Protection of research subjects, fraud and export controls

In response to federal requirements, the university has established policies and procedures for protecting people and animals involved in research projects, for addressing instances of scientific fraud, and for regulating the export of materials and information that are considered relevant to national security. All faculty, staff and students should be aware of these policies and follow designated procedures when conducting research. Regulations and procedures for working with human or animal subjects in research can be found at <http://www.calpoly.edu/~sdavis/human.htm> and <http://www.rgp.calpoly.edu/animalcare.html>, respectively. Policies and procedures addressing scientific fraud and misconduct can be found at: <http://www.rgp.calpoly.edu/pdf/fraud.pdf>. Information on how to comply with export control regulations can be found at www.rgp.calpoly.edu.

Rep needed for Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee

Cal Poly's Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee is seeking a representative from the community to serve on the committee. Consistent with federal guidelines, this person may not be affiliated with Cal Poly nor may any member of his or her immediate family. In addition, candidates should have a reasonable degree of scientific and technological knowledge. The role of the IACUC is to oversee the use of vertebrate animals in research and education at Cal Poly, so as to ensure compliance with federal guidelines for the humane care and use of these animals. Service on the committee is voluntary and uncompensated. Faculty and staff members who wish to recommend someone may contact Dan Peterson, IACUC chair, at ext. 6-7633 or dpeterso@calpoly.edu.

Campus crime statistics released

Cal Poly has released its annual security report pursuant to federal guidelines and the "Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act." The report lists statistics for the previous three years reported crimes. The report also includes institutional policies on campus security including alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault, and other related issues. For more information or to view the report, visit <http://police.calpoly.edu>. A printed copy the report is available by request at UPD.
