Cal Poly SAFER Program to Host Benefit Concert May 22

TO: Assignment editors, photo editors, calendar editors

WHO: Cal Poly Sexual Assault Free Environment Resource program

WHAT: Benefit Concert

WHEN: 8 p.m., Tuesday, May 22

WHERE: Downtown Brewing Company, 1119 Garden Street, San Luis Obispo, Calif.

More Information: Cal Poly's SAFER program will hold the benefit concert to raise funds for the SAFER program and to raise sexual assault awareness in the community. The benefit concert is open to ages 18 and older. Tickets are $10 in advance and can be purchased at Boo Boo Records in San Luis Obispo, as well as at the Women's Center on campus. All proceeds benefit SAFER.

The concert features two local bands, The Arch Dukes and Sycamore, as well as the Berkeley based band Indubious. The bands are donating their time to help spread SAFER's sexual assault awareness messages, and to raise funds for the program.
