Osher Lifelong Learning Institute to Host Annual Meeting and Free Social Jan. 27

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute will host its annual meeting for members and a social event for individuals 50 years and older at 2 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 27, at the Veterans Hall in San Luis Obispo.

The event will include an update on what's new in the OLLI program and introduce the winter/spring term. Refreshments will be served, and attendants will have the opportunity to meet instructors and participate in a raffle for prizes.

Annual membership is $25, and registration for up to five classes is $60. More than 70 classes are offered in arts and humanities, history and current events, personal enrichment, science and health, and special events and field trips. Classes are held throughout San Luis Obispo County and are instructors include Cal Poly professors, retired teachers, OLLI members and specialists.

Reservations for the event are due by Friday, Jan. 25, and can be made online at www.osher.calpoly.edu or by calling Cal Poly Continuing Education at 805-756-2053.

OLLI is a membership organization administered by Cal Poly Continuing Education and University Outreach in conjunction with volunteer OLLI committees and is one of more than 100 similar organizations across the country. It has more than 600 members locally.

Registration for OLLI classes begins Tuesday, Jan. 29. For more information about OLLI or to register, call Cal Poly Continuing Education and University Outreach at 805-756-2053 or visit www.osher.calpoly.edu.
