

ETHICS & ANIMALS
{ISSN 0197-9094}

A quarterly journal published in March, June, September and December by the Society for the Study of Ethics & Animals (SSEA).

EDITOR

Harlan B. Miller

The Society for the Study of Ethics & Animals has been established to provide for the exchange of information and to provide arenas for discussion and debate between those interested in ethical questions concerning human treatment of nonhuman animals. The Society does not take sides, and is committed to open discussion.

Subscriptions: Individuals receive Ethics & Animals as members of the SSEA. Memberships are by calendar year, and the membership dues for 1984 are $5.00. Institutions (libraries, organizations, etc.) are not eligible for membership, which is restricted to biological individuals, but may subscribe to Ethics & Animals at the rate of $7.00 for 1984. For both memberships and subscriptions there is an additional charge for deliveries to addresses outside the United States of $2.00 for surface mail or $5.00 for air mail. Members joining, or institutions subscribing, at any point within a calendar year will receive the complete volume for that year.

All payments should be in U.S. funds. Send subscriptions and all other materials to:
