and recommend library policies and procedures to the Dean. All library faculty attend – the Dean is an ex officio member. We generally meet once each month.

Agendas are created by the executive committee. Agendas focus on a wide range of RPT and governance issues including: revisions of handbook and bylaws; recruitments; etc.

Science and Mathematics

CSM does have a college council? They are attended by the dean, assistant dean, chairs, the college budget staff member, the college personnel staff member, and Sue Elrod who essentially heads up a cross-disciplinary center for science education housed in the college.

The dean sets the agenda. My understanding (being a non-attendee) is that it is typically about budgets, enrollment and announcement-type communications.
