Memorial Service for George Ramos is Nov. 4

The campus community is invited to a memorial service in honor of Cal Poly Journalism Professor George Ramos set for Friday, Nov. 4, from 10:45 a.m. to noon, in the Pavilion of the Performing Arts Center.

Ramos was a popular, nationally acclaimed journalist who was well liked among his students and colleagues. The Journalism department will host this memorial to provide campus community members unable to attend last summer's memorial service an opportunity for remembrance.

Brian Thurmond, director of Athletic Media Relations and good friend and colleague to Ramos, will moderate the service. Feel free to join us. No RSVP required.

Retirements

Patricia Ashe

Information Technology Services will host a potluck celebration honoring Patricia Ashe from noon to 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 16, in the Education Building, Room 24. Ashe will retire after 10 years of service at Cal Poly as an Oracle database administrator for Information Technology Services. During her time on campus, the number of centrally managed campus databases has grown from a small handful to more than 40. She is looking forward to creating a business growing and selling California native plants. Her last working day is Nov. 18.

Frank A. Cawley

Frank A. Cawley, director of El Corral Bookstore, is retiring from Cal Poly Corporation at the end of the year, after more than 15 years of service. El Corral Bookstore will host a retirement reception in his honor Wednesday, Nov. 30, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center lobby. The campus community is invited to help celebrate.

Cawley came to Cal Poly from De Anza College in Cupertino, Calif., where he managed the college bookstore for 12 years. During his tenure at Cal Poly, Frank remodeled El Corral Bookstore, twice remodeled Cal Poly Downtown, implemented a commercial website (now in its third iteration), managed the Pony Prints print & copy center, and initiated a number of services such as Textbook Reservation, Shop Once Service, VIP Buyback, and in-store and on-line Textbook Rental.

Susan Sparling

Student Academic Services will host a retirement celebration honoring Susan Sparling, from 2 to 4 p.m., Friday, Dec. 2 in the Albert B. Smith Alumni and Conference Center. The campus community is invited to attend.

Sparling, director of Student Academic Services will retire after 38 years of service to the university. She began her career at Cal Poly in 1974 as a medical transcriber in the Health Center. She completed her Masters in Education in 1978. She was hired by the Educational Opportunity Program as a Student Affairs Officer I to design academic programs for the department. She went on to participate in grant writing for dozens of state and federal grants to fund key programs that have become instrumental in the development of SAS programs and services. Sparling is known as an expert academic adviser who is committed to intrusive advising that focuses on student success.

Catastrophic Leave

Christine Williams

Christine Williams, administrative support assistant in ITS-Media Distribution Services, has qualified for personal catastrophic leave. Those wishing to donate vacation and/or sick leave to help Christine remain in full-pay status can contact Alison Beug at ext. 6-5539 or abeug@calpoly.edu.

Kinsley ThomasWong

Kinsley ThomasWong, information technology consultant in University Housing, has qualified for personal catastrophic leave. On July 15, 2010, he was involved in a serious kite boarding accident on the North Coast that left him paralyzed from the neck down. ThomasWong has made amazing progress and can now move his upper body and left arm thanks to his strong will and daily physical therapy. Those wishing to donate vacation and/or sick leave to help ThomasWong remain in full-pay status during an extended leave of absence should contact Debi Wages at ext. 6-1559 or dwages@calpoly.edu for more information.

Campus Announcements

Kennedy Library Joins Western Regional Storage Trust

Kennedy Library announced it is a planning partner in the Western Regional Storage Trust (WEST), a collaborative and sustainable journal archiving program of the California Digital Library.

The first CSU library to join, Kennedy Library is committed to investing in e-access to current scholarship and maintaining access to the print record. Michael Miller, Cal Poly's vice provost for Information Services and CIO, serves on the WEST Executive Committee, the governing body that oversees the development and operations of the WEST program.

Because of the changing nature of information resource collection and the expense in archiving and preserving large print collections, libraries around the world are developing new ways to collaborate and share resources. Cal Poly's library is taking a proactive stance to ensure that during this transitional time and into the future, access to resources is protected. Visit the library's website to learn more.

Green Campus Program Launches "Turn 'Em Out" Campaign

November is "Turn 'Em Out" awareness month, an outreach event The Green Campus Program is promoting to all students, faculty and staff encouraging everyone to turn the lights off when not in use. The goal is to reduce electricity use at Cal Poly as much as possible. During the November, submit a photo, video, or any other type of media file of you and/or your co-workers or friends turning off the lights to greencampus@calpoly.edu. Be creative; the staff member with the best submission wins a pumpkin pie and power strips party for their department. For students: Submit the photo on our Facebook page for a chance to win an Amazon gift card Spread the word; tell your students and other coworkers. For inspiration, visit Mr. Eco's new music video "Turn 'Em Out" featuring guests such as President Jeffery D. Armstrong, ASI President Kiyana Tabrizi and Musty the Mustang.

Furniture Exhibit Opens in Kennedy Library Nov. 7

Kennedy Library invites you to their fall exhibit offered in collaboration with the Department of Architecture: “Assembly Required: An exhibition of Polytechnic furniture artists and Vellum Design winners.” The exhibit opens November 7 on the second floor of the library.

The exhibit highlights the craftsmanship and innovation of Cal Poly student furniture artists. The winners from the 2011 Vellum/College of Architecture and Environmental Design (CAED) Furniture Competition and Exhibition are a central feature of the exhibit. Curated by co-organizer and Associate Professor Tom di Santo, the pieces combine elegant craft with sustainable design.

Also featured in the exhibit are pieces of unusual furniture created from discarded books. Professor Tom Fowler (CAED) challenged his third-year studio design students to design and build these pieces in a four-day period from start to finish, with results that are inspired by and celebrate repurposed materials.
