MEETING REMINDER

The 1983 annual meeting of the Society for the Study of Ethics & Animals will be held at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, December 28, in the Hampton Room of the Sheraton-Boston Hotel, Boston, Massachusetts. The paper by Evelyn Pluhar beginning on the next page, and the paper by Eric Katz which appeared in the last issue, will be discussed.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The terms of George P. Cave and Tom Regan on the SSEA Board of Directors will expire in May, 1984. Nominations may be made at the annual meeting, or by mail to the Executive Secretary. Nominations do not require a second but do require the consent of the nominee, who must be a member of the SSEA.

TIME TO RENEW

This is the last issue of E&A for 1983. A form is enclosed for your convenience in renewing your membership in the SSEA (for organizations—your subscription to the journal). Do it now. The membership/subscription rates remain as low as for 1983 and 1982.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

All material submitted for publication in Ethics & Animals should be addressed to the Editor. Reviews and articles should be typed, on one side of the paper only. One copy is sufficient for all submissions except articles, of which three copies are requested. Reviews, reports, directory entries, and other such matter are screened only by the E&A staff, but article manuscripts are evaluated by 'blind' referees. To facilitate such 'blind' reviewing of articles the author's name should not appear on the manuscript, but should be on a separate sheet of paper which also bears the title of article. If possible, authors should also remove internal references which would identify them (such as "as I argued in my article on animal liberation in The Journal of Beasts"). Such references can be re-inserted before publication.
