Cal Poly Men's Barbershop Quartet Performs June 1

Cal Poly's men's barbershop quartet, Wired-4-Sound, will perform an all-a cappella concert at 5 p.m. Friday, June 1, in room 218 of the Davidson Music Center.

The ensemble will perform a wide variety of songs, all in the barbershop style, including "Loch Lomond," "No More Sorrow," "Sittin' on Top of the World," and "Blue Skies."

Members are music major Kevin Sullivan, tenor; psychology major Hogan Wagner, lead; mechanical engineering major Scott Mathewson, baritone; and architectural engineering major Alex Lege, bass.

The concert is free and open to the public.

The Wired-4-Sound concert is sponsored by the Cal Poly Music Department, College of Liberal Arts, and Instructionally Related Activities program. For more information, call Kevin Sullivan at 858-722-4084, or the Music Department at 756-2406.
