Cal Poly Moves Up on Forbes Magazine's List of Best Colleges

Cal Poly ranks No. 177 on Forbes magazine's list of the 610 best colleges and universities in the U.S. for 2010, up 24 places from 2009. The list, released last week, puts Cal Poly at No. 21 among 50 California colleges and universities featured. And just as last year, Cal Poly is the highest ranked California State University campus on the list. It is the third year Forbes has produced the list. Cal Poly appeared at No. 369 on the inaugural 2008 list and then at No. 201 in 2009.

Local High School Students Go to Edge of Space Thanks to Cal Poly BalloonSat Program

Cal Poly Engineering provided a thrilling, hands-on learning experience for two Arroyo Grande High School students this summer. The students, Allison Servey and Bill Shires, recently completed Cal Poly's first-ever BalloonSat Summer Intern Program, which culminated in a high-altitude space imaging mission using a weather balloon, a recovery parachute, a digital camera and a GPS tracking system.

Annual Ranch Horse Sale is Set for Aug. 28

Cal Poly students will hold the annual Performance and Ranch Horse Sale on Saturday, Aug. 28, beginning at noon at the Horse Unit on campus. Fifteen Cal Poly students have spent several months training 22 young Quarter Horses and Appaloosas to get them ready for the sale. The horse sale is one of many “enterprise projects” in the College of Agriculture, Food and Environmental Sciences. Students spend their time raising everything from horses to sheep to tomatoes to poinsettias, and making everything from jam to chocolate to honey under the supervision of a faculty adviser.

Cal Poly Tables Santa Barbara MBA Program Plans

At the request of the California State University Chancellor's Office, Cal Poly's Orfalea College of Business is permanently suspending plans to offer a Santa Barbara MBA program. The CSU instead will look to its Channel Islands campus to serve the Santa Barbara market for an MBA program, given its closer proximity to Santa Barbara. Prospective students who filed applications for admission to Cal Poly's Santa Barbara MBA Program will receive a refund of the application fee.

Faculty and Staff

Victor Brancart Named University Budget Director

Victor Brancart has been named director of the Budget and Analytic Business Services Department. Victor will oversee all the functions associated with the Cal Poly budget office as well as campus-wide support for the PeopleSoft financial applications. Victor has undergraduate and graduate degrees from Cal State Fullerton and Cal Poly, respectively. He joined the Cal Poly Finance organization as an accountant in 1994.

Campus Announcements

Health Insurance Available to Dependents Up to Age 26

In response to health care reform legislation, CalPERS announced that children of CalPERS health benefit subscribers will soon be eligible for dependent health coverage up to the age of 26. Children must be enrolled or re-enrolled during this year's Open Enrollment period, Sept. 13 through Oct. 8, 2010. Coverage is effective Jan. 1, 2011. At this time it is unknown whether this coverage will be extended to include dental and vision. Further information should be received prior to the Open Enrollment period.

Dependent children up to age 26 may be added even if they are married, do not live with you or are not students. Social Security numbers, as well as copies of birth certificates will now be required to add any dependent children to health plans.

Visit the Human Resources Benefits web site for FAQ's regarding benefit updates and links to more information about the recent health care reform legislation. Health plan rates for 2011, plan details and enrollment materials will be announced in September.

Is Your Department on Facebook or YouTube? Get on the Cal Poly Social Media List

Does your department or college have a Facebook, YouTube or Flickr page – and are you looking for more people to “like” you? Get on the Cal Poly Social Media web page. Send Public Affairs an e-mail with the web address for the page, and let us know if it's intended for students, alumni, parents and friends or everyone. To be on the list, your department needs someone on staff at Cal Poly to be one of the administrators of the social media site. The list will make it easier for visitors to Cal Poly's web site to find you and like, subscribe to, or join you out in the world of Social Media. E-mail Public Affairs at polynews@calpoly.edu. See who's on social media sites for Cal Poly: <http://www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu/social-media.html>.

Reminder: Volunteer Identification Form (HR-V1) Is Updated

Departments are reminded that an updated Volunteer Identification Form (HR-V1) must be completed and submitted to Human Resources prior to the start of the volunteer assignment. As of July 1, the previous version of the form is no longer accepted. For more information about the Volunteer Program or to fill the form, visit the Volunteer Program website. For questions, contact Alana Lardizabal, Human Resources manager, at ext. 6-7428 or alardiza@calpoly.edu.

Pop Arrives with Dan Hicks Sept. 24

Hear pop classic Dan Hicks & the Hot Licks Friday, Sept. 24, at 8 p.m. in the Spanos Theatre. Long considered one of pop music's truly original figures and America's finest songwriters, Hicks serves up sharp, dry-witted lyrics and clever musical fashion, attitude, and swagger with an outlaw eccentricity and insightful charm for a unique sound.
