

IN MEMORIAM

■ Arnold K. Andersen (AERO '51), 70, died in Wildomar in February. He retired in 1984 after 33 years with McDonnell-Douglas. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, and a grandson.

■ David M. Anderson, 47, died in Lafayette in May 1999. After studying agribusiness at Cal Poly in the '70s, he was employed by Paramount Export Company for 22 years. He is survived by his wife, a son, and a daughter.

■ Brett W. Berrier (CRP '80), 43, died at his Hayward home in January. He was self-employed as a waterproofing consultant and was a member of the International Conference of Building Officials. He is survived by his parents, a sister, and a niece.

■ Robert J. Bertram (EE '50), 72, died in Santa Rosa in 1998. He was employed by Vandenberg/Martin Marietta, working with Control Data computers and Titan program instrumentation. He is survived by his wife, a son, and a daughter.

■ Kenneth C. Bright (AE '61), 60, died at his Camarillo home in March 1999. He was a partner in Santa Clara Chemical and Seeds in Oxnard for 32 years. He is survived by his wife, a son, and a granddaughter.

■ James D. Carter (ASCI '56), 66, died in Riverside in February 1999. He was the storeroom manager for the UC Riverside Biology Department. He is survived by his wife, four daughters, and a son.

■ Henry Bennett (Ben) Clapp (ASCI '59) died at home in Apple Valley in February. He retired as an environmental specialist with the San Bernardino County Environmental Health Department. He is survived by his wife.

■ George F. Clark (ACRE '51), 75, died in Ridgecrest in October 1999. He worked for the Naval Weapons Center-China Lake and in a variety of supervisorial and superintendent positions. His civic activities included 30 years with the Optimists Club. He is survived by his wife, two sons, and four grandchildren.

■ Stanley B. Crawford (AE '18) died in Santa Rosa in April. He was scheduled to report for military duty on Nov. 13, 1918, but the armistice was signed on Nov. 11. He retired from PG&E after 35 years. He is survived by one son, two grandsons, and three great-grandchildren.

Harold O. Wilson (FAC, ADMIN), who dedicated nearly 40 years to Cal Poly, died in San Luis Obispo in May. He retired from the university in 1974 as administrative vice president, following a career that began as a teacher in the Animal Science Department and included an appointment as educational advisor on then-Gov. Ronald Reagan's executive staff. During his tenure at Cal Poly he served as dean of Cal Poly's Voorhis Campus at San Dimas (the beginning of what is now Cal Poly Pomona), where he played a major role in acquiring the 816-acre Kellogg Horse Ranch. From 1950 to 1967, Wilson was executive dean with oversight for the building program at both campuses, student and college affairs, educational services, and staff services. He also served as Cal Poly's representative to the alumni association's board of directors and was involved in planning for Poly Royal and Homecoming.

Contributions in his memory can be made to the Harold O. Wilson Memorial Scholarship Fund through the Cal Poly Foundation. Checks, payable to the Foundation, may be sent to the Foundation Business Office, Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407.

■ Donald R. Floyd (FAC), 66, died in San Luis Obispo in March 1999. He taught from 1974 to 1998 at Cal Poly, where he was involved with the university's International Study Program. He was editor of the California Geographer and a member of the California Geographical Society. He is survived by his wife and a son.

■ Boyd E. Frame (PE '57), 67, died in Salem, Ore., in July 1998. He was retired from Harrah's-Lake Tahoe. He is survived by a son, a daughter, and four grandchildren.

■ Charles Jerold Hanks (FAC), 78, died at his San Luis Obispo home in November 1999. Hanks joined Cal Poly's Mathematics Department in 1954 and became departmental head in 1972. He attained the rank of rear admiral in the U.S. Coast Guard, earning two Meritorious Service Medals. He is survived by his wife, a brother, and two sisters.

■ Elvin E. Harris (ASCI '54), 81, died in Mariposa in September 1999. He had a 31-year career as a warden with the California Department of Fish and Game. He is survived by his wife, two sons, six stepchildren, and two grandchildren.

■ Winnifred (Graham) Henry (OH '64), died in February. She taught in the hearing impaired program of the Centralia School District in Buena Park for 16 years. She retired in 1992. She is survived by her husband.

■ Manlio A. Hernandez, 67, died in Arroyo Grande in February. He studied political science at Cal Poly in the '80s and was a real estate broker, tax preparer, and businessman. He is survived by his wife, four sons, a daughter, and seven grandchildren.

