University Police Department Receives Top Award for Traffic Programs

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Cal Poly’s University Police Department was recently awarded top honors for excellence in community traffic safety programs. The awards were presented at the sixth annual California Law Enforcement Challenge – a day long traffic safety symposium – in Sacramento, Calif.

Cal Poly UPD received The Commissioner’s Award for overall excellence in traffic safety programs. Bakersfield CHP Area Office also received the award.

“I’m very pleased that our department was selected to receive this prestigious reward. I am proud of my staff for their commitment to the safety of our community.”

About the California Law Enforcement Challenge

The California Law Enforcement Challenge awards showcase the best and most innovative programs produced by traffic safety organizations throughout the state. The programs are designed to increase usage of seat belts and child safety seats, as well as curtail impaired driving and speeding.
