PRIUS ENVY

Bryan Mealy

Look at me, I drive a Prius,
I never take the bus,
I only drive with me alone,
It's way much less a fuss.

I'm so good I've done my duty,
I've raised my MPG,
I used to be a guilty soul,
But now I drive with glee.

Here I am, I drive so freely,
I rarely stop for gas,
I drive along this crowded road,
I'm upper middle class.

Even though there's global warming,
I still drive all the same,
Despite the fact that nothing's solved,
I'm not the one to blame.

Have you heard that oil battle?
I read it in the news,
I like to drive to Trader Joes,
And fill the trunk with booze.

I must go, I'm off to schmoozing,
I'm driving to the PAC,
I like to sip on real fine wine,
There's nothing that I lack.