IN MEMORIAM

■ Charles A. Hofflund (AERO '40), 81, died in Tarzana in April 1999. A Cal Poly alumnus of the year, he became executive vice president of Lockheed California and subsequently retired as president of Litton Industries' aero products division. He is survived by his wife, two sons, a daughter, and several grandchildren.

■ Raymond M. Knowles (ARCE '50), 75, died in San Felipe, Mexico, in May. He worked as a self-employed architect and as a state inspector for OSHPD. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, a sister, ■ Joyce Nagata Maguire (ENGL '78), 43, died in Rockville, Md., in January. She was an attorney in the U. S. General Accounting Office and Department of Defense. She was survived by her husband, a son, and a daughter.

■ Bernat Marques (DSCI '68) died in June 1999. He was president and co-owner of Marques' Fertilizer. He is survived by a son, two daughters, and a grandson.

■ William David (Bill) McKeen (PI '63), 63, died at his San Bernardino home in October 1999. He was employed by the Agricultural

■ Doris Nixon (ED '63, ED '72), 84, died in San Luis Obispo in January. She is survived by two sons, a daughter, and three granddaughters.

■ Kathy Patin (HE '95), 44, died in Solvang in March 1997. She was a homemaker, teacher's aide, office worker, and community volunteer. She is survived by her husband and three children.

■ JoAnn P. Pianfetti (HIST '72), 55, died in Santa Maria. Her major work experience was with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

■ Leslie L. Robinson (MCRO '88), 35, died in Thousand Oaks in June 1999. She was a manager in clinical data management for Amgen. She is survived by her parents and a sister.

■ William Ruddiman (CRSC '53), 82, died in Yreka in January. He served as farm advisor for the University of California's 4-H program in Siskiyou County. He is survived by his wife, a son, and a daughter.

■ John (Jack) Safarik (AG '51, ED AG '57), 70, died at his Chico home in November 1999. His career ranged from vice principal at Live Oak Union High School to director of institutional research and professor of psychology at Chico State. He is survived by his wife, two sons, three daughters, and 11 grandchildren.

■ Elmer K. Valentine (ASCI '52, AGRI '55), 78, died in Salinas in March 1999. He taught vocational agriculture at Vacaville and King City high schools. He is survived by his wife, two sons, a daughter, and two grandchildren.

■ William T. Weubbe, 68, died in Sacramento in June 1999. He studied electrical engineering at Cal Poly in the '50s and worked as an engineer for Westinghouse Corporation and Schindler Corporation. He is survived by his wife, two sons, three daughters, and five grandchildren.

■ John E. Zimmerman (EE '60), died earlier this year. He is survived by his wife, who lives in Danville. ☞

Larry Voss (ADMIN), 67, who served the university and the CSU Chancellor's Office for 35 years in a variety of administrative and management positions, died in June at a Stanford hospital. Voss was a senior personnel analyst in the Chancellor's Office before coming to Cal Poly in 1968 as director of personnel relations. He served as executive assistant to President Robert E. Kennedy from 1973 to 1979 and as executive assistant to President Warren J. Baker from 1979 to 1985, subsequently assuming the position of associate vice president for university relations. Shortly before he retired in 1992, Voss and his wife, Carolyn, established a music scholarship endowment to provide financial aid to qualified students majoring in music. After his retirement, Voss continued to serve the President's Office in various capacities.

Previous to his work with the CSU and Cal Poly, Voss served as assistant personnel director of the State Department of Education, assistant director for a U.S. Office of Education research program developing guidelines for improved practices in state educational agencies, chairman of the Western Regional Conference of the College and University Association, and as a consultant to numerous state and regional agencies.

two adopted daughters, six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

■ Kimberly Dawn Kralick (JOUR '99), 23, died in March just a few months after graduating. While at Cal Poly she worked part time as a patroller for the San Luis Obispo Police Dept., and completed an internship with Barnett Cox and Associates, a public relations firm. She is survived by her parents, a brother, and two sisters.

■ William H. Leverich (PI '56), 70, died in San Luis Obispo in June. He was an appraiser in the San Luis Obispo County Assessor's Office. He is survived by his wife, a son, and a daughter.

Extension Service with the University of California for 31 years. He is survived by his wife, a son, and a daughter.

■ Gerhard H. Mollenhauer (ME '70), 64, died in Palo Alto in February. He served as director of plant services for Laguna Honda Hospital in San Francisco. He is survived by his wife.

■ Harold G. Newman (AGSC '21, AGRI '36), 99, died in Oxnard in December 1999. He was the foreman for Blanchard Ranch in Santa Paula and manager of Catlin Auto Parts in Oxnard. He is survived by his daughter and two grandsons.