Cal Poly Continuing Education Unveils New Web Site and Catalog for Fall

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly Continuing Education and University Outreach has just released its fall 2007 course lineup in print – and also on its newly redesigned Web site at www.continuing-ed.calpoly.edu.

The redesigned and modernized Web site features easier-to-navigate pages, a new graphic format and sortable menus. The redesign has also made the Continuing Education Web site easier for disabled Web surfers to use.

The Continuing Education Web site showcases the program's quarterly offering of fall courses, which are also available in print in the Outreach catalog now arriving in homes and distribution points throughout San Luis Obispo County.

Cal Poly Continuing Education's programs include the Adult Degree Program, which allows busy adults to earn a Cal Poly bachelor's degree; Open University, which makes academic Cal Poly classes available to the public; and a range of online and local classes in professional development and personal enrichment.

For details, visit the Web site at www.continuing-ed.calpoly.edu, or call 805 756-2053 or email continuing-ed@calpoly.edu.
