Multicultural Center Opens Fall Series with Cyn Da'Poet

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly's MultiCultural Center is hosting "Another Type of Groove: Spoken Word Poetry," a series of performances held the first Wednesday of each month, from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the Chumash Auditorium. The 2008 Fall Series begins with Cyn Da' Poet on Wednesday, Oct. 1.

Cyn Da' Poet considers spoken word poetry her calling. Born in El Salvador, Cyn and her family moved to Los Angeles, Calif. when she was one year old. Growing up in L.A. allowed Cyn to immerse herself in a diverse cultural community that nurtured her natural talent as a writer and artist.

"Another Type of Groove" is a creative outlet for more than 150 students each month, producing dialogue between students, faculty, staff and community members. In addition to a featured poet, the event offers an open-mic poetry forum.

All events are free and open to the public. For more information, contact Josue Urrutia or Renoda Campbell at 805-756-1405 or mcc@calpoly.edu, or visit the MultiCultural Center website at <http://www.multicultural.calpoly.edu>.
